CLEARFIELD COUNT NORMAL SCHOOL .- The Convention of School Directors, which met in May last to elect a Superintendent, imposed upon that officer the duty of teaching a Nor- Dundy appears in to-day's Journal. mal School for a period of two months each year. In accordance with this obligation, our worthy Superintendent, Rev. L. L. Still, opened a school of the character named, a week since, in the Borough of Curwensville. During a portion of the time, Professor Allen, of M'Kean county, a gentleman of fine attainments and well qualified to act the part of instructor, has been in attendance, imparting instruction, and also delivering lectures on educational subjects, on several evenings during the time of his visit. There are, we learn, between 25 and 30 teachers in attendance. This number may appear small, but when the pecu-Har circumstances by which many teachers are surrounded, are known, it is rather a matter of surprise that the number is so large .-For instance, some of the teachers, we are told, have not been paid their last winter's wages, and this tardiness on the part of districts, is preventing their attendance. One other drawback is, that in several districts, the directors have either opened, or failed to close, as they should have done, the public schools, so as to give their teachers an opportunity of attending. We mention these facts to show the obstacles that intervene, and the difficulties that have to be encountered by the Superintendent. There is certainly no way in which those who follow, or intend pursuing the occupation of teaching, can reap as much benefit, as by attending a Normal School, and in this instance, at least, at so trifling a cost, for no tuition fee is charged, and boarding is the only expense to be incurred. The advantages are much greater than is generally supposed. and we trust that not only the school teachers, for whose special benefit the school is intended, but that the citizens of the county generally will take an interest in the matter, and aid In this effort to advance the cause of education in our county.

SABBATH SCHOOL CELEBRATION .- The anniversary celebration of the Episcopal Sabbath School of this place, which was held at Liberty Spring on last Friday, was a very fine affair. Appropriate exercises were had on the occasion. There was a bountiful collation of "the good things of earth," done up in the choicest style, for which those who prepared it, are deserving of high commendation and the thanks of all who participated. Everything passed off agreeably and satisfactorily, and a very pleasing feature was the spirited and enlivening musical performances. It was really heartcheering to see parents and children, teachers and scholars, out in the free, pure air, mingling and enjoying themselves in such an appropriate and felicitons manner, and it is only to be regretted that such occasions do not occur more frequently.

HORSE KILLED IN A STORM .- On last Friday, during the prevalence of a wind storm, a mare belonging to James A. Mead, was killed, near Goshen school house, by the falling of a dead tree. The mare at the time was hitched to a wagon which Mr. Rebert Leonard was driving, and the tree failing across the road immediately behind the wagon, struck her on the head, breaking her neck, and a knot penetrating her head, causing instant death.

THE New Church of the Baptists in this place is progressing in its construction as rap-. idly as the unsettled state of the weather will permit, and will in a short time be ready to put under roof. The contractor, Mr. James Philips, who is an excellent workman, is making a very creditable job of it, and when finished, the church will be a decided improvement to that portion of our borough in which It is located.
