CLEARFIELD, PA., DEC. 9, 1857.

DISTRICT INSTITUTE.

The Teachers of Clearfield town, Curwensville, Lawrence, Pike and Penn townships, and other teachers who can, are requested to meet in Clearfield borough, at the Town Hall, on Saturday, the 19th inst., at 10 oclock, A. M ... for the purpose of organizing and holding a District Teachers' Institute. The public gen-erally are invited to attend. Will the Directors allow Teachers who wish to attend the Institute, their time ? L. L. STILL, County Superintendent.

FATAL MISTAKE .- Mr. Robert R. Welsh. of this borough, yesterday evening, immediately after dark, in mistake drank a quantity of Cyanide of Pofassium, from the effects of which he died in a very few minutes. He was a silversmith by trade, and used the article in his business. Inadvertently he left a small quantity of the acid in a tumbler. In the evening he went into his shop to get a drink, and happening to pour the water into this tumbler, drank the fatal acid before he was aware of it. He ran for his house close alongside the shop, but fell when he reached the porch. He hurriedly told his wife that he had drank poison, and that she should get him an emetic. Physicians were straightway called, who used the stomach-pump and other means to save his life, but to no purpose. He leaves a wife and three small children. How true that "in the midst of life we are in death !"

"A VOICE FROM BENZINGER."-Some weeks since we copied an item to the effect that Packer received the entire vote of the township of Benzinger, Elk county, and that there was not a Protestant bible or school in it. This, it seems, aroused the ire of one George Walmsly, who holds forth in a plaintive strain in the last Clearfield Republican. George says the item isn't correct-that he will "wager" that there are more than several protestant bia Baptist. We are really glad to learn of so many protestant bibles being in that benighted "Molly Maguire" district ; but from the belling | Kansas question. propensity displayed by George, we should judge they were scarce in his neighborhood, and that the "hard-shell" persuasion had obtained foothold there. George also hints that we are ignorant. That we think is unkind of "Yorick." Such a brilliant and erudite genius as he would have us believe him to be, should make some allowance for a poor chap like ourself, though we incline to the belief that he took this method of letting the world know that he was on hand, ready to pitch in on short notice. But, seriously speaking, if Mr. Walmsly is a church member, and wanted to correct a mistake, he should do it in a christian spirit, and not in a tone of acerbity.

dated at St. Louis, on the 2d inst. a meeting was held at Lawrence, on the 19th ultimo, for the purpose of considering the action of the late Constitutional Convention. Resolutions were adopted declaring the Lecompton constitution to be a gross violation of the expressed wishes of the people of Kansas, a fraud begotten of fraud, and solemnly pledging themselves to resist to the last all attempts to thrust it upon them, repudiating the election proposed to be held on the 21st of December, and suggesting that if the Territorial Executive does not immediately call a special session of the Legislature of the Territory, Gov. Robinson should call a special session of the State Legislature at the earliest moment A resolution was adopted, recommending the appointment of a local Vigilance Committee and a determination to sustain the action of that committee. E. B. Whitman presided, and speeches were made by Lane, Robinson, and others. Several of the pro-slavery papers of the Territory have taken strong ground against the Constitution.

CONVICTED .- The jury in the case of William Jones, indicted for the murder of Samuel H. White, in Washington co., after having been out seventy-five hours, on Monday after noon, of last week, returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree. William Jones is a brother of Charlotte Jones, now under sentence of death in Allegheny county, for participating with Fife in the murder of the Wilsons. On the same day, at Washington, John Kerr was convicted of murder in the second degree, for having shot John Bisel.

GOOD ADVICE .- Col. Tate, of the Columbia Democrat, recently took a jaunt to Ohio and throughWesternPennsylvania. In his "Notes of Tour," he refers to Clearfield County in the following terms :---

"Returning from the west, we next visited the home of our nativity, in Clearfield county. Twenty years ago, we left Clearfield and migrated to Columbia. Only twice since had we visited that spot we love to call our home. Great, indeed, during that time, have been the changes in the appearance of its general aspect. Then, it was a new county-comparatively, unimproved. Now, it is mostly settled and thickly improved. Our farmers in that section, in our judgment, have fallen into a grand error. They have too much neglected their Farming interests for the Lumbering business. The latter business is fluctuating in its nature,-sometimes lumber depreciates in value, and sometimes they fail in getting it to market, after the incessant labors of a long winter and the consumption of most of their produce, with very heavy Store Bills to pay, then, in the absence of their usual crops, they are left poor indeed. This mistaken policy. without the products of the Farm to lean upon, has largely tended to impoverish the county of Clearfield. We trust its citizens hereafter will do better. As Agriculture is the most honorable calling of the age, it should be the first object and primary business of every citizen."

KANSAS .--- There seems to be a misapprehension in some quarters on the subject of the anthority under which the Constitutional Convention in Kansas assembled. Some of the papers speak of an Act of Congress authorizing a Convention. A bill for the purpose was passed by the Senate, but was not concurred in by the House. The Convention was authorized by an Act of the Border-Ruffian Territorial Legislature.
