Educational Department.

YOUTH AND LOVERS OF LEARNING OF CLEARFIELD COUNTY.—It is with no ordinary emotions of delight, I received the glad news that the Editor of the Journal has consented to open and devote a column of his paper exclusively to your benefit.

It is gratifying to see that the public mind is becoming more and more awakened to a sense of the importance of Education, and is now extending to youth privileges far superior to those their fathers enjoyed.

Then let me encourage the Youth, and especially those of my acquaintance, to embrace this excellent opportunity. Do not let fears of incompetence keep you back; for very often those most fearful in this respect, make the best writers.

Very truly Yours, W. A. CAMPBELL.

Xenia, O. Dec. 26th 1857.

READING ALoud.—There is no treat so great as to hear good reading of any kind. Not one gentleman or lady in a hundred can read so as to please the ear, and send the words with gentle force to the heart and understanding.

HEADWORK.—Literary labor is undervalued, chiefly because the tools wherewith it is done are invisible. If the brain made as much noise as a mill, or if thought sowing followed hard after a breaking-up plough, the produce of the mind would at once assert a place in the prices current.

BOOK SALE.—A farm of 120 acres on the river above Curwensville.

FREDERICK SCHMELL, CLOCK AND WATCH MAKER, would respectfully announce to the public that his shop is located one door east of the Methodist Church, Clearfield, Pa., where he is prepared to repair Clocks, Watches, &c., on short notice and reasonable terms. Give him a call. All work warranted to give satisfaction. Clearfield, January 6, 1858.

THE MUSICAL WORLD.—Edited by R. Storrs Willis, [Edward Hodges, Mus. Doc. independent contributor,] has entered upon his 19th volume. It is issued weekly, with music in every number which can be attached for binding. Mr. Willis intends to add to the usual attractions of the paper during the coming year reminiscences of his European experiences—the first of which appears in the early January number. The Musical World is published at $3 a year, in advance. Five copies, $5; ten copies, $10. Address: Musical World Office, No. 379 Broadway, New York.
