CLEARFIELD, PA., JAN. 27, 1858.

IN TROUBLE .- Was ever a President so un fortunate as James Buchanan ? Troubles are daily thickening around him, and we wouldn't be surprised to hear of him doing something desperate. The result of the recent elections in Kansas, the perversity of the people of that unfortunate territory, and the reluctance of his friends in Congress to sacrifice themselves for his sake, distresses him much. A dispatch from Washington says, on Thursday he shut himself up and would see nobody, and it was supposed that he was writing a message on Kansas affairs.

THE MORMON WAR .- The troubles with the Mormons in Utah, it seems, have wakened up the Administration to a determination to carry on the war as actively as possible. Gen. Scott is to sail this week for California, with full powers from Government to organize in that State an army for the invasion of Utah, if the news from Salt Lake City, on his arrival in California, are such as to warrant the presecution of hostilities. It is probable the Army will be conducted up the Colorado River, which is believed to be navigable for 300 miles above its junction with the Gila, and in the exact direction of Utah. Gen. Scott expects to reach Salt Lake in June, simultaneously with Col. Johnston.

KANSAS .- Returns of the elections held in Kansas on the 21st Dec. and on the 4th January, have been received. They are published under the signatures of Gov. Denver and the presiding officers of the Territorial Legislature. The vote on the Lecompton Constitution on the 21st December stands : "with slavery" 6,143, "without slavery" 569. Of these votes, 3562 are said to have been polled in precincts containing not over 1000 inhabitants. It should be remembered that only a fraction of the Free State party voted on the 4th January, yet, it seems, they succeeded in electing all their candidates by an average majority of 415. The Senate stands 13 Free State men to 6 Democrate, and the House 20 Free State 6 Democrats, and the House 29 Free State men to 15 Democrats. The majority against the Constitution on the 4th of January was but there is no doubt of its ratification, and 10.226, all the fraudulent returns from Kickapoo, Shawnee, Oxford, &c., counted in. The Territorial Legislature has provided a commission to examine into the election frauds. and will provide for another Constitutional Convention. The Topeka Legislature, according to a correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat, will enact a code of laws to be used in case of emergency, but in no wise to conflict with the Territorial authority. Dissolution of THE UNION .- An opinion prevails among well-informed men that a determination has for years existed, and still exists among the Southern fire-eaters to sever the Union, and that the most systematic efforts have been made to accomplish their object. The Legislature of Alabama have unanimously instructed the Governor, in case Congress refuses to admit Kansas under the Lecompton Constitution, to call a State Convention to determine upon measures of redress; the same body having some weeks since resolved that such action on the part of Congress would be good cause for dissolving the Union. This looks like a preliminary movement, to be followed in other Southern States, for dragooning Congress into adopting the Lecompton Constitution, or, in the event of a failure in that case, to prepare the way for an actual disruption of the Confederacy. The Washington City Republic says : "There are men who go to the Capitol every day, and take their seats in the Senate and House, who scarcely affect to and silver coin, were convicted, after a trial conceal their treasonable hostility to the Government under which they live. If the Lecompton Constitution is rejected, they will do their best to induce a general withdrawal from Congress of the Southern members. We believe that they will ignominiously fail, but that they will make the attempt, is certain. In the meantime not a moment should be lost in arousing the country to the true state of affairs, and in concentrating such expressions of public opinion as will prevent the legislation of ballying. We have had enough of it. It has suffered too much humiliation already. The Bobadils of Alabama, and kindred spirits elsewhere, must be taught a lesson. Now, or never!" COUNTERFEIT DETECTOR .- At the solicitation of numerous friends, T. B. Peterson & Brothers have been induced to issue their Detector semi-monthly, thereby enabling persons to have the most accurate and reliable information relating to the various monetary changes. It is their desire to make the Bank Note List the best ever issued. This will not interfere with their monthly subscribers. LATEST FROM EUROPE.

The Europa arrived at New York on the 24th. The London and Paris money markets were growing casier, and there continued to be an influx of gold into the Bank of England, in Kansas for each quarter from the 1st of which hast reduced its rate of discount to six January, 1855, offered by Mr. Chandler of per cent. A number of failures had occurred Wisconsin, was adopted. A bill authorizing per cent. A number of failures had occurred in Glasgow. In the Manchester mills there in the search for Sir John Franklin of medals was a marked improvement, and in the south presented them by the British Government, of France trade was reviving.

