Thankagiving Day. Thursday, 26th instant, being the day set apart by proclamation of the Governor of the Commonwealth to be observed as a day of Thanksgiving, the Churches of the Borough of Clearfield have agreed upon a Union Celebration. The congregations of the place are therefore invited to attend at the Presbyterian church on Thursday morning at 11 o'clock, where appropriate services will be held.

Accident .- On last Friday, near noon, Mr. Alfred Southard, of this place, in wrestling with another young man, had his left hip dislocated, which the physicians had considerable trouble in setting.

COMMITTED .- On last Friday, Henry F. Cook, of Beccaria township, was committed to our county jail, charged "with lifting a letter from the office at Glen Hope, containing a check of fifty dollars on the Bank of Chester County, with forging the name of C. J. Shoft, and with passing said check to C. C. Shannon, at Altoona."

TAKEN TO THE PENITENTIARY .- On Monday morning, Sheriff Reed left this place with Robert Warden, convicted of horse-stealing, and David Feaster, convicted of burning a barn and horse stealing, for Allegheny City, where they are to be imprisoned in the Western Penitentiary-Warden for three years and ten months, and Feaster for two years and six months. On Sunday evening, Warden made a last effort to escape from jail. He wrenched his hobbles off, and had a hole dug through the wall, but had it so concealed that it was not immediately discovered. Fortunately, however, he had been placed in another room, during the night.

THE RIGHT SPIRIT .- By a notice in to-day's Journal, it will be seen that the several churches of this borough are to have a joint service on Thanksgiving Day. This is right. It displays a proper christian spirit. It is a manifestation of that kindly, fraternal feeling that should characterize every follower of the Sawior. We have a poor opinion of that sort of religion which studiously avoids affiliation with other denominations-which wraps itself up in the ample folds of superstition, bigotry and selfishness-which practically says "I am holier than thou." Love and meekness are attributes of genuine christianity. The Savior, when he visited the earth, presented himself as one of her meekest and lowliest subfects. Humility marked his whole career, and fraternal love characterized all his actions. He knew nothing of bigoted sectarianism, but taught his disciples to "love one another." the South, woolly heads-and everywhere dema-Whenever this admonition is fully carried into practice, we shall cease to hear of those bickerings and strifes which now too often agitate Protestant churches, and we shall find them joining in one common voice in their ascriptions of praise to Him, who presides over the destinies of the world, and reigns eternal Proceedings of Court-November Term. In the Court of Common Pleas but few causes were tried, the week having been occupied principally with criminal business.

Civil List .- Mordicai Shirk vs. William Jones. Feigned issue. Shirk claimed the right to use the water flowing over the land of Jones. The defendant contended that the water had been diverted from the original channel across his land to plaintiff's premises, and that the statute of limitation did not apply as the possession of plaintiff was not adverse. Verdict for plaintiff. Wallace for plaintiff, McEnally for defendant.

Christian Schoff vs. John Harsh. Appeal from judgment of J. P. Verdict for plaintiff $11 79. Wallace for plaintiff, Crans for deft.

Ross Read, collector, &c. vs. Eliza Irvin. Church, Curwensville. There was no evidence of the contract, but defendant occasionally used the pew which her deceased husband had rented. Verdict for plaintiff, $40. McEnally for plaintiff, Wallaces for defendant.

Samuel Clark, indicted for larceny, was tried and the jury after an absence of several hours returned a verdict of not guilty. This cause occupied part of two days, and before the whole of the evidence was heard, submitted to the jury without argument. McCullough, Mc-Enally, Swoope and Crans for Com. Wallaces and Guttle for defendant.

Robert Warden, indicted for larceny of two mares, property of Wm. L. Wilson and Jacob Hoover, was tried and convicted. Sentence, fine $250 and 3 years and 10 months imprisonment in Western Penitentiary. McCullough, McEnally, Swoope and Crans for Com. Wallaces, Larimer and Test for defendant.

DAILY TELEGRAPH FOR THE SES-SION.-PROPOSED ENLARGEMENT. The Harrisburg Daily Telegraph is now in the econd year of its existence. It started last fall rather as an experiment, and has succeeded beyond the most sanguine expectations of its publishors. It has gradually won its way to public favor, until it has placed itself upon a firm and sure basis, and is now one of the permanent "institutions of the Capitol. It shall be the effort of the publishers to continue it in the spirit in which it has been conducted, to add to its general and local interest, and to merit its steadily increasing patron age; and should its increased patronage in subscription and advertising be commensurate with their hopes and expectations, it is their intention to enlarge it about the first of January next, by the addition of four more columns. This will give without intrenching upon the space allotted to the reading matter. During the Legislative session it is the most desirable paper in the State. The paper will be strictly neutral m politics.

During the approaching session of the Legislature, it is our intention to make the "DATLY TEL-EGRAPH" a correct and reliable exponent of the doings of the Legislature of Pennsylvania. With this view, a corps of competent Reporters will be employed in each House. The session will be one of more than ordinary importance. The derange-ment of the currency, and the peculiar position of the Banks, will require, or, at least, will excite much legislation. Incorporated companies for manufacturing, mining and other purposes, will also require much legislation. It shall be our

us additional room for our advertising patrons, province to present to the readers of the Telegraph full and impartial legislation upon these and all other subjects, wherein they may be interested. Business men throughout the State, who desire a correct knowledge of the doings of their repre sentatives during the sessions of the Legislature, and there are many such, do not properly appreciate the Telegraph Through its columns they can obtain this knowledge, and also receive the very latest news of the day, domestic and foreign. by telegraph and mails; and will be a perfect mirror of the news throughout the world. Persons who desire correct information, and who once take the Telegraph, would not do without it again.

The Local department will be attended to as usunl, and will give a faithful record of everything (Sundays excepted.) on the following terms:

ROBINS' EXPECTORANT. COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY. FOR THE CURE OF

Bronchial affections, Coughs, Colds, Pieurisy, Bron chitis, Asthma, and all other diseases of the thron and lungs, except Consumption. This invaluable remedy is no quack nostrum, but is prepared from the recipe of a regular physician, who during a practice of twenty-five years, used it with unparalleled success. It is a combination of expecto-rant remedies, simple in their character and used by every educated physician. It is easily taken, roduces no nausea or other disagreeable effects, and gives almost immediate relief. In this everchanging climate, where coughs and colds so fre quently end in consumption and death, no family hould be without this CERTAIN CURE. It would be easy to follow in the wake of the venders of patent medicine, and multiply certificates got up for the occasion, of miraculous cures, but no such adventitious aid is necessary in introducing this preparation to the public. Its real value, and never failing success, in accomplishing all promis ed for it, cannot but give it a wide circulation, and recommend it to all those afflicted with diseases for which it is a remedy.
