THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., NOV. 4, 1857.

MR. Row .- Dear sir : Believing your readers are interested in the success of the Sorghum or Chinese Sugar Cane, I send you the result of an experiment which I made .this season, and I believe the only one in this part | eign goods. of the county, which you may publish if you

I planted a spot of ground in my lot, (which is gravelly,) about the middle of June, in hills as corn is usually planted, three feet apart each way, and about four grains to the hill. About the middle of October, when the first killing frost came, I cut it, though it was not ripe. the seed had hardly began to change color. Having no mill or press convenient, I cut about two thirds of the largest part of the stalks in pieces two or three inches in length, put them in a large kettle, and extracted the sap

The ground planted contained two perches, which produced above two hundred stalks of the cane; and I had about two gallons thick syrup, part of which I boiled down nearly to the consistency of sugar, and which appears to be fast granulating. It is now about equal to that in the bottom of a barrel of good syrap, and will weigh, probably, nine or ten pounds. The syrup, about three quarts, in the opinion of those who have tasted it, is equal to the best syrup molasses in flavor.

The cane was about three-fourths of an inch in diameter, and was not as ripe as it should have been, on account of late planting; but, with all the disadvantages, the experiment would be equal to one hundred and sixty gallons of syrup to the acre, and allowing one- gainst a Smell-er. half for expenses, would leave a better profit than ordinary farming does in Clearfield. Yours, D. S. PLOTNER.

WHO WANTS MONEY ?- Who is it that won't answer, 1? Well, now, if anybody should happen to fancy that an editor is less likely to be in need of "ding-bats" than you are, we will take the liberty of correcting such an erroneous notion. But, say you, the times are hard. Well, are they are not just as hard for us as they are for others ? There are scores of persons who are indebted to us more or less, and justice to ourselves compels us to ask them to pay us at least a portion of what is due us. The approaching Court will give many an opportunity of attending to this matter. This is addressed to only those who are in arrears.

Tyrone & Clearfield Railroad .- It affords us much pleasure to be able to state that the work on our railroad is still actively progressing, and that at a meeting of the Directors, held last Friday, it was determined to push the enterprise forward with all possible speed. The company do not apprehend the Robt. I. M'Collim left us a few days since, least trouble in meeting their engagements.

STILL THEY COME !- Wm. Irvin has just received a stock of Seasonable Goods, Readymade Clothing, &c., at the "Corner Store," in Curwensville, as will be seen by a reference to our advertising columns.

Losr .- A notice sent us by a minister of a marriage in Woodward township, was by some means lost before we had it in type. Will he be kind enough to furnish us with another?

THE WEATHER .- We are at this time in the full enjoyment of genial "Indian Summer," that uncertain season which seems to be the blending point of summer and winter.

SHOOTING AFFAIR IN CHAMBERSBURG, PA .-On last Wednesday, Oct. 28th, Joseph and Robert M'Kibben attacked Mr. Isaac Craig, of Pittsburgh, as he was about getting out of the cars at Chambersburg, Franklin county. Craig all night, looking at the show for nothing; it is married to a daughter of Chambers M'Kibben, and is charged with having seduced a deaf and domb sister of his wife, a year or so ago. He was taking his little boy to see his mother, who was in Chambersburg. One of the brothers, Joseph M'Kibben, who is a Member of Congress elect from California, had arrived but a few days previous, and the two determined to be revenged. When Craig appeared on the platform of the ears they commenced firing their revolvers at him. He retreated into the ears, they following and still shooting. Finding he could do nothing in the car, Craig finally made a rush at Joseph, with a revolver. He fled, Craig' after him, and he followed by Robert. After chasing each other around the depot, and endangering the lives of many, they were finally separated by the cars starting off with Craig, who is seriously wounded. The Railroad Company has indicted the M'Kibbins' and Craig expresses bimself gratified that he will thus have an opportunity of proving himself innocent of the charge.

GIFT BOOK SALE .- We direct attention to the advertisement of G. G. Evans in another part of our paper. Mr. Evans has the reputation of dealing fairly with those who patronize him. The purchaser gets a book worth the money he pays, and stands a chance of getting with it a gift worth, perhaps, many times the amount. The "gift" plan is a very good way of disposing of many valuable and useful books at moderate prices, and Mr. Evans' catalogue is unusually attractive.

FROM MEXICO .- The steamship Tennessee from Vera Cruz, brings $250,000 in specie. A new cabinet had been formed. Gen. Alvarez had routed the rebels at the south with great slaughter. The whole coast of Yucatan was in the hands of the rebels.

FROM HAVANNA .- The sugar crop was favorable. The fever had disappeared from the island. All the prime necessaries of life were high and scarce. The steamship Granada, arrived at New York, on Saturday, with $350,-000 in specie.
