When thy arms around me fold. I am dying, brother, dying; Soon you'll miss me in your berth, For my frame will soon be lying 'Neath the ocean's briney surf.

Hearken, brother, to me hearken, I have something I would say, Bre the vale my vision darken, And I go from hence away. I am going, surely going, But my hope in God is strong;

I am willing, brother, willing, For he doeth nothing wrong. Tell my father when you greet him, That in death I prayed for him-Prayed that I one day might meet him,

In a world that's free from sin. Tell my mother-God assist her. Now that she is growing old-Tell, her child would glad have kissed her, When his lips grew pale and cold.

Listen, brother! catch each whisper; 'Tis my wife I speak of now; Tell her, oh! tell her, how I missed her, When the fever burnt my brow ! Tell her, brother-closely listen, Don't forget a single word-That in death my eyes did glisten With the tears her memory stirred.

Tell her she must kiss my children, Like the kiss I last impressed; Hold them as when I last held them Folded closely to my breast; Give them early to their Maker,

Putting all her trust in God. And He never will forsake her, For he has said so in his word. O, my children! Heaven bless them-

They were all my life to me; Would I could once more enress them, Ere I sink beneath the sea; Twas for them I crossed the ocean, What my hopes were 1'll not tell; But they've gained the orphan's portion ;

Yet He doeth all things well. Tell my sisters, I remember Every kindly parting word, And my heart has been kept tender, As these thoughts thro' memory stirr'd. Tell them I never reached the haven Where I sought the precious dust,

But I've gained the port of Heaven, Where the gold will never rust. Urge them to secure an entrance, For they'll find their brother there; Faith in Jesus, and repentance, Will secure for each a share. Hark! I hear my Savior speaking; 'Tis his voice, I know it well; When I'm gone, 0 don't be weeping;

Brother, hear my last farewell!

IMPORTANT TO HOUSEKEEPERS AND FRUIT GROWERS .-- ARTHUE'S PATent Air-Tight Self-Sealing Cane and Jars, for Preserving Fresh Fruits, &c.—This invention for which a patent has been obtained, commends it-self to the attention of Housekeepers and others, on account of its great simplicity, and the effectual manner in which it accomplished a very desirable and useful object The cans and jars are constructed with a channel around the mouth, near the top, into which the cover fits loosely. This channel is filled with a very adhesive co gent, prepared for the paren and allowed to harden. In order to seal the sel hermetically, it is only necessary to heat the cover slightly, and press it into place. It may be opened with as much ease as it is closed, by slightfor the same purpose for which this is intended, cannot be closed, as is well known without the aid of a tinner; are difficult to open, and are generally so much injured in opening as to be useless for future service. By this simple contrivance, the process of hermetical scaling is placed conveniently within the reach of every individual; and fruit, vegetables and butter (if properly prepared) may be kept, with their natural flavor unimpaired, for an in definite length of time.
