THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., JUNE 10, 1857.

SPECIAL NOTICE.-The undersigned will be in Philipsburg during the next week, and con- adelphia. sequently absent from his office in Clearfield. A. M. HILLS. june10

DIVINE SERVICE .- Rev. Mr. McDonald, by Divine permission, will preach in the Presbyterian church in Clearfield, on Sabbath next, June 14th, 1857, at 11 o'clock A. M.

FRUIT PROSPECTS .- The prospects for a large yield of fruit in this region, are at this time good. The apple trees are more than usually full of blossoms, and we do not think that the recent frosts have done any injury. We anticipate a heavy yield of apples.

ON HAND AGAIN .- H. D. Patton, of Curwensville, has returned from the East with a opening out at his new store room, and which he offers at the lowest prices. Read his advertisement in another column.

QUICK WORK .- We have been told that Mr. John Owens, whose house was destroyed by fire on the 25th ult., immediately employed about thirty carpenters and put up a new ed. He had a portion of the material for buil- men. ding previously ready.

THE CROPS .- We made inquiry during the past week of such persons from the country as grain crops in this county. In some sections the growing grain looks well and gives promfair average yield, unless some unforeseen side of the house. cause to prevent it should intervene between now and harvest.

A ROOSTER EATING SHOE PEGS .- A few days since, a lad in the south part of town, dropped a handful of shoe pegs. A shanghai rooster that was loitering about, immediately went to work and eat them up as greedily as if they had been so many oats. The query is to know whether chanticleer relished them as pegs, calculating to "set up shop" for himself. or whether in his haste he cat them in mistake for oats. In either event, we have no beech wood.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS .- We direct attention to the new advertisements which appear in the Journal to-day.

An experienced clerk can secure a situation vin, in Curwensville.

Several other advertisements also appear.

A GENTLEMAN'S DIARY OF HIS WIFE'S TEM PER .- Monday - A thick fog; no seeing through it. Tuesday-Gloomy and very chilly ; unreasonable weather. Wednesday-Frosty; at times sharp. Thursday-Bitter cold in the morning; red sunset, with flying clouds. portending hard weather. Friday-Storm in the morning with peals of thunder; air clear afterwards. Saturday-Gleams of sunshine. with partial thaw; frost again at night. Sunday-A light south-wester in the morning calm and pleasant at dinner time; hurricane and earthquake at night.

Kaysas .- The Lecompton correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat says the apportionment disfranchises one half of Kansas. Only twenty out of forty counties are represented. In some counties where no census was taken the representation is allowed on the list of voters on the old election books. The other counties applied to Secretary Stanton for election precincts, and received the answer that he could do nothing, there being no law to supply the omission. A card has been published, signed by sixty-two prominent persons, urging the Legislature to assemble on the 9th of June to complete the State organization.

A GREAT DAM .- A short distance above Fredericksburg, Va., a strong dam has been erected across the Rappahannock river, 572 feet between the abutments, and 18 feet high. in their amusements in the Gulf. The water is conveyed into the town by a canal ufacturing purposes. The City Council have also passed an ordinance to exempt from taxation all manufacturing establishments for ten years after their erection.

HONORABLY DISCHARGED .- Ex-Gov. Bebb, of Ohio, who recently fired upon a party of screnaders, at his residence in Winnebage county, Illinois, and killed one of them and wounded others, has been honorably discharged, after a full investigation of the matter. The serenaders, it appears, were a gang longer under heavy bonds-and, in case of of insolent rowdies, who surrounded the house of the ex-Governor, and insulted his family, until he was compelled to fire upon them, af- to the great damage and interruption of their ter begging and coaxing them to leave.

THE UNION SAFE .- At a gathering of the railroad excursionists at Cincinnati on Wednesday, Tom Marshall, of Kentucky, in one of his characteristic speeches, rediculed Benton's fears about the dissolution of the Union, and said he had been defeated for Congress himbout as well as if he had been elected.

