

THE RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL

THE JOURNAL

CLEARFIELD, PA., JANUARY 28, 1857.

The Baptist Church of Clearfield will hold their next communion on the first Sabbath in February, in the Lutheran meeting-house. The meetings will commence on Thursday evening preceding the first Sabbath.

THIEVES ABOUT.—On the night of the 20th inst., some rogues stole the meat of two hogs from John Blair, Esq., of Boggs township, during the absence of himself and wife.

HOUSE BURNED.—On Wednesday last, we learn, the house of Roswell Luther, Esq., of Brady township, with all its contents, was destroyed by fire. Mr. L. had been in this place on that day, and on his return home found his house burned down. We did not hear how the fire originated.

SUDDEN CHANGE.—Monday morning last was the coldest we had this winter—the thermometer indicating 24 to 26 degrees below zero. During the day it moderated, and in the evening it commenced raining, which continued during the night and next day. The snow melted away considerably yesterday.

EXAMINATION.—The semi-annual examination of the pupils of Clearfield Institute will be held during Wednesday and Thursday of next week, in their respective school-rooms. Patrons, trustees, and all interested in the cause of Education, are respectfully invited by the Principal to attend.

T. & C. RAILROAD.—In the latter part of the past week, the officers of the Tyrone & Clearfield Railroad passed along a part of the line, and we have been informed, concluded to have a change made at the short curve at Mt. Pleasant point. By making an embankment, at an increased cost of $15,000, which, we believe, the contractors are willing to take and the company to pay, the danger of a curve of some twenty-odd degrees can be avoided, besides shortening the distance some. For the sake of having a safe road, a few thousand dollars should not be withheld.

A WORD OF ADVICE.—We take it upon ourselves to advise such persons as have left Clearfield on account of the supposed severity of our winters, to repent of their precipitate flight, and return immediately. Whilst from almost all sections east, west and south, we receive accounts of deep snows and of the mercury being during the entire day below zero, we can congratulate ourselves upon having a very moderate quantity of congealed vapor, and that the weather clerk was so compassionate as to order the quicksilver to ascend about that famous point before mid-day. It is true, we had a few very cold mornings, by way of variety; but as a whole we had a moderate and enduring winter. We begin to think that there is more than mere speculation in the doctrine of a milder climate nearer the poles. This winter's experience would seem to establish it conclusively; though the fact that no perceptible diminution of cold can be felt at a less distance than twenty-three hundred miles north of this place, might create a doubt in the minds of the incredulous as to the conclusiveness of the testimony. But any rational individual, when he reads the accounts of railroads being obstructed and streets shut up with snow in Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, all lying south of us, and then views the few inches of snow which surround him here, he must involuntarily conclude that his close proximity to the north pole, if there is anything in the theory already mentioned, must have something to do with it, and he should thank his stars for placing him in such a delightful and desirable latitude.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.—Common Pleas.—The following were the only cases tried—the other causes in the list having been continued: Philip Ford et al vs. Chaffee, Stout & Co. et al. Feigned issue to test right to money arising from sale of store of R. M. Stevenson & Co. Tried, jury discharged, and E. S. Dundy, Esq., appointed auditor to distribute funds among certain creditors of said firm. Larimer for Piffs; R. J. Wallace and — for Defts.

E. P. Hurxthal & Bro. vs. Benj. and Peter Lousberger. Action for damages for non-delivery of raft on contract. Tried and verdict for Defendants. Linn and McEnally for Piffs. Wallace and Dundy for Defts.

Kelly & Dickenson vs. Joseph Best. Appeal from Justice of the Peace. Verdict for Piffs, $61. Wallace for Piffs, Larimer for Defts.

B. D. Hall & Co. vs. Isaac Gaines. Debt. Verdict for Piffs, $98.62. Wallace for Piffs, McEnally and Linn for Defts.

M. E. Wood vs. Job Engelen. Appeal from Justice of the Peace. Trial—verdict for Piff, $15. McEnally for Piff, Crans for Deft.

In the Court of Quarter Sessions the following were disposed of: Commonwealth vs John Uzzle. Assault and battery. Defendant sentenced to pay a fine of $10 and costs and undergo an imprisonment for 30 days. McCullough and Crans for Piff, Wallace for Deft.

