MR. EDITOR :- Dear Sir : As you have devoted a column of your interesting sheet to the great cause of Education, and have given a general invitation to all who feel disposed to contribute. I. as a lover of our "public school system," will throw in my mite, hoping that it may, in some slight degree, add to the general interest of that great scheme, on which hangs the tuture destiny of our glorious Republic. The promoters of this great reforming engine, have labored for a number of years, in this county, as well as in many others, under the most trying circumstances. The good de- As te Judges-Hon. Wm. L. Moore, Clearfield. signs of their untiring efforts have, time and again, been frustrated, through the delinquen- Prothonotary. George Walters, cy of a few individuals. They have, with grief and vexation, witnessed the small degree of interest taken by their neighbors in this great cause, and have in many instances beheld, to their great regret, the flame, which had been kindled with so much care and toil, which was expected to shed light and knowledge upon all around, and before whose piercing rays ignorance and superstition must always retreat, dwindle and die, and again a moral gloom settle down upon them. This was when the system was in its infancy. Still they toiled on. With unrelenting diligence they buffeted the storms of opposition, and now, as a reward of their untiring zeal, they have the extreme delight of seeing the dawn of a glorious morn bursting forth, before whose light the gloomy vapors of ignorance, and opposition retreat, as darkness retreats before the morning sun. Their labors are now being crowned with success. A general interest has been awakened. New shool-houses are being erected. Where once stood the dismal log cabin, we now behold a cheerful, commodious building. Where once was employed, as teacher, the "surly, crusty, old bachelor," whose look was sufficient to throw a timid child into spasms, and who only knew enough to brandish the rod over the head of the terrified pupil, we now have employed pleasant, intelligent teachers, who, by their kind looks and gentle manners. at once secure the love and respect of their pupils, and this being accomplished, they scarcely find occasion for the application of the rod. Instead of the school-room being regarded by pupils with terror, it is looked upon with delight as the very source and fountain of their enjoyments; and its attractions are so great that parents are no longer necessitated to compel their children to attend, but with a light heart and a quick step they are off every morning, at an early hour, toward the attractive mansion. The improvement of the "public schools" has, for the last three years, been so rapid in this county, that even their most embittered enemies are compelled to acknowledge their upward march; and many, very many, who were once hostile to the system, are now acquiescing, and even acknowledge its utility. But, after all this, there is still room for impovement. Our schools have not yet reached their zenith of perfection. Some districts are still destitute of comfortable houses; others have their progress retarded by baving in office delinquent and arbitrary Di- Hopkinton Bank, rectors; and it remains for us to toil on, to surmount all obstacles, to build new houses | Merch Ex. Ek. Bridgewhere they are needed, to elect more zealous Directors instead of those who neglect their duty, and thus, by diligently discharging every duty, our schools, in this sequestered region, will mount upward, and soaring aloft, will scale one point of perfection after another. until they will compete with those of the eastern counties, this "wilderness bud and blossom like the rose," and those flexible, mountain-reared intellects become expanded and polished to their utmost extent. The public benefit received from the cultivation of the moral and intellectual faculties of all classes. is sufficient to remunerate all our toil. It is the spontaneous establishment of colleges and seminaries, the moral instruction afforded by them, the education of the lower classes, and the high spirit of refinement prompted by the influence of our free institutions, that free our northern States from those glaring outrages committed by enthusiastic mobs, and render our lives and property secure. . . . In the Southern States, a pedantic, haughty, domineering spirit exists among the controlling classes; sensual, debasing amusements are practiced among the lower; and the cultivation of the moral and intellectnal faculties is looked upon with too little interest.

Then let us arouse, and apply our shoulders to the great wheel of reformation with redoubled vigor.

YANKEE ALL OVER .- Bayard Taylor says City Bank, Cincinnati 60 Planters & Union Bk, that a Yankee, in walking in St. Petersburg, one muddy day, met the Grand Duke Constantine. The sidewalk was not wide enough for two persons to pass, and the street was very deep in filth-whereupon the American took a silver rouble from his pocket, shook it in his closed hand, and cried out: "Crown or tail!" "Crown" answered the Grand Duke. "Your highness has won," said the American. looking at the rouble and stepping into the mud. The next day the American was invited by the Grand Duke to dinner.

