ROASTED TURKEYS are a good institution .-We tried one the other day. Because we say this, we don't want every body to ask us help eat one on Christmas.

DETROIT, Nov. 28 .- The following is the of-Scial vote of Michigan at the late Presidential election: Fremont, 71,162; Buchanan, 52,139; Fillmore, 1561; Smith, 150.

A GRAND BANQUET in honor of Anson Burlingame, in which some 1200 persons, including many ladies, participated, came off at Fancuil Hall Boston, on Wednesday evening a-week. The hall was beautifully decorated, and opposite the rostrum were "Fremont and Burlingame for 1860."

A Costly bit of sport was recently indulged in by a man living in Kentucky. Finding a neighbor bathing in a pond, he assaulted and beat him severely, "all in sport, and without intending to hurt," as he said; for which bit of pleasantry a court and jury adjudged him to pay the subject of his "humor," $3,000.

WORTH BRAGGING ABOUT .- We have the least quantity of provisions, the highest prices, the muddiest roads, and the finest prospect of "hard times" in Clearfield of any county in the interior of the State. We trust this flattering account won't induce too many to emigrate at once-"one at a time" will answer.

LOCAL ITEMS are scarce. We should feel obliged to any one that would kick up a row, (we don't mean ourself,) or pull somebody's ment of the Grand Jury, at the recent session nose and raise a fight, clope with some one's of the Court at Clearfield, which relates to the wife, get "bricks enough in his hat" to repair improvement of the Court House, which we the fail, rob a hen-roost, and as a matter of publish at the request of several persons. The course leave the pullets in our care, or do Grand Jury say : something else that would be worth noting.

A NEW APPORTIONMENT of the State for Senator and representatives, will be made by the Legislature elected last October. Representatives are apportioned in the ratio of one member to every hundredth part of the whole taxables in the State.

FAR WEST .- The Indians in Washington Territory, Oregon and the northern portion of California have again been somewhat troublesome, and parties of volunteers have been out among them in the neighborhood of Little Klamath Lake. The Indians having been aware of their approach, generally had fied and few were killed. No more difficulties are anticipated from them this fall. Near Sonora the Diggers have been feasting and dancing among themselves, and also near Los Angeles.

ANTICIPATED FAMINE IN LAPLAND .- A late Stockholm paper says: "The intelligence we receive from Lapland is very deplorable. The severe cold which prevailed during the month of August destroyed nearly all the crops, which is an almost irremediable misfortune there, where there are no means of communication. The Laplanders are in gree highn, foreseeing a famine in the winter. Trip binperature in Lapland presented most extraordinary variations this year, severe cold having prevailed in July and August, whereas September and the beginning of October were as warm as summer."

A Man Salted Down .- A singular circumstance recently occurred in Miller county, Illinois. An old man named Wilson, aged eighty-six, died, having made arrangements with certain persons not to bury him, but to have his entrails taken out, put in a box, and placed in the Susquehanna, which will enable those beside his coffin, which he has had over ten years. > MEXICO .- By New Orleans dates of Nov. 26 we learn that the schooner Major Barbour, from Coatzacoalcas River, reports having been fired into on the 12th October, by the Mexican war steamer Democrata. Persons on board the schooner were also fired at from the steamer. The commander of the Democrata fired a pistol at Capt. Thompson of the Major Barbour. The Democrata seized the Mexican Custom House, and made the officers prisoners. It is stated in private letters received from Tamaulipas that a pitched battle was fought on the 10th November, near Monterey, between the forces of Vidauri and Garza, in which the latter lost everything, barely saving his own life. It is thought that Vidauri's success will have great effect on Commonfort's

The following is that portion of the present-

"We have examined the Court House and are of opinion that it should be improved to meet the wants of the present condition and population of the county. Built as it was over thirty years ago, when the population and business of the county could well be accommodated in it, it was sufficient and indeed a creditable edifice; but the growth of the county has rendered a larger building absolutely neaccommodation, and in which they desire to be, and have a right to be during the sitting South Carolina Le- of the courts.