Commonwealth vs John Rowles. Assault and battery. Defendant sentenced to pay a fine of $5 and costs and be imprisoned 4 days. McCullough, Wallace and Crans for Piff, and Cuttle for Deft.

The Grand Jury acted on 11 bills of which 8 were returned true bills—3 Ignoramus. The Grand Jury, in their presentment, recommended the building of a new court-house, provided it can be done without any additional increase of taxes.

MORALS OF THE COURT OF SPAIN.—The London Times in a late article upon Spain, says:—Furthermore, the scandals of former period. The Queen, it is reported, has thrown aside the last remnant of decency, and relaxed, after a short period of restraint, into excesses of which even a southern capital is ashamed. The King, on the other hand, is divided from his wife by an intense mutual dislike, and is reported to be actually plotting against her throne. His narrow intellect is entirely ruled by the priests, who surrounded him, and his men are all on the side of Montemolin and legitimacy. His present scheme seems to be to force the Queen to resign, to place Count Montemolin in her room, and to marry the infant Princess to Montemolin's nephew. Such is the royal couple to which the destinies of Spain are committal.

CLIPPINGS AND SCRIBBLINGS.

Bliss—our lumbermen. Re-elected—Mr. Harlan as U. S. Senator from Iowa.

The Republicans have carried the municipal elections in Pittsburgh, Allegheny City and Birmingham.

Killed—a bear weighing 351 lbs., at Mt. Union, Huntingdon county, last week. His carcass sold for 15 cents per lb.

Arrested for stealing lumber—the speaker who "took the floor." He and the lady who "took the veil" are to be tried together.

The latest way to pop the question is to ask the fair lady "if you shall have the pleasure of seeing her at the minister's."

A fool in high station is like a man on the top of a mountain; everybody appears small to him, and he appears small to everybody.

A good idea.—It is said that a certain town in New England, in order to get rid of supporting a pauper, elected him to a seat in the Legislature.

Decidedly cold—last Monday morning. The thermometers indicated 24 degs. below zero. Jack Frost, we suppose, is, like calico, trying to "spread" himself.

A Louisiana correspondence of the Journal of Commerce says the sugar crop of that State will fall short 100,000 lbsd. the present year. In 1853 the yield was 495,000 lbsd.

A disputed point—whether the recent storms east and south were caused by the defeat of the Democracy in this State for U. S. Senator, or on account of Dr. Kane's trip to Havana.

Hon. Gabriel Cannon has been chosen Lieut. Governor of South Carolina.—When that State secedes from the Union, that Cannon will probably "go off," and Gabriel will "blow his horn."

In mourning—the last Bellefonte Watchman, at the defeat of John W. Forney for U. S. Senator. A copious lachrymal demonstration will undoubtedly relieve the poor fellow's lacerated "cheekbones."

Heavy Loss.—Senator Bell's losses by the "insurrection" panic were greater than has been reported. No less than sixteen of his slaves were killed by the excited populace—some with, and some without the forms of law.

Plenty—mad dogs in Illinois. At Joliet, last week three children and a number of cattle were bitten; and at Augusta a single dog bit upwards of twenty cattle, hogs and sheep, most of which have since gone mad.—The stock bitten was estimated to be worth $2,000.

Hunt, in his reminiscences, relates that Coleridge, upon the death of a master of a school he had attended when a boy, remarked, "It was lucky that the cherubim who took him to heaven were nothing but faces and wings, or he would have infallibly flogged them on the way."

True—An exchange says: "When a man gets mad and stops his paper, he always borrows the next number of his neighbor to see if the withdrawal of his paper hasn't killed the editor, and dressed the columns of his paper in mourning. Such men are apt to imagine that the world rests on their shoulders."

Queer freak.—One of the female lunatics in the New York Asylum, the Syracuse Courier says, has the delusion that she has been the wife of each successive President.—She is now Mrs. Pierce, and her nuptials with Mr. Buchanan are anticipated by her about the time of his inauguration.