The editor went to the expense of a new shirt, the other day, and found himself, when he awoke in the morning, crawling out between two of the shortest stitches.

What next ?- The Jewish Chronicle mentions that a curious branch of business has been establised at Lyons. It appears that an association of howlers has been formed, which engages to supply to funerals a number of professional weepers, at the charge of five francs each. They have adopted a peculiar costume, and follow the hearse weeping and sobbing.

We must take San Domingo, sure! An American captain, who ran down a vessel of that Island, has been mulet in damages therefor, by the tribunals of the country; and, refusing to appeal to a higher court, he abandons his schooner, and "makes a government matter of it." Of course, Uncle Sam must attend to it-and Yankee captains be protected

Erly Wheat .- The editor of the Easton one and three-fourths of a mile long, giving (Md.) Star was shown a beautiful sample of 47 feet fall. This power is intended for man- wheat last week, grown by Henry Cook Tilghman, Esq., of Miles River Neck, which was entirely headed out. It is the Japan Wheat, a beautiful white wheat. The variety was first sent to Mr. Tilghman, in a sealed can, by Cap-Com. Perry's Japan expedition.

The Kansas treason prisoners, after four months' close confinement in miserable tents and shanties, with a detachment of troops to guard them, and being kept for eight months several of them, an arrest while on their way East, and a forcible reconveyance to Kansas business-have, at last, been discharged on a nolle prosequi.

There is no accounting for taste. We once knew a little boy who could not rest if his hands or clothes were soiled in the least, whilst another in the same place, until half grown, seemed to have no higher ambition, or more exquisite enjoyment, than digging holes self, and it had not dissolved the Union. It in the ground large enough to admit his head was a great blunder on the part of the people, and shoulders, where he would lie for hours, but still he thought the country got along a- together, "and men are but children of a larger growth."

The number of emigrants arriving at New York last week was 12,000. For the month of May the number is 27,000, and for the year 94,000, against 37,000, to same date last year. The Chicago Journal, after a careful review of the statements from the grain growing regions of Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin, concludes that there is promise of a more abundant harvest this year than ever before. Even in regions where the winter was supposed to have done its worst, the apparently dead wheat is in many instances reviving, while the greater breadths sown, will so nearin the aggregate, a crop quite as large as In the same territory last year.

THE comet has taken the back track. Mr. Tuttle writes to the Newburyport Herald that it has already passed its perihelion, and its nearest approximation to the earth, and is now receding from us at a rapid rate, in its flight through space, in its eccentric orbit; and, consequently, we need no longer be under fears of its dashing against the earth. Its nearest approach to the earth was on the 8th of May, when it was twenty millions of miles distant from us! Besides, this new comet, having always returned to this part of its orbit once in ten years, (the time of its ascertained periodic revolution,) without impinging against us, there was no more valid reason for fearing a collision at this time than at any other period since the whole system of planetary orbs was launched into space, each body to move in harmony with every other, accord-stance of a somewhat remarkable character recently occurred in one of the towns of one of the midland counties of England. A clergyman died, and his wife and daughters, on the third day after his decease, recollecting that no likeness remained, it was agreed, ere the grave closed over him, that the body should be unshrouded, and a portrait taken. A young lady of some professional celebrity was engaged for the task. She, with the assistance of an attendant, took off the shroud and placed the body in the requisite posture; but other duties requiring the artist's attention, the sketch was deferred till noon. About twelve o'clock, at the foot of the bed, the lady commenced, and went through with an hour's work on this image of death. At this stage of tion, the head of the death-like figure fell on the side. Nothing daunted, the artist carefuleves opened, and staring her full in the face, "the dead" inquired, "Who are you?" The "young professional," without trepidation, took the bandage from his head, and rubbed his neck. He immediately saw the shroud, and laughed immoderately. The artist quietly called the family : their joy may be imagined, but cannot be described. That evening. he who had been bemoaned by mother and daughters with agonized tears, gladdened their hearts by taking his accustomed place at the tea-table, and at this moment is making an excursion in North Whales .- Bedford (England)
