UNION STATE CONVENTION.

The following call of a State Convention we find in the Harrisburg Telegraph of Saturday, which, that journal states, had already been of the Legislature opposed to the present National Administration; but as several members were absent who are also favorable to the call, its official publication was to have been withheld until Tuesday, (yesterday,) when it would Friday next is the day fixed for the temporary appear with all the names appended:

The citizens of Pennsylvania who are opposed to the extension of Slavery and to the other equally obnoxious principles of the incoming National Administration, as announced in the Cincinnati platform ;-who are opposed to the union of church and State, the exclusion of the Bible from our Common Schools, and in favor of protecting the ballot box from the corrupt influences by which the will of the people was defeated in the recent State and Presidential elections, are requested to elect delegates, equal in number to the present representation in the Senate and House of Representatives, to meet in the Hall of the House of Representatives, at Harrisburg, on Tuesday the 25th day of March next, at 12 o'clock M., to nominate candidates for Governor, Judge of the Supreme Court and Canal Commissioner, to be supported at the ensuing October election. Harrisburg, Feb. 21st, 1857.

We think that this movement on the part of the members of the Legislature, who represent the various elements opposed to the sham Democracy, will be received with general spprobation by all who sincerely desire to defeat Locofocoism. If we concentrate all our forcus next fall on one sett of candidates, we feel confident that we can elect our State ticket. We believe that we have the numerical force to do it, and all we require is to move in harmony. Any man with a grain of common sense must know that if we divide our forces we cannot expect to succeed. United action is what we want, for upon fundamental principles there is little or no difference between the several elements opposed to the Democracy. All are opposed to an alliance between Church and State, to Roman-Catholic, Jesuitical interference in the affairs of our Government, to excluding the Bible from our common schools, and to the extension of Slavery and the Cincinnati platform. These points are embraced in the call, which, it is gratifying to learn, meets with the approval of both Americans and Republicans.

THE CORRUPTION INVESTIGATION .-- On last Thursday, Mr. Davis, of Maryland, by direction of the Investigating Committee, made a special report to the lower House of Congress, in the case of Wm. A. Gilbert, a member from New York, which sets forth, That Mr. Gilbert did agree with F. F. C. Triplett to procure the passage of a resolution or bill through the present Congress for the purchase by Congress of certain copies of a book containing the pension and bounty land laws, in consideration that he was to receive from Mr. Triplett a certain sum ($14,500) of money out of the appropriation for the purchase of the book; that Mr. Gilbert did cast his vote for the Iowa land bill for a corrupt consideration, consisting of seven square miles of land and some stock: and recommend that he be forthwith expelled. Three other special reports were submitted. implicating Hon. Wm. W. Welsh, of Connecticut, in the Triplett corruption ; Hon. Franeis S. Edwards, of New York, and Hon. Orsimus B. Matteson, also of New York, in other corruptions; and recommend the expulsion of all three. The general report recommends the expulsion of Mr. Simonton, the correspondent of the N. Y. Times, and suggests the passage of a bill to prevent combinations or personal the hands of such suspicious looking characoutside effort for the passage of bills. Considerable discussion, of a rather animated characted, took place, upon the report. Messrs. Grow. Bennett, and others, condemned the action of the committee, and contended that they had transcended their powers. The consideration of the question was finally postponed until to-day (Wednesday.)

CORRUPTION IN CONGRESS .- The Cincinnati Gazette says : "A gentleman who never was a member of Congress, but who was connected with the Collins Company as stockholder, and was thoroughly acquainted with all the ropes, told us that it cost the company $450,000 to secure the appropriation referred to by the Boston Journal; that most of the members who voted for the appropriation were bribed or bought, compensated or influenced, or whatever term may be applied to the operation of cents and small coin, sometimes pay bills with securing votes by purchase. The facts were | it, to the annoyance of the creditor, will percommunicated to us without any injunction as | ceive that there is a stoppage put to that anto secresy, but we would not feel at liberty to tic by law. divulge the name of the author without his consent. We will say this much, however, that if we should name the gentleman in the Gazette, very few men in or out of Congress would doubt the statement.

THANKS .- Geo. B. Goodlander, Esq., of the Board of Revenue Commissioners at Harrisburg, will please accept our thanks for favors forwarded. Also-Messrs. Souther, Blaine, Backus, and others, of the Legislature.

FROM THE STATE CAPITAL.

HARRISBURGH, Feby. 28, 1857. S. B. Row, Esq.-Another week has rolled change either for oragainst the Commonwealth at large, or its interests. The 10th of March has been fixed for electing a State Treasurer. Henry S. Magraw, Esq., the present incumbent, will be the Democratic candidate, and be the opposition. Mr. Magraw is a very poppast year. General Power is his equal in every respect, and in either event the State will

The river here looks as if rafts would be coming before long; but I see by the papers that the rafting business has only begun. Several Clearfield gentlemen were here last week. I presume if you had the Clearfield Bank, they could be at home attending to business. I it is now on the file here. I think it is the signed at that time by nearly all the members only bill for that bank, or on that bank, you will see till spring.

