THIRTY-FIFTH CONGRESS. Both Houses of Congress organized on Monday the 7th December.

In the Senate, in the absence of the Vice President Mr. Breckenridge, Fitzpatrick of Alabama was chosen President of that body. Johnston of Tennessee, and Clark of New Hampshire, new members, were sworn in by Mr. Bright, the oldest member.

The usual resolutions were adopted for the appointment of committees to inform the House and the President of the United States that the Senate was organized and ready for the transaction of business. The Senate then went into Executive session and confirmed the nomination by the President of George W. Bowman, editor of the Bedford Gazette, as Superintendant of Public Printing,-after which an adjournment took place, no other business being transacted.

In the House two hundred and twenty-one members answered to their names, when an election for Speaker took place, which resulted in the election of James L. Orr of South Carolina, the democratic nominee. The Republicase in caucus nominated Mr. Grow of Pennsylvania, and the vote stood, Orr, 128; Grow, 84; scattering, 13. Mr. Orr was declared duly elected, and was conducted to the Chair by Stephens of Georgia, and Banks of Massachusetts. The oath of office was administered by Mr. Giddings. The new Speaker on taking the Chair, delivered an appropriate address. The members were then sworn in, after which Mr. Allen of Illinois, was elected Clerk, Mr. Glossenbrenner, Sergeant-at-Arms, and Mr. Hackey, Doorkeeper. Mr. Cluskey was declared Postmaster by resolution.

Mr. Florence of Pennsylvania, gave notice of his intention to introduce a bill for the entire suppression of all bank notes as currency. or bank notes of a less denomination than one hundred dollars, as a circulating medium in the District of Columbia, after which the House adjourned.

-In the Senate, on Tuesday, upon a motion to print the President's message, Mr. Douglass took occasion to say that he concurred in all the President had expressed, except that portion relative to Kansas and the Lecompton constitution, and that at an early day he would give his reasons for believing that the people of the Territory had not been left to regulate their own affairs in their own way, as guarantied by the organic act. Mr. Stuart of Michigan, concurred with Mr. Douglass. Messrs. Davis, Mason and Bigler supported the views of the President. Messrs. Hale, Seward and Trumbull attacked the Kansas Lecompton constitution and the position of the Executive. Pending a motion that all the printing be executed by the printer to the Senate at the last session-the Washington Union-the Senate

The House was engaged in discussing the question of the election of a printer, but adfourned without coming to any conclusion.

In the Senate, on Wednesday, Mr. Douglas commenced the discussion of the Kansas question. He denounced the President's message as containing a radical and fundamental error. and maintained that he could not endorse the Lecompton Convention without violating the principles of the bill and stultefying himself. He proceeded to show that Congress could not properly receive Kansas into the Union under this bogus Convention, and said that the whole constitution must be submitted, to ascertain whether or not it meets with the approbation of the people of the territory. He was replied to by Mr. Bigler, who endeavored to defend the position of the President. After a long discussion, most bumilitating to the Senator from Pennsylvania, the Senate adjourned.

The House elected Mr. Steadman (Dem.) printer, over Mr. Weston, (Rep.) The members then selected their seats by lottery, and an adjournment took place.

Both Houses of Congress on Thursday met and presently adjourned till Monday, in order, we presume, to offord time for the appointment of the usual Committees. In the Senate, Mr. Douglas gave notice of a bill to enable the people of Kausas to form a Constitution and State Government, preparatory to their admission into the Union. We shall await with interest the appearance of this bill; if its provisions are perfectly fair to the much injured people of the Territory, its passage may indeed put an end to the wrongs of which they have been the victims, and restore to them the peace and tranquility of which so greatly they stand in need.

In the House, Mr. Stephens of Ga. offered a book-distributing resolution, which was adopted. Mr. Letcher of Va. took ground against this corrupt system. We trust he will not let the matter rest where it is.

