

THE RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL.

THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., FEBRUARY 4, 1857.

St. Andrew's Church.—Public worship next Lord's day, 8th inst., at 11 o'clock A. M. and at 8 o'clock P. M. Subjects—Character of Paul the Apostle, and Job and his Trials.

To Housekeepers.—We omitted last week to call attention to the advertisement of A. H. Bauman, headed "Flour, flour."

To Lumbermen.—We direct attention to the advertisement of C. A. Schaffner, of Marietta, in to-day's Journal. The object of Mr. S. is to take charge of the timber of such as have not disposed of it before the season is drawing to a close and who are desirous of returning home. Mr. S. has been many years in the timber-inspection and lumber business, and doubtless understands it well. Read his advertisement.

GENERAL JAIL DELIVERY.—On the night of the 27th ult., all the prisoners, three in number, confined in our county jail, left without asking leave of absence from the Sheriff. They forced an iron bar off the partition, with which, after heating it, they burned the lock loose from the door. Our jail is a model concern. Whenever a scoundrel, who may be fortunate enough to get into it, desires to leave, he requires nothing more than a small piece of iron, or a chair-leg, and without any particular "fuss" he opens the doors and takes his departure.

GROUND-HOG DAY.—Monday last, the 24th inst., was the famous "ground-hog day." It is contended by the knowing ones in this peculiar science, that if the sun shines so that his hogs can see his shadow, when he comes forth from his burrow, he gets scared at it, scampers back into his hole, and remains there for six weeks, during which time he causes us to be visited by "hard weather," probably as a punishment for the fright which we permitted the sun to give him. Well—the sun did shine beautifully on Monday, and if any of the ground-hog tribe were out on that day, they could not fail to see their shadow. Yesterday, however, "Old Sol" was again shining brightly, and we trust that he will continue to do so, and pay no attention to these tyrannical "underground" porkers, who presume to restrict his free action and to regulate the weather for his poor mortals here below.

TYRONE & CLEARFIELD RAILROAD.—We mentioned last week that the Directors were about making a change by which the short curve at Mt. Pleasant might be avoided. We learned, a few evenings since, from Mr. Montgomery, the chief engineer of the road, that the directors had made an agreement with the contractors to that effect, at an additional cost, as before stated, of $15,000. This fixes the entire cost of the grading from Tyrone to Philipsburg at $105,000. The work is being pushed vigorously, the enterprising contractors having now not less than 250 hands actively engaged at different points along the line, and an additional force was to have been put yesterday on the work of filling up required by the change mentioned. The financial affairs of the company are, we believe, in a wholesome condition. The subscriptions of stock amount to $160,000, and arrangements are being made to meet demands as they accrue. The liveliest hopes are entertained of having that portion of the road which is under contract, completed during the present year.

Gossips.—What a queer institution one of your town-gossips is! There is no understanding the strange tips—so easy, so disinterested, so friendly. We can't conceive how the world could do without gossips. Without them, a town would be no town at all—it would be lacking in one of the prominent elements of human character. The employment of this class of hindoo-vindals, we have an idea, must be highly detectable, or they would not engage in it voluntarily. And, we presume also, that some benefits flow from a judicious indulgence in their enticing pastime. For instance, an exercise of locomotive powers is required in running from house to house, in order to give everybody the news that old Sharp had been ogling at Miss Millie—and no one, we are certain, will pretend to assert that exercise is not healthy. It also gives an opportunity of expanding some of the mental faculties—it brings into activity Causality, Eventuality, Size, Form, Individuality, Ideality, and the rest of the manufacturing bumps. And, then, they are so attentive in minding the business of others. Affairs matrimonial receive special attention—they assort, arrange, adjust, fix up, and pair off to their own entire satisfaction "Young America," without troubling the youngsters at all—not even so much as to consult them. They likewise take care that nothing demoralising passes by unrebuked. Therefore, should Mrs. Farnsworth call at young Yardstick's store more than once a week, significant winks and nods pass between the gossip family, and fears are expressed that, if the aforesaid lady, peradventure, should prove to be a second Mrs. Potipher, innocent Yardstick might, perhaps, fall to possess the forbearance of a Joseph. By such a practice, they keep down scandal, encourage virtue, and by giving timely notice to the lady's husband, prevent any unpleasant feelings arising between them. But want of space precludes us from detailing the many commendable traits of this worthy class. We entertain a high respect for this peculiarly well-meaning portion of the "human herd," and we hope—we trust—we pray, that no one may prove so ungrateful as to neglect any one of these "good" qualities among their neighbors!

It was confidently asserted that the officers of the Lancaster Bank would make an assignment of its effects on Monday. This will appreciate the notes considerably.

The Curwensville and Pike Township Lyceum and Teachers' Association met, according to adjournment, on Saturday, Jan. 24th, 1857, at the new school house in Curwensville. Joseph M. Spencer delivered a lecture on Orthography, Jesse Broomall on Arithmetic, and D. M. Kister on Penmanship. Adjourned to meet on Saturday evening, Feb. 5th, when the practicability of a High School in Curwensville will be discussed by Rev. L. L. Still, J. Peters and J. Patton—essays by Alvin Ross and Dr. A. T. Schryver, subjects optional. The Ladies are respectfully invited to attend, and all others interested in the cause of education. J. PATTON, Pres. D. M. KISTER, Sec'y.

CLIPPINGS AND SCRIBBLINGS.

Continues good—the sleighing in Clearfield. A lively companion—the jumping toothache. Sharp—the breath of Jack Frost and our scissors. (1)

To be celebrated—the anniversary of Washington's birth-day at Philipsburg. Good Cough-mixture—a pair of heavy boots and plenty of fresh air and exercise.