MAGNIFICENT PROGRAMME FOR 1858 $20,000 IN SPLENDID WORKS OF ART

PIVE-DOLLAR ENGRAVING TO EVERY SUBSCIBER. The Great Labrary Offer .- Agents Getting Rich The union of EMERSON'S MAGAZINE and PUTNAM'S MONTHLY has given to the consoli-dated work a circulation second to but one similar publication in the country, and has secured for it a combination of literary and artistic talent probably unrivalled by any other magazine in the world. During the first month, the sale in the trade and demand from subscribers exceeded 90,000 copies, and the numbers already issued of the con-solidated work are universally conceded to have surpassed, in the richness of their literary contents, and the beauty and profuseness of their pictorial illustrations, any magazine ever before issued from the American press. Encouraged by these evidences of favor, the publishers have determined to commence the new volume in January with still additional attractions, and to offer such inducements to subscribers as cannot fail to place it, in circulation, at the head of American magazines. With this view they now announce the following splendid programme. They have purchased that superb and costly steel-plate cograving. "THE LAST SUPPER," and will present a copy of it to every three-dollar subscriber for the year 1838. It was engraved at a cost of over $5,000, by the late colebrated A. L. Dick, from the original of Raphael Morghen, after Leonardo Da Vinci, and is the largest steel-plate engraving ever executed in this country, being three times the size of the ordinary $3 engravings. The first impressions of this engraving are held at $10, and it was the intention of the artist that none of the engravings should ever be offered for a less sum than $5, being righly worth that amount. Thus every three-dollar subscriber will receive the Magazine one year-cheap at $3-and this splendid engraving, richly worth $5; thus getting for $3 the value of Eight dollars.

We shall commence striking off the engravings immediately, yet it can hardly be expected that impressions of so large a plate can be taken as fast as they will be called for by subscribers. We shall, therefore, furnish them in the order in which sub-scriptions are received. Those who desire to obtain their engravings early, and from the first impressions, should send in their subscriptions with-out delay The engraving can be sent on rollers, by mail, or in any other manner, as subscribers

$20,000 IN WORKS OF ART. In addition to the superb engraving of "THE LAST SUPPER." which will be presented so every three-dollar subscriber for 1858, the publishers have completed arrangemente for the distribution. on the 25th day of Docember, 1858, of a series of splendid works of art, consisting of one hundred rich and rare Old Paintings, valued at from $100 to $1,000 each. Also, 2,000 magnificent Steel-plate Engravings, worth from $3 to $5 each, and 1,000 choice Holiday Books, worth from $1 to $5 each making, in all, over THREE THOUSAND GIFTS, with TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS.

Inclose $3 to the publishers and you will comnence receiving the Magazine by return mail You will also receive with the first copy a num bered subscription receipt entitling you to the En-graving of "THE LAST SUPPER," and a chance to draw one of these "Three Thousand Prizes."

REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD SEESCRIME FOR EMERSON'S MAGAZINE FOR 1818. First: Because its literary contents will, during the year, embrace contributions from over and hundred different writers and thinkers, bering among them the most distinguished of A merican authors. Second : Because its editorial departments. "Our Studio," "OurWindow," and "Our Olio," will each be conducted by an able edisor—and it will sur pass, in the variety and richness of its editorial ontents, any other magazine.

Third: Because it will contain,during the year, searly six thousand original pictorial illustrations from designs by the first American artists.

Fourth: Because for the sum of $3 you will receive this splendid monthly, more richly worth that sum then any other magazine, and the superbengraving of "The Last Supper," worth $5.

Fifth: Because you will very likely draw one of the three thousand prizes to be distributed on the 25th day of December, 1858-perhaps one that is worth One Thousand Dollars.

Notwithstanding that these extraordinary in-ducements can hardly fail to accomplish the ob-jects of the publishers without further efforts, yet they have determined to continue through the year THE GREAT LIBRARY OFFER. To any person who will get up a club of twenty our subscribers, either at one or more post-offices we will present a splendid Library, consisting of over Forty Large Bound Volumes, embracing the ost popular works in the market The glub may be formed at the club price, $2 a year, without the engraving, or at the full price, 83, with the engraving of The Last Supper to each subscriber. List and description of the Library, and specimen copy of the magazine, will be forwarded on receipt of 25 cents. Over 200 Libraries, or 8,000 volumes have already been distributed in accordance with this offer, and we should be glad of an opportunity to furnish a Library to every clergyman, to every school teacher, or to some one at every post office in the country.

AGENTS GETTING RICH. The success which our agents are meeting with is almost astonishing. Among the many evidenes of this fact, we are permitted to publish the
