velling through a part of Virginia in which he was unacquaited. During the time he stopped a night at an inn near the forks of the road. The inn keeker was a fine gentleman. and no doubt one of the first families of the old Dominion. Knowing who his distinguished guest was, he endeavored during the evening to draw him into a conversation, but failed in all his efforts. But in the morning, when Mr. Randolph was ready to set out, he called for his bill, which, on being presented, was paid. The landlord, still anxious to have some conversation with him, began as follows: "Which way are you traviling, Mr. Ran-

"Sir ?" said Mr. Randolph, with a look of displeasure.

"I asked," said the landlord, "which way are you travelling ?"

"Have I paid you my bili ?"

"Do I owe you anything more ?"

"No." "Well, I'm going just where I please; do you understand ?" "Yes."

The landlord by this time got somewhat excited, and Mr. Randolph drove off, but, to the landlord's surprise, in a few minutes sent one of his servants to inquire which of the forks of the road to take. Mr. Randolph not being out of hearing distance, the landlord spoke at the top of his voice, "Mr. Randolph, you don't owe me one cent; just take which read you please." It is said that the air turned blue with the curses of Raudolph .- Norfolk News.

In considering the advantages of emigrating to In considering the advantages of emigrating to this locality the following are presented:

Pirst—The soil is a rich limestone, capable of raising the heaviest crops, owing to which this settlement has attained its present great prosperity.

Second—It is the centre of the great North West Coal Basin, and is destined soon to become one of the greatest business places in the State. It will supply the great Lake market, (according to population and travel the greatest in the Union.) has five workable veines of the best Bituminous Coal, amounting in the aggregate to over 22 feet, which makes 22,000 tons of coal under each acre. This will make the land of inestimable value. Third-The emineut state geologist Dr. Chas. T. Jackson of Boston, has made a geological survey of the land, and analysed the coal, the iron ore and the limestone. This report together with maps will be furnished to inquirers.

Fourth—Three railroads are laid out through this property. The Sunbury and Eric Railroad gives us a market for our coal to the Lakes—it runs from Eric to Philadelphia. A large part of this oad has been finished, and is now in running order. A heavy force is now working from Erie to-wards our land in the western direction, the means for the completion of which has been raised—it will soon be finished. The Allegheny Valley Rail road connects us with New York, Boston and Pittsburg. The Venango Road connects as with the West.

There are already good Turnpike roads running through the property, various other roads have been opened to accommodate the emigration and settlement which has already taken place. There is no opportunity equal to it now offered to the man who wants to provide himself a home in an easy way, and make a settlement where he can live in presperity and independence in a climate PERFECTLY HEALTHY.

mate PERFECTLY HEALTHY.

No case of fever ever having been known to occur in this settlement. It is not like going to the backwoods of the West, among perhaps intollerant people, where there is no society, churches, or schools, where the price of land is high, and where the emigrant, after being used to the healthiest climate in the world, has to endure sickness and pain, and perhaps ruins his health and that of his family. But here is a thriving settlement having three towns, containing churches, schools, hotels, stores, saw mills, grist mills, and everything desired. There is a cash market at hand. The lumber trade last year amounted to over two hundred million feet of lumber. In a short time, owing to the coal, it will still become more valuable, as a number of iron works and manufactories will soon be started; they are at present starting them exbe started; they are at present starting them ex-tensively at Warren. Even for those who do not tensively at Warren. Even for those who do not wish to go there, the payments are such that they can easily buy a farm to save their rising families from want in the future, or to gain a competence by the rise which will take place in the value of lands. By an ontlay scarcely missed, a substantial provision can be made.

Persons should make early application, apply or write to E. Jefferies, Secretary. No. 135 Walnut street, below Fifth, Philadelphia. Letters carefully answered giving fall information.

Shares or tracts of land can be bought or secured by letter enclosing the first installment of five dollars, when the subscriber will be furnished with books, maps, &c. Warrantoe Deeds given.

Tyrone City. Sept. 19, 1855.-tf. can read, but especially one who has children to educate, will longer deny himself the pleasure and profit of a daily journal. The same is true measurably of those who live further inland; though, where mails are infrequent, a Semi-Weekly, or even a Weekly, may seem sufficient.

The Tribune deals with questions of Political Economy, Public Policy, Ethics, Material Progress and whatever may affect the Intellectual, Moral, Social and Physical well being of mankind, dog-Social and Physical well being of mankind, dog-matic Theology alone excepted. Its leading idea is the honoring of honest useful Work in whatever sphere or capacity, and the consequent elevation of the Laboring class in knowledge, virtue and general esteem. It is necessarily hostile to Slave-ry under all its aspects, to Intemperance in what-wer form or degree with its aspects, to War ever form or degree with its accessories, to War save in the defense of Country and Liberty against actual invasion, and to every form of Gambling. Desiring to see Production extended and encour aged, while wild Speculation and useless Traffic are curtailed, it favors the policy of sustaining and diversifying Home Industry by a discriminating Fariff—a policy which tends to increase the price of Grain to the farmer while diminishing that of Bread to the artisan, by reducing the distance across which their respective products are exchang-ed and, of course, reducing the cost of their transfor. Regarding Fillibusterism in all its phases, and every form and device of National covetous-ness, with unqualified abhorrence as the bane of Republics and in their triumph the grave of Equal Human Rights, we seek by every means to woo and win the attention of our countrymen from projects of aggrandizement abroad to enterprises of development and beneficence at home, foremost among which we rank a Railroad through the heart of our territory to connect the waters of the Atlantic with these of the Pacific. Believing that the goods of this life are not yet fairly distributed and that no one ready to work should ever famish in unwilling idleness, it lends an open car to every suggestion of Social improvement which does not countervail the dictates of eternal Morality nor war upon that natural right of every one to whatsoever he has fairly produced or honestly acquired, whose denial must sink mankind into the chaos and night of barbarism and universal squalor. With a profound consciousness that idlers, drunkards, libertines and profligates can never be other (in the main) than needy and wretched, it bears aloft the great truth that Prevention is betthe way he should go, will rarely in after years desert that way for the thorny paths of Vice and Crime—that a true Education—Religious, Moral and Industrial as well as Intellectual—is the most ectemporary once observed that he never knew a hard, grasping, niggardly employer who did not hate The Tribune, nor a generous, large-souled, kindly one, willing to live and let live, who did not like it. We ask no higher praise, no warmer attestation

The circulation of The Tribune is at this time as follows: Daily, 32,000 copies; Weekly, 176,800 copies; Semi-Weekly, 16,000 copies; California and European, 6,000 copies; Total, 230,800 copies. That of the Semi-Weekly and Weekly we believe to be exceeded by no other newspaper published in the world; that of the Daily falls behind that of some of our cotemporaries. Had our hostility to Haman Slavary and the Lignor Traffic heer. of some of our cotemporaries. Had our hostflity to Human Slavery and the Liquor Traffic been more guarded and politic, our Daily issues would now be some thousands heavier and our Advertising far more lucrative; but of our patronage generally we have no reason, no wish, to complain. Of late, a concerted effort has been made to di-minish our rural circulation through the influence of the Postmasters, some of whom embark in it eagerly, others under political restraint, while a large number, we are happy, for the sake Human Nature, to state, refuse to be dragooned into it at all. Still, we have been made to feel the heavy hand of Power, and have doubtless lost thousands of subscribers in consequence. Pretexts to which no individual in his private capacity would have stooped have been relied on to justify the stoppage of our papers within reach of their subscribers and rightful owners, and their retention in the Post-Office till their value was destroyed. Postmasters Of late, a concerted effort has been made to di Office till their value was destroyed. Postmasters have been schooled by rival journals—several of them living on their self-proclaimed ability to serve as an antidote to The Tribune—as to their political duty to promote at our expense the dissemmination of gazettes of adverse politics. We shall outlive this warfare, but we do not affect inour books as soon as his term has expired, for we will not haunt our patrons with duns for arrears which they may say they never intended to incur, for papers which perhaps they never read; we rely for the renewal of our subscriptions solely on the volunteered efforts of those who, liking our paper, believe its influence salutary and worthy to be extended; and thus far our reliance has been justified as a trust if may entire to be justified, as we trust it may continue to be.