THE MORMON WAR .- The advance forces of the Utah army were in the South Pass in the middle of October, at which time Col. Smith had effected a junction with Col. Johnston. Col. Alexander's command was a little beyond Ham's Fork. The Mormons had made another stroke at his supplies and had run off 400 of the cattle which belonged to the trains they burned on the 5th Oct. The Indians as yet are neutral. Col. Alexander had received from Brigham Young a copy of a proclamation in which he styles the U.S. troops "an armed mob," and the inhabitants of the Territory are exhorted to resist them. Despatches from Col. Johnston reached Washington a few days since. From these it appears that Col. Johnston does not design entering Salt Lake City till Spring. He intends to form a junction with Col. Alexander at the mouth of Fontenelle Creek, about thirty miles from that officer's present camp at Ham's Fork, and not far from seventy miles from his own camp at the South Pass. He will winter at Henry's Fork on Green River, where he hopes that Col. Cook's command, with whom is Gov. Cumming, will join him. Col. Johnston thinks his force barely adequate to the protection of supply trains, and predicts that the contest will be a protracted one unless large reinforcements be sent him. He speaks of the impossibility of his making a retrograde movement, as if he thought that exigencies might arise before long that would afford a poorer soldier an excuse for beating a retreat.

PREPARED FOR THE "RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL." LUZERNE COUNTY .- George Mafthias, an old man known as the Seven Mile Dutchman, living on the Easton turnpike, seven miles from Wilkesbarre, has been missing since the 28th November. A man named William Miller had een living with Matthias, to get rid of the arue, and had told them that the old man had old to him and gone West. Search was made and the body found in the well in 16 feet of water, sever gashes with a hatchet in his head, three of them to the brain, a chain round his waist with two large flat stones attached, and stones thrown on him from the mouth of the well. They brought Miller in and Esq. Vaughn committed him for further hearing. He asked Mr. Smith, who brought him in, if he had better tell all, and seemed disposed to criminate a son of Matthias as an accomplice. . . At the late term of the Court, Charles Kelly plead guilty of larceny, and was sentenced 1 year and 11 months to the penitentiary. . . . Francis Burns, convicted of murder in the 2nd de gree, was sent 12 years to the penitentiary.

LANCASTER COUNTY .- On the night of the 6th inst., the jewelry store of Mr. John Felix, in Columbia, was broken open and robbed of goods to the amount of about $120. A man named Lewis Aubison was arrested, who managed, however, to escape from the officers and is still at large. On the same night the clothing store of D. Hanaur, in the same town, was broken into and a suit of clothes stolen therefrom, as also a couple dollars from the restaurant drawer of John Shuman in the basement of the same house. . . . Emanuel Eberly, whilst returning home to Strasburg from is work at Miller's carriage shop, near Musselman's Mill, West Lampeter tp , broke his leg in getting over a rail fence in consequeuce of the top rail breaking. . . . A son of David Royer of Ephrata township, was so badly hurt by being kicked by a horse, that he died in a few hours after receiving the injury. He was an unmarried man and about 27 years of age.

LEHIGH COUNTY .- On the 5th inst., M. Shereden, while at work on an inclined plane above the railroad track, at Allentown furnace, lost his foothold and was precipitated to the ground below, striking one of the track rails, thereby tracturing his lower jaw-bone and cutting his face in several places, severely. Rev. F. J. F. Schantz, of Allentown, was elected Pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, in Reading, Berks county. . . . Several disorderly young men were arrested and fined, in Allentown, for disturbing a religious meeting, of the German Methodists.

CRAWFORD COUNTY .- Last week, a German named Daniel Feit, in Meadville, died from the effects of drinking a quantity of whiskey. Several persons, who are a little too fond of the "critter," bought several quarts, and tried who could drink the most. Feit drank a large portion of the liquor, and then fell asleep to wake no more. This should be a warning to those who trifle with that pernicious "beverage." CUMBERLAND COUNTY .- A Mr. Miller, of Carlisle, one day last week, for a wager, undertook to hask 30 barrels of corn, from sun-rise to sun-set, which he more than accomplished, having husked 374 barrels in less than 9 hours, besides tying up the fodder.