> There is a small sprinkling of Democrats here now, in advance of the Convention. I suppose there will be more here this week. adjournment-and then every thing will be given up to Border Ruffian rule. The moralizing influences of the Legislature will not be felt upon the Convention, and every thing will run riot. It is wrong that the Legislature had agreed to adjourn.

> Williamsport and Lock Haven will send greeting, from this time forward, upon the log question. A strong delegation will be down from those places this week, to oppose anything that will keep log-floating within bounds. Their business feeds upon others rights, and maintains itself upon others misfortunes. If the Legislature refuses to protect its citizens in following their lawful calling-if a wrong exists towards a portion of the citizens, without a remedy, and the Legislature, the lawmaking power, refuses to grant redress-there is but one way left that I know of, and that is for every man to protect himself. No man has the right to commit an act of despotism or oppression over his neighbor, because he has the power to do it, simply to put money in his own pecket. If one portion of the State is to be ruined to build up another portion. while they have to come to our doors to do it. I think something can be done to protect our-OLDTOWN.

> MR. BUCHANAN'S CABINET .- A despatch from Lancaster, of the 21st Feb., says :- Gen. Cass. after all, is the Secretary of State. And thereunderstood, there came a tremendous pressure from the Southern ultras and others against Cobb as Premier and for Robert J. Walker. Mr. Buchanan would probably have compromised the trouble by giving Walker his old place in the Treasury, but Cobb would not agree to make a Cabinet unit with Walker, and hence the return back to Gen. Cass for Premier. The appointment of Cass and Cobb. however, to the two commanding positions in the Cabinet, strikes the secessionists between wind and water, and is equivalent to a practical and absolute repudiation of the border rufflan, Kansas, nigger agitation and disunion policy of Pierce. This is the intent of these appointments. The rest are but secondary." So says the despatch.

THE MCKIM EXCITEMENT .- Some ten or a dozen days ago, a man went into Bowman's tavern in Altoona and inquired what time the next train would go up. Upon being told, not till morning, he remarked that would not suit him, and started to walk up on the track. Somebody suggested that he might be the murderer of young Norcross, and pursuit was immediately made. As the pursuers pressed after the suspected man, he increased his speed, and at last it became a regular chase. The latter, however, was too much for his pursuers, who had to leave him escape. For several days there was much excitement, but when it was discovered that the suspected man was Col. Moore, manager at Bennington furnace, and ran because he had a considerable sum of money, and did not like to fall into ters, it died away suddenly, and sundry folks at Altoona and elsewhere felt pretty well sold.

LEGAL TENDER-The law regulating the payment of debts with coin, provides the following coin to be the legal tender, and we trust our readers will bear it in mind :

1. All gold coins at their respective values, for debts of any amount .- 2. The half dollar. quarter-dollar, dime and half-dime, at their respective values, for debts of amounts under five dollars .- 3. Three-cent pieces for debts of amounts under thirty cents; and 4th, by the law just passed, we may add one-cent pieces for debts of amounts under ten cents.

By a law of Congress, passed some four o five years ago, gold, instead of silver, was made the legal tender for large amounts .-Those, who, to get rid of large quantities of

The Mexican Steamer Guerrero arrived at Mobile on the 23d, with Dr. Crawford, bearer of despatches from Minister Forsyth to our Government; Col. Butterfield, bearer of an important treaty concluded by Mr. Forsyth, and Don Barradurno, Secretary of the Mexican Legation at Washington, with a copy of the treaty. The Government tendered the steamer to Mr. Forsyth, and the party left Mexico privately to avoid suspicion.

CYRUS P. LANE was arrested at Cleveland, Ohio, on the 21st, on a charge of swindling the Geauga Bank. All his swindling operations reach from $200,000 to $500,000.

