-----EXCITEMENT IN CLEARFIELD.

Escape of an alleged Horse-thief from Prison-Attempt to Rob the Sheriff-Another Horse Stolen-The Thief Pursued and Captured-Threats to Hang the Thief-and other interesting performances.

A few weeks since a man was lodged in our county jail, charged with having stolen a mare from Mr. Wm. L. Wilson. On last Friday night he made his escape by digging a hole through the prison wall, and then scaling the wall which surrounds the jail yard. He had managed to divest himself of the hand-cuffs which had been placed on him, and to get off the chain with which he was fastened to the floor ; but it is the general opinion that he had some outside help.

We may as well here state that when he was first taken, on searching his person, a package of papers was found fastened around his ankle. Among these papers was a note on Mr. John Miller, of the State of Michigan, for $116, and a power of attorney to Mr. Robert Warden, from Mr. George Myers, of Lower East Bethel, Northampton county, to collect the same. A letter was addressed to the Recorder of the last named county, making inquiries relative to the papers, and he states in answer, that Mr. Myers is the administrator of an Estate ; that a man calling himself Robert Warden ingratiated himself into the favor of Mr. Myers, who is an honest, unsuspecting German farmer, and induced him to give him the necessary authority to lift the money, for the note, representing that he resided in Michigan, near Mr. Millers. Warden is described as a man about five teet six mence high, sandy or red hair, sandy complexion, and as wearing checkered pants, white hat, and frock coat. This description answers well that of the man here in prison. On Saturday night, some scoundrels, evidently satisfied, as it is an easy matter to break out of our jail, that they could also easily break in, performed that feat, designing no doubt to rob the Sheriff, who lives in the building. The window shutter was bored about the fastenings and forced open, the window raised and an entrance efforted. The object was, deubtless, to get possession of a couple watches and some sixty dollars in money, found on the prisoner when arrested. A brace and bit had been taken out of Mr. Wm. R. Brown's shop, the window of which was also forced open, and a piece was bored out of the table top, immediately over the lock to the drawer, but fortanately the burglars after runmaging all the drawers in the room found nothing more than a little over a dollar in change. Towards noon on Sunday, information was received here that a fine mare had been stolen during the night previous from Mr. Jacob Hoover, who resides in Lawrence township, a couple miles from town. It was at once supposed that the escaped prisoner had something to do with the transaction, and the Sheriff and others from here and Curwensville went in pursuit. We are told they had a "tall time" in catching the fellow, who was chased about through the woods and roads, and finally capinred near Neper's, in Brady township. On Monday forenoon he was brought to town, and is the same fellow who broke jail on Friday night. The people had become aroused by these repeated villainies, and the excitement became Intense. Some 200 or 300 persons surrounded the wagon in which the prisoner was brought to this place, and, producing a rope, threatened to have him, and whether in jest or earnest, it should serve as a warn ng to the horsethief gentry what they may expect in future. The persons who had charge of the thief, were armed with revolvers and threatened to shoot any one who laid hold of him. These various demonstrations, together with the ringing of the Court House bell, and shouts of "hang him, "shoot him, "lets make him stretch hemp," &c., were not calculated to make him feel very essy, and he implored the officers to protect him, and agreed that he would make a confession. He then made a statement in which he tried to screen himself by representing that he had not stolen the horses himself ; that he had purchased Wilson's mare from the gypsies and another man he named, although he was aware the animal had been stolen ; that he had sold another horse to a man at the Jefferson county line; that Hoover's mare had been placed in his hands by a certain individual he named ; that the same person offered to get another man to assist him in recovering his money and watches from the Sheriff; and that he had no one to assist him in breaking out of prison. He afterwards made an affidavit relative to the matter, and warrants were issued and soveral of the persons whom he implicated, arrested. Whether his statement is worthy of credence, is not for us to say or decide. The whole affair is in a fair way for being judicially investigated, when the facts can be made public. FINE APPLES .- Master Miles Tate, son of Wm. Tate, of Lawrence township, presented us yesterday specimens of several varieties of spples, which are as choice and delicious fruit as we have ever seen, and for which our young friend will please accept our thanks. Mr. Tate has, we believe, paid some attention to the cuit vation of fruit, and the result shows that all that is required to produce a superior qual- gusta, Miss., and resulted in his conviction of Ity in Clearfield county, is proper attention, murder in the first degree. Copeland was and we should like to see our farmers generally give the subject of fruit raising more conaderation than it has heretofore received.

New Goops .- II. D. Patton, Curwensville, has received and opened a new stock of goods for fall and winter use. See advertisement.