LYCOMING COUNTY .- John and Jacob Crawford, brothers, made an unprovoked assault on a widow lady, in Muney, last week. The scoundrels have been arrested and lodged in jail, and, we hope, will be strictly dealt with. They are old offenders.

NORTHAMPTON COUNTY.-Silas B. Wheaton, convicted of burglary, at the late term of the Court held at Easton, died in the jail on Monday two weeks, from the effects of a cut on the head, received by a railroad accident, a short time previous. COLUMBIA COUNTY .- Reuben W. Weaver, Esq., editor of the "Star of the North," diel

McKean County .- Bears are very plenty in this county, and hard to kill at that. One old fellow, killed last week, had over 20 rifle balls lodged in him before he gave up the ghost.

KANSAS .- The largest Delegate Convention ever held in the Territory assembled at Law-rence on the 2d inst. Gov. Robinson presided. Resolutions were adopted repudiating the unsubmitted Constitution and declaring their determination never to vote upon or under it at the beck of Regent Calhoun, endorsed the Topeka Constitution, and asked the Lcgislature about to assemble to submit it along with the Lecompton swindle to a free and fair vote of the whole people of Kansas at an election forthwith to be appointed, and which-ever would carry should be declared and upheld as the fundamental law of the State of

FOR THE CURE OF Bronchial affections Coughs, Colds, Picurisy, Bron chitis, Asthma, and all other diseases of the thron and lungs, except Consumption. This invaluable remedy is no quack nostrum, but is prepared from the recipe of a regular physician, who during a practice of twenty-five years, used it with unpar-alleled success. It is a combination of expectorant remedies, simple in their character and used by every educated physician. It is easily taken. produces no nausen or other disagreeable effects. and gives almost immediate relief. In this everchanging climate, where coughs and colds so fre quently end in consumption and death, no family should be without this CERTAIN CURE.

It would be easy to follow in the wake of the venders of patent medicine, and multiply certificates got up for the occasion, of miraculous cures, but no such adventitions aid is necessary in introducing this preparation to the public. Its real value, and never failing success, in accomplishing all promised for it, cannot but give it a wide circulation, and recommend it to all those afflicted with diseases for which it is a remedy. March 4, 1857.-tf DAILY TELEGRAPH FOR THE SES-SION -PROPOSED ENLARGEMENT The Harrisburg Douby Telegraph is now in the and year of its existence. It started last fall rather as an experiment, and has succeeded be youd the most sanguine expectations of its publishers. It has gradually won its way to public favor, until it has placed itself upon a firm and sure basis, and is now one of the permanent "institutions" of the Capitol. It shall be the effort of the publishers to continue it in the spirit in which it been conducted, to add to its general and local interest, and to merit its steadily increasing patronage; and should its increased patronage in sub-scription and advortising be commensurate with their hopes and expectations, it is their intention to enlarge it about the first of January next, by the addition of four more columns. This will give us additional room for our advertising patrons, without intrenching upon the space allotted to the reading matter. During the Legislative session it is the most desirable paper in the State. The paper will be strictly neutral in politics. During the approaching sessi ture, it is our intention to make the "Dathy Tel-EGRAPH" a correct and reliable exponent of the doings of the Legislature of Pennsylvania. this view, a corps of competent Reporters will be employed in each House. The session will be one employed in each House. The session will be one of more than ordinary importance. The derangement of the 28th of January, 1858, at which time the awards will take place.

Teams of Subscription—Every subscriber of manufacturing, mining and other purposes, will also require much legislation. It shall be our to present to the readers of the Tele full and impartial legislation upon these and all other subjects, wherein they may be interested.

Business men throughout the State, who desire a correct knowledge of the doings of their representatives during the sessions of the Legislature and there are many such, do not properly appreciate the Telegraph Through its columns they can obtain this knowledge, and also receive the very latest news of the day, domestic and for eign, by telegraph and mails; and will be a perfect mirror of the news throughout the world. Persons who desire correct information, and who once take the Telegraph, would not do without it again. The Local department will be attended to as usual, and will give a faithful record of everything of interest occurring in our immediate midst The Telegraph will be published every evening, (Sundays excepted.) on the following terms:
