the 10th of April, 1841. Its Weekly edition wa best and thoroughly seasoned material, always on Semi-Weekly in May, 1845. It was the first daily in America to issue a double or eight-page sheet at a low price, and it has kept at least even with the foremost of its rivals in the rapid expansion of Newspaper enterprise, which the great extension of Railroads, and the establishment of the Telegraph system have crowded into these last sixteen eventful years. No larger journal is afforded at so low a price in any quarter of the world; none in America, no matter at what price issued, pays an equal amount, weekly or monthly, for intellec-tual fabor. It employs correspondents regularly in the leading capitals of Europe, and at the most aportant points on this continent, with a liberal staff of writers and reporters at home, regarding full, early and accurate information as the first obect of a Newspaper, and the timely and thorough elucidation thereof as the chief end of its Edito-rials. In that spirit, "The Tribune" has been and will be conducted, extending and perfecting its correspondence so fast as the increase of its pa-tronage will justify the expense. Should the current attempt to connect | se Old with the NewWorld by the magnetic wire prove successful, we shall vea corresponding advantage to our readers publish each morning a symposis of the preceeding day's occurrences throughout Europe, Northern Africa and Western Asia, with regular reports of the mar-kets, the monetary aspects and harvest prospects of hither Europe. With a good atlas beside him and his daily paper on his fireside table, the A. merican farmer or artisan within a day's ride of the city may then study each evening the doings of the civilized world throughout the day preceding; and it seems hardly possible that any who can read, but especially one who has children to educate, will longer deny himself the pleasure and Regarding Fillibusterism in all its phases, and every form and device of National covetous-ness, with unqualified abhorrence as the bane of Republies and in their triumph the grave of Equal Human Rights, we seek by every means to woo and win the attention of our countrymen from projects of aggrandizement abroad to enterprises of development and beneficence at home, foremost among which we rank a Railroad through the heart of our territory to connect the waters of the Atlantic with those of the Pacific. Believing that the goods of this life are not yet fairly distributed. and that no one ready to work should ever famish in unwilling idleness, it lends an open car to every suggestion of Social improvement which does not countervail the dictates of eternal Morality nor war upon that natural right of every one to whatsoever he has fairly produced or honestly acpaired, whose denial must sink mankind into the chaos and night of barbarism and universal squal-or.