Large Award.—The United States Court of Claims at Washington has decided a claim to the amount of $180,000, against the United States, in favor of the widow of Reeside, for many years a great mail contractor. The Court reported a bill to Congress granting her the amount, which was immediately passed unanimously by the House.

New Kink.—Forty-two scoundrels, embracing some of every grade in the fraternity, such as burglars, highwaymen, sneak thieves, bullies and pimps, were arrested Friday night a week, in New York, and placed on exhibition, free gratis, that persons who had lost property might see, and it possible, identify them. We think the plan of literally caging and exhibiting scoundrels, would soon produce good results.

Zachariah Chandler, who has been chosen by the Republicans of Michigan to replace Gen. Cass in the Senate, for six years from the 4th of March next, is a leading and popular merchant of Detroit, and at the same time a zealous and energetic politician. He was the Whig candidate for Governor in 1852, and shared the fortunes of General Scott, having been beaten by Robert McClelland, the present Secretary of the Interior.

The Harrisburg Herald speaks of a new counterfeit $10 note on the Harrisburg Bank, which it says is very different from the counterfeit on the Bank of Montgomery County ten. It has portraits of Washington and Ritzenhouse in the centre—canal boat on one end, and male and female on the other—with train of cars at the bottom of the note. The genuine ten has the State Capitol in the centre, with the Goddess of Liberty in the foreground, seated. The vignettes on the ends are both alike—two females.

Tart.—Six "democratic" members who boarded at Will's Pennsylvania Hotel addressed a note to Samuel Menear, one of the members who voted for Simon Cameron, requesting him to leave the house, on which Mr. Menear replied that as he is not willing longer to associate with persons who have "so little knowledge of what is becoming in members of a high and honorable body" he intended to leave it. The six "gentlemen" who made this insulting request were C. M. Leisenring, J. C. Evans, B. Nunnemacher, J. Pearson, M. Hoffmann and Franklin M'Ilvain, and deserve to have their skunkers recorded.

BRIGHAM YOUNG.—This Mormon despot, according to a correspondent from Utah, is carrying matters with a high hand, doing everything in his power, by persecution and otherwise, to drive out of the Territory those who do not sympathize with the peculiar institution under which he has acquired an absolute sway. The Mormon emigrants, on their way in the hand-cart train to the Salt Lake, are represented as suffering greatly. The train contained 350 souls, of whom 50 were already dead, and they were dying at the rate of 15 a day.

1857.—A Magazine for the Home of the BEST MAGAZINE, the Pioneer Magazine of the Country, established in 1837.—Subscribe for the New Volume commencing with the January number, 1857.—WATSON & CO., the new publishers of "Graham's Illustrated Magazine," announce to the Ladies and Gentlemen of the United States in general, and to the former patrons of the work in particular, that it is their intention to make use of all the immense resources at their command to produce a First Class Magazine. To this end no expense or exertion will be spared. The best Literary and Artistic talent will be employed, and nothing that capital, taste and enterprise can accomplish will be wanting to make this Magazine more than ever deserving the liberal support so generously extended to it during the past 30 years. Every number will contain 2 fine steel engravings. One illustrative of some of the most beautiful pictures of the day; the other a beautiful colored Fashion Plate, drawn from actual articles of costume. A large number of fine wood engravings, patterns for Crochet and Needle-work, engraved from the articles themselves. All the latest styles of costumes for Ladies and Children will be copied from the newest patterns, and fully described and illustrated in every number. Ladies about forming clubs of subscribers are requested to compare "Graham" with any other Magazine published, and we are confident their good taste and correct judgment will decide in our favor. Gentlemen who are about to subscribe for a Magazine for their own reading, or to present to their family friends, should procure a copy of "Graham" and examine it thoroughly, and then see if any other periodical presents equal inducements for their subscriptions. The twelve numbers of "Graham" for the year 1857, will comprise one of the most magnificent volumes ever issued, containing in all 1200 pages of reading matter: 100 fine wood engravings; 12 handsome steel engravings; 12 beautiful colored fashion plates; 100 engravings of ladies' & children's dresses; 50 counting illustrations; And over 200 patterns for needlework. &c. TERMS: One copy, one year, $3 00; Two copies, $5 00. Five copies, and one to get up a set of club,