Wood was selling in Cincinnati a week ago at $14 per cord, and no coal to be had. Fixed upon—the 10th day of February as the time for the Legislature to elect a State Treasurer.

Clearfield Bank.—On the 26th January, Mr. Southern, of the State Senate, read in place a bill to incorporate the Clearfield Bank.

Mrs. McClister, wife of E. McClister of Indiana county, Pa., committed suicide on the 9th ult., by cutting her throat with a razor. She was partially insane.

We heard a young lady remark on Monday morning that the "threemometer" was down to "squeeze-out!" We suspect she had kept late hours the night before with her beau.

Mr. Slough, a member of the Ohio Legislature, from Hamilton county, was expelled from the House, on the 29th January, by a vote of 70 to 35, for striking Mr. Caldwell, of Ashabula, for words spoken in debate.

The St. Paul (Minn.) Times states that "fire-wood is selling in that city, for $9 per cord." With fuel at such a price, and the intense cold of the long winter in that region, Minnesota does not present much inducement to immigration there.

The Locofoco organ of Schuylkill county says the newspapers that are tashing Messrs. Lebo and Wagonseller for voting for Cameron, might just as well mind their own business, as a majority of the democracy there would any day prefer Cameron to Forney as U.S. Senator. Half Living.—The Davenport (Iowa) Gazette says that butter, at that place, is selling at 30 cents per pound; eggs, 26 cents per dozen; chickens 25 cents each; turkeys, 75 cts. to $1.25; potatoes, $1 per bushel; coal, 10 to 18 cents per bushel; wood, $6 to $8 per cord. "Gin a treat!"—Hon. Simon Cameron, on last Wednesday evening, to a large number of his friends. The newspaper reporters, who are "thick as hops" about Harrisburg, couldn't come in, and are "down in the mouth" about it; but whenever Simon says "wig-wag," they will all come right. With the exception of a few miles in Virginia there is now a connected line of railroad all the way from Bangor on the Peninsula, to Montgomery, on the Alabama; ere long the chain will be extended to New Orleans, thence to be carried westward until it reaches the Pacific. Centre County.—On the 16th Jan., the house of Geo. W. Shaffer, of Benner tp., was entirely consumed by fire. On the 18th, the house of Mr. McGlaughlin, of Bald Eagle Valley, and a short time previous the house of Robt. Campbell, Esq., in Half Moon township, were also destroyed by fire. Lake Erie is now one vast field of ice, so far as the eye can reach, from shore to shore. So says the Cleveland Herald. Along the shore the ice is fine, smooth and solid, and covered at all hours with troops of skaters, while further away it is covered with a snowy crust, upon which the skaters never venture.

The law relative to depreciating Spanish quarters, levies and tips, has not yet passed Congress, but in the meantime speculators in the cities are already at work scaring people into parting with them at 20, 10 and 5 cents. Our advice is, unless much defaced, to keep them, or part with them only for what they are really worth.

Missionaries in the Pacific.—There are now on the islands of the Pacific ocean, in connection with the London Church Wesleyan and American Missionary Societies, 119 missionaries, 45,929 communicants, 289,300 professed Protestants, and 51,708 pupils. The largest single Protestant church in the world is on one of these islands. Christian missions have had their greatest triumphs among the heathen of this ocean world.

Isaac S. Shurlock, charged with the murder of Philip S. Clawges, was acquitted at Philadelphia, on Saturday last—a week. There was no question about the murder. The act was done deliberately and with premeditation. It will be recollected that Clawges had seduced the wife of Shurlock, who was his clerk.—Upon his wife informing him of the outrage committed upon her, Shurlock armed himself with a revolver, stationed himself in the street, and when Clawges came up to him, discharged three shots into his victim, and then gave himself into the hands of the authorities.—The provocation was great, and the jury acquitted him.

THE—On the 1st inst., near Curwensville, in Pike township, Mr. JAMES SHARR, aged 51 yrs.

MONEY FOUND.—A sum of money was found in Clearfield borough, this day, (the 21st) by the undersigned, which the owner can have by describing the same and paying for this notice. JOHN KLINE, Jr. Bradford tp., Jan. 21, 1857.

FOR SALE.—A two-story frame House, with a half acre of land adjoining, situate in Lawrence township, on the road from Clearfield to Curwensville, about 11 miles from Clearfield. For terms apply to Zebad Lowhead, Lawrence township, or to the subscriber, L. JACKSON CRANS, Clearfield, Pa. June 4

CAUTION.—All persons are cautioned against meddling with the following property, now in possession of Wm. Curry, Sr. and Samuel Curry, of Knox township, as the same belongs to one John H. Kline, who has a lien on said property. One bay Horse One mare One sorrel Mare, Two sets of Harness, and Two Cows. H. D. PATTON, Curwensville, Dec. 10, 1856. [Jan. 7-3m]

SAMUEL JOHNSTON, BARBER AND HAIR DRESSER, would respectfully inform the citizens of Clearfield that he has opened a shop in "Knox's Row," in the room recently occupied by F. Short, as a Boot and Shoe shop, where he is at all times ready to cut Hair in the most fashionable style and do everything in the Barbering and Hair Dressing business as performed. He solicits the patronage of the public. Jan. 7, 1857.

FOR SALE.—Valuable Real Estate in Bell Township.—The subscriber offers for sale his valuable farm, situate in Bell township, Clearfield county, lying on the River, 2 miles above Mechanics Mills, containing one hundred and thirty eight acres and 67 perches; seventy acres of which are cleared and in a good state of cultivation, and the balance well timbered, having thereon three dwelling houses, large barns, outbuildings, two bearing apple orchards, and is well watered. A good title will be given, and terms made easy. For further particulars inquire of the subscriber. [Nov19-2m] JOHN WEAVER.