PROBABLE DEATH OF DR. KANE. Intelligence has been received in Philadelphia, by Judge Kane, the father of Dr. Kane, around without producing any very material which leaves but little doubt that ere this the spirit of the accomplished and intrepid Arctic navigator has passed from time to eternity .-Mr. Henry Grinnell, of New York, has also received the same sad intelligence in a despatch Gen. Thomas J. Power, of Beaver county, will 13th the Doctor was still alive, but could not last through the day; he was in his right mind, deed, and we are confident the whole civilized world will mourn the early death of our distinhave a good man in that important department. | guished countryman. | ELISHA KENT KANE Was Virginia, and his medical education at the University of Pennsylvania, where he graduated as a doctor of medicine in 1843. Soon after receiving his degree he was appointed surgeon can send the bill for that bank, if you wish, as to the first American mission to China. He travelled extensively in China, the East Indian Archipelago, British India, and Egypt. After his return to the United States from these adventures, he next sailed for the West Coast of Africa, and visited the slave factories from Cape Mount to the river Bonny. During the war with Mexico in 1847, he visited that country, and performed a perilous service in bearing President Polk's despatches to General Scott. On the return of peace he was assigned to the Coast Survey under Professor Bache, and was at work in the Gulf of Mexico, when the liberality of Mr. Grinnell stimulated the Government of the United States to send the first American expedition in search of Sir John Franklin. Dr. Kane immediately volunteered his services, and was accepted as the senior surgeon. His "Personal Narrative" of this cruise was published in 1852. Before it was completed for the press, he had effected his arrangements for the last Arctic expedition, appropriating to this cherished object his own pecuniary resources, as well as drawing largely on those of Mr. Grinnell and several of the scientific institutions of this country. The history of that expedition and the remarkable discoveries to which it led are now before the country. They constitute in themselves an imperishable monument to Dr. Kane's fame.

THE KANSAS RESOLUTIONS .- The resolutions which have been for a season before the House at Harrisburg but which are now consigned to the tombs of the Capulets, have in the course of the discussion growing out of them, and the final vote upon them developed a new chapter in the history of the so-called Democracy in the State. It is not necessary for us or for any one to enter into that history in detail. It by hangs a reason or two. Mr. Cobb was the has been enacted before our eyes within the first choice of Mr. Buchanan, but with that fact | last six months, and every man of observation heard Bigler, when he declared he had 'came' here to plead the cause of free-soil; and John Van Buren who with rubicund face and "jolly red nose" assured the "Democracy," amid much applause that he held the same views as touching the question of slavery extension which he had contended for in 1848. From every stump in "the infected districts" of this State we heard or read of the speeches of the champions of "Democracy" proclaiming that they were the Free Soil men and the Republicans but pretenders. Aye, they were in favor of free Kansas and free soil everywhere. And who can dispute successfully the fact, that it was by these assertions and statements, they succeeded in keeping under the party lash and between the party traces enough of the honest and confiding men of the party to drag into the Presidential chair, the candidate Mr. Buchanan? The majority of the House at Harrisburg was elected with the words "Free Kansas" upon their lips, and are but fairly in their seats when they vote down a resolution expressing an opinion favorable to it .- Pittsburgh Gazette.

> sentatives of Missouri, on the afternoon of the 28th January, Mr. Darnes offered a resolution declaring the emancipation of the Slaves in the States, unjust to the slaveholders. Mr. Reid, the commander of the Ruffian army which burnt Ossawattomie, made a speech denouncing the introduction of the resolution as designed only to get up a discussion which would be injurious to the State. Having used some menacing lafiguage towards Mr. Darnes, the latter responded that he could be found at his hotel, etc. Mr. Reid retorted that he ought to have been in the penitentiary before he fought the great battle of Ossawattomie. Mr. Ried then walked down the aisle, seized Darnes by the collar, struck him and knocked him down. Darnes got up and raised a tumbler to throw at Reid, who drew his bowie knife and attempted to rush upon his victim, but was prevented. No notice of this affair was taken by the House. In the joint session of the Legislature, just previous to this a long discussion had taken place on emancipation. One of the anti-Benton speakers said that many of the members of his party were emancipationists. The St. Louis Leader, the anti-Benton State organ, endorses this and says there is no inconsistency in it. Senator Price, a leading anti-Benton man, also endorsed it in his place in the State Senate. It thus appears that the emancipation party of Missouri, is much larger than has been generally supposed.

MISSOURI POLITICS .- In the House of Repre-

DF Speaker Taggart, Senators Sellers and Jordan, and Secretary Curtin, are named for the Governor's Chair. If General Packer is the Administration candidate, give Colonel Curtin the Stump against him .- Lowisburg

So say we. Let Curtin and Packer stump the State, and we will have no fears of the result. A few such speeches as Gen. Packer made at this place last fall will settle him .-Bellefonte Whig.

