Rev. Mr. Harnden will preach in the Town Hall, in Clearfield, next Sabbath evening at candle lighting. The communication read before the Curwensville and Piles township Teachers' Association by Jesse Broomall, is crowded out by the lengthy proceedings of the State Convention, but shall appear in our next. "Myrrha May" will receive attention as soon as possible.

We must ask the indulgence of some other kind friends, whose favors are before us.

Conference Appointments -- Among the appointments of the Baltimore annual conference of the Methodist church for the ensuing year for this district, we observe the following :- Presiding Elder, C. B. Tippett. New Washington, Charles Cleaver. Clearfield and Curwensville, Thomas Barnhart. Clearfield Circuit, E. W. Kirby. Sinnemahoning, B. P. King. Ridgway, to be supplied.

THE RIVER, WEATHER, &c .- The Susquehanna has for several days past been too low to run rafts with any degree of safety. Last week a large number were dropped down into the dams, and in attempting to run some, we understand that quite a number were 'stoved.' There has been a drizzling rain since 2 o'clock this morning, but not sufficient to produce any visible rise in the river. If the rain should continue, we may look for a busy time on the river in a very few days.

RUFFIANISM IN CLEARFIELD .- On last Monday, the notorious Bucher Swope, pretty well known here as "the skunk," without provocation, assaulted the editor of this paper, on the street, in a very ruffianly manner, calculating, probably, to demolish us at one fell accop. The "valiant" assailant, however, had overrated his own physical strength, and soon found himself sprawling in the gutter, (a very appropriate place for him.) after having performed some very amusing feats in "ground and lofty tumbling." After picking himself up, he pitched at us again, when we planted our fist in and about his eyes so effectually as to blacken one of them very beautifully. At this stage of the proceedings he discovered that he was wanted somewhere satisfied of the truth of the adage that "the battle is not always to the sirong !"

> For the "Raftsman's Journal." COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT.

MR. EDITOR :- The time for giving notice, that a County Superintendant is to be elected but it pleased the Lord to take her away, and on the first Monday of May next by a Convention of the School Directors of the county, has not arrived, but would it not be well at this time to call the attention of the directors and the public to that fact? Several gentlemen will make application for the post, and from among them the directors will be required to select one of literary and scientific acquirements and of skill and experience in the art of teaching, to serve for three years. To elect a person competent and willing to perform the duties of the office is the duty of the directors, and will advance the cause of education. To elect one wanting either of those requisites is to squander the public money and bring our common school system into disrepute. I would suggest to the Directors to admit no person, not entitled to a seat, to the convention during its sitting, and in order to test the competency of those who apply for the situation to ex-
