THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., NOV. 18,1857.

ATTEMPT TO BREAK JAIL .- On last Thursday afternoon, whilst the Sheriff was in attendance at the Court House, the prisoners in our county jail made an attempt to break out. They succeeded in divesting themselves of nearly all their "jewelry" and doubtless would have effected their escape if they had not been opportunely discovered.

Our jail is a poor concern, and it is a matter of surprise to us that prisoners can be kept in it at all. It is a waste of money to fix it up. What is needed is a new prison.

Now is the Time to Advertise .- In dull seasons, what little trade is going on advertisers get, and whilst others are grumbling they pay their way, and with the newspaper as a life preserver, swim on the top of the water, whilst others are sinking around. The necessity of advertising is the more manifest now, because thus only can good trade be secured.

TEMPERANCE MEETING .- A spirited temperance meeting was held in the Court House on Monday evening, which was addressed!by Rev. Thos. Barnhart, Dr. Jeffries, John M. Chase and others. The proceedings were much enlivened by the vocal and instrumental music with which a number of ladies and gentlemen favored the meeting.

FAST WORK .- Judge Burnside is deserving of praise for the celerity with which he dispatched the business of the adjourned court last week. During the four days of its sescion, sixteen verdiets were rendered.

NEW Goods .- Wm. F. Irwin, at the sign of "Cheap Goods," Clearfield, Pa., is now opening a stock of new Fall and Winter Goods, which he offers to his customers and the publie in general, on reasonable terms.

A Spirited Young Lady :- A dashing equipage drew up to the pavement at the lower end of Broadway, New York, on Thursday last, when a (beautiful, and fashionable of course) young lady sprang out and cowhided a gentleman on the side walk until he screamed and ran, when she got into her carriage and drove back up Broadway. The lady is said to be a Miss Louisa Gasseo, who sings in the choir CLIPPINGS AND SCRIBBLINGS.

MYSTERIES OF MORMONISM.

Elder John Hyde, Jr., a recanting Mormon, delivered a lecture in Philadelphia, a short time since on Mormonism, from which we make the following extract, taken from the Inquirer :- Young's satellites all contribute to his exaltation. Kimball says that we cannot see God, but he has given us a man to whom we can speak to as God. I will risk, says he, my soul's salvation in the hands of Brigham Young. It is terrible that such a doctrine should be taught. It is yet more terrible that such a doctrine should be believed. Yet thousands of young persons are now growing up in it. Some times there is a little opposition to the authority of Brigham. He soon arranges all difficulties. The rebellfous one is sent abroad to disseminate the system, and thus what would have been the means of weakening Young at home becomes an instrument of strengthening him abroad. Brigham has twenty wives, and has charge of the widows of Joseph Smith. Brigham Young is the Ignatius Loyola of Mormonism. The points of resemblance between Young and Loyola as developed in their respective systems were here shown. Each adopted a secret form for the guidance and control of his followers, as has been adopted by different political and religious bodies, but never has this form been so prostituted as with the Jesuit and the Mormon. The Mysteries of Mormonism through which the novice is conducted were then revealed. They consist of ceremonies at once awful and absurd. The neophyte is conducted into a room and stripped naked and a name is whispered in his ear, which he is to remember at the peril of his soul's salvation. In another room he is clothed with a robe which makes him look half like a Brahmin and half like a Jewish priest. In an adjoining room a dramatic blasphemy goes on. God is personated. The incidents of Genesis-the Creation, the Garden of Eden, the appearance of Satan, &c., are represented The initiate then performs the circuit of four other rooms. Covenanting and vowing, as he its traces, what has become of the rest of the hargoes. In one, he swears to chastity; in another, polygamy is accorded with the sanction of Brigham Young; in the third, a terrible abjuration of secrecy is administered; the awful preparation for the tourth, where amidst horrible surroundings the initiate is sworn to elernal enmily to the United States of America! This is the "MormonEndowment," through which fifty thousand of our fellow creatures have passed. All that I hold most dear on earth still cling to this horrible system. My wife and child remain at Salt Lake. My wife has been forced, by her devotion to these things, to forego even her heart's strong yearnings, and utter prayers which shape themselves into curses! Some of you, continued the speaker, may have come here to gratify an idle curiosity. I do not come here to pander to a prurient taste, but to teach you what Mor-

MAMMOTH FOREST .- From the California Farmer we learn that a grove of mammoth trees has been discovered in Yosemite valley. The first tree that was measured was eighty feet in circumference three and a half feet from the ground; another tree was ninety feet in circumference at the same distance from the ground, while close to the roots it was one hundred and two feet round it, and it was three hundred feet high. The number of trees measured was one hundred and fifty-five, and they are about half the group; none were less than forty feet in circumf were one hundred over lifty feet. The largest tree now lies upon the ground; it is charred, and its heavy bark is gone, and yet it measures thirty-three feet in diameter, or one hundred has a stormy mother, so you needn't wonder if it feet in circumference, and must have been four hundred feet high. The Farmer concludes by saying :- "This we believe to be the largest tree yet discovered; and this forest we claim as the Parent Forest of the world."

"INDIAN SUMMER" .- ORIGIN OF THE TERM. -The early settlers of New England were surprised and gratified to find that, after the first killing frosts of Autumn, a period intervened between that and Winter, of mild, smoky, pleasant weather, which soon obtained the name of Indian Summer, from the fact that the natural indolence of the Indian character led them to defer until this period the work of Summer-such as harvesting their corn and vegetables, and getting nuts, or putting up hay, and general preparations for Winter. Hence the name.

OBINS' EXPECTORANT,

COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY. FOR THE CURE OF Bronchial affections.Coughs, Colds, Pleurisy, Broa chitis, Asthma, and all other diseases of the throa and lungs, except Consumption. This invaluable remedy is no quack nostrum, but is prepared from the recipe of a regular physician, who during a practice of twenty-five years, used it with unperalleled success. It is a combination of expectorant remedies, simple in their character and used by every educated physician. It is easily taken, oduces no nausea or other disagreeable effects, and gives almost immediate relief. In this everchanging climate, where coughs and colds so frequently end in consumption and death, no family should be without this CERTAIN CURE.

It would be easy to follow in the wake of the venders of patent medicine, and multiply certificates got up for the occasion, of miraculous cures, but no such adventitions aid is necessary in introducing this preparation to the public. Its real value, and never failing success, in accomplishing all promised for it, cannot but give it a wide circulation, and recommend it to all those afflicted with diseases for which it is a remedy.