A Runaway Marriage in High Life-The Bride

Worth $250,000. The N. York Herald of February 19th says: "A marriage took place in Grace Church on Monday last, that has excited no little interest in fashionable circles and caused quite a fluttering among certain wealthy families. It seems the bride is an heiress, and worth in her from Mobile. This despatch states that on the own right $250,000. She was the inmate of one of our most exclusive female seminaries, and is but tourteen years and eight months ular and highly accomplished gentleman, and and had just bid his friends and countrymen old. Her wealth and the high position of her has made an excellent Treasurer during the an affectionate farewell. This is sad news in. family were of course known to her associates, and her acquaintance was consequently courted. Among the gentlemen she was introduced to was S-K-, a well known habitue of born in Philadelphia, in 1822. He received Fifth avenue saloons, but who had reached the his classical education at the University of mature age of thirty-one years. The acquaintance ripened into intimacy, and eventually the parties became engaged to be married; ing of this infamous state of things Mr. John but as the parents might interpose an objection, it was arranged that it should take place unknown to them or any of the young lady's friends. It was agreed that the happy event should come off last Saturday (St. Valentine's day,) and the church was opened, the minister dignation, that they were indeed "a set of ready, and a few spectators had also assembled to witness the marriage ceremony, which was announced for Il A. M. But noon came and went, and no bride made her appearance, and the church was closed. It seems that the principal of the seminary in which the young lady was a pupil got wind that something nnusual was on the tapis and she locked the wouldbe bride in her room, and so prevented the fulfilment of her engagement. But "love laughs at locksmiths," and by some means Mr. K- was notified of the situation of affairs, and arranged matters in such a manner that the young lady escaped from her surveilance, and the couple were duly married in one of our most fashionable uptown churches on the 15th inst. The bride and bridegroom immediately started for Washington, and intend to spend the honeymoon on a Southern tour. This citement among the young ladies in upper forty thieves. tendom, and is to them far more interesting than the Bond street tragedy.

> INTERESTING DECISION TO REAL ESTATE HOLpens .- The Philadelphia Pennsylvanian, reports the decision in the case of Gault vs. M'-Cuen made on the 12th inst. in the District Court. Gault brought an action of ejectment from Poplar street, in the city of Philadelphia, 16 feet front by 37 feet deep. The facts are these : There was a municipal claim, filed January 3, 1849, for $14 20 against 32 feet on properly after advertising, was sold to the above plaintiff for the premises, and that he, after waiting two years for redemption, by act of Assembly had expired, this suit was commenced. The defendant produced a receipt of the Solicitor of the then District of Spring the Term, and the number of feet described and William Reeves, the defendants in the claim, never owned, occupied or possessed this property. And further, that the return to and that John Delaney never had notice of it, nor the sale of the property by the Sheriff, undecided that this was not a defence to a purchaser to Sheriff's vendee. The Judge gave pal claims and taxes, being a lien on real esvery unjust and hard, as this case particularly shows, and instructed the Jury to render a ver-

Holloway's Pills, an invaluable Remedy for Dropsical Symptoms .- Mrs. Emma Hunt ley, of Houston, Texas, aged 45, last fall was thrown on a bed of sicknes,, her feet and legs began to swell, strongly indicating dropsy at this period of life. Her husband became greatly alarmed, as it was feared that she could not recover, so dreadful was the attack. After trying many remedies without benefit, Mr. Huntley, at last, put her under the course of Holloway's Pills, which she took for about 3 weeks, and the swelling considerably diminished; continuing them for 5 weeks more, she was completely cured. THE INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. Our readers had a telegraphic announcement yesterday, that the Investigating Committee had made their report on "Congressional Corruptions." It will be perceived that the Committee report directly against four members, singular to relate, and demand their expulsion, to wit:-Messrs. Matteson, Gilbert and Edwards, of New York, and Welch of Connecticut. Served them right; but they are a small instalment of the spoils and plunder league of the House. Hon. Reverdy Johnson testifies that the Hon. Orsimus B. Matteson, of New York, had informed him that "there were twenty or thirty members of the House who are associated and pledged each to the other not to vote for any law or resolution granting lands or money, unless they were paid for it." On hearson confesses that his calmer judgment was so far overcome by his indignation that he pronounced this league of the twenty, thirty, or forty thieves, "a damned outrage," which Mr. Matteson responded, also with a becoming ind-d scoundrels," but as nothing could be got through with out their assistance the Des Moines Improvement Company, (of which Mr. Johnson was the legal counsel,) would find a hundred thousand dollars or so very useful for lobby services in behalf of their bill. Twenty or thirty members of one branch of Congress bound and pledged to each other not to vote for any bill or resolution granting lands or money, unless they were paid for it! What a basis for spoils and plunder is here! It covers everything, and might be made to compass an extortion of millions of lands or money in a single bill! We had supposed that this lobby system was full of corruptions-that it involved a money making member here and there, such as the gentleman from Kentucky. who said that if re-elected to Congress he could "make a great deal of money;" but we pleasant little affair has created quite an ex- had no suspicion of this "open seseme" of the ago it was proposed by an American Physician that members of the faculty should advertise their remedies and modes of treating diseases in the newspapers. It was a bold and manly idea. It was scouted, however, by the profession generally, as infra dig. But is there any against the defendant, for a lot of ground 120 degradation in publicity? Is it not rather the feet 11 inches, situated on Tyler street, north great touch-stone that ties pretension and universalizes the practical benefits of all valuable inventions and discoveries?