Operations upon the steamship Leviathan had been resumed on the 5th inst., with success, and she needed to be moved only 64 feet he did not agree with Mr. Douglas in regardmore when the Europa sailed.

tugal, after having carried off 5,000 persons. The Circassians had massacred 1,200 of the Russisn garrison at Adekow. Mile. Rachel, Redshid Pasha, and Field-Marshal Radetzky had died.

From India, a fortnight's later intelligence had been received. Gen. Havelock died of dysentery on the 25th of Nov. On the 27th of the same month, in an engagement near Cawnpore, the Gwaliar mutineers had combeen themselves defeated on the 7th of December by Sir Colin Campbell.

UTAH AFFAIRS .- Official and other advices received at Washington render it more and more certain that Brigham Young intends to resist the Federal Government. It is believed that he can muster 8,000 men. His intrignes have extended into Texas and California, and men holding respectable positions there are said to be compromised. At the same time the losses and sufferings of the troops. now wintering in the mountains, are even worse than has been reported. Col. Cook lost half of his horses and a number of mules, and a further advance by him towards Salt Lake City cannot be made without a new suply of such animals, to procure which Capt, Marcy has been dispatched to New Mexico. Col. Johnston's command has suffered much by snow storms, cold and starvation; still a sufficient number of oxen, though poor, have been saved to suppply them with rations for seven months. It seems now to be settled that Gen. Scott will go to California to be ready for action there in case of emergency. He is to start on the 5th February. -----

GOVERNOR'S MANSION .- The Harrisburg Telerraph states that the Joint Committee of both State Treasurer, and Auditor General, have made an agreement with Mr. Worreli for the purchase of the "Griffith property" on the

THIRTY-FIFTH CONGRESS.

JANUARY 18 .- In the Senate Mr. Harlan of Iowa introduced a bill granting lands to that State for a railroad. A resolution calling for a statement of the number of troops stationed the acceptance by persons who were engaged was passed. The special order of the day

(the Kansas question) was then taken up-Mr. Hale of New Hampshire spoke strongly in opposition to the Lecompton scheme, which ing as an infraction of the principles of "Popular Sovereignty" embodied in the Nebraska bill, but as their consummation-the natural The yellow fever had disappeared from Porconcerning the Dred Scott decision, but gave way to a motion to go into Executive Session, after which the Senate adjourned. In the House, Mr. Speaker Orr has appointed a Committee to investigate the alleged expenditures of Lawrence, Stone & Co., to procure the tariff modification of last Session. A large number of bills were introduced and referred, among which were a Homestead bill, a French Spoliation bill, an International Copyright bill, a bill establishing a Branch Mint in New York, and one repealing the fishing bounties. Mr. Campbell offered a joint resopelled Gen. Windham's division to retreat, Intion empowering the President to open negowith severe loss of men and baggage, but had tiations, looking to the acquisition of Canada and Nova-Scotia. Mr. Giddings offered a preamble and resolution, setting forth the injustice and wrongfulness of the Dred Scott decision, and Mr. Humphrey Marshall a resolution that the Constitution be so amended as to en title only native-born citizens and those naturalized under the general law to vote. To the introduction of both objection was made. A resolution instructing the Judiciary Committee to consider the expediency of taking measures to restrain the emmigration of foreign paupers and criminals, and a resolution providing for the appointment of a select Committee of five to inquire into the official conduct of the late Doorkeeper of the House. were adopted. A bill to apportion the elerks and messengers to the several Executive Departments among the several States and Territories was still under consideration when the louse adjourned. JANUARY 19 .- Congress devoted this day to the memory of the late Senator Rusk. JANUARY 20,-In the Senate Mr. Hale N. H., concluded a telling speech against the Lecompton Swindle. Mr. Harlan of Iowa then obtained the floor, and the subject was laid over to next Monday. In the House, the day was given to a rambling discussion of the President's recommendation of a Pacific Railroad, which was finally, by a vote of 186 to 60, referred to a Scleet Committee. The residue of the Message was referred in parcels to the several Standing Committees. JASUARY 21.-In the Senate the Homestead

PENNSYLVANIA ITEMS. PREPARED FOR THE "RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL." ARMSTRONG COUNTY .- The notorious Robt. the living though youthful Spurgeon. We Ecker, confined in the County Jail, at Kittanning, on a charge of the larceny of boots and shoes from the Messrs. Jack, of Apollo, made his escape on Christmas night. He managed to reach the hall ceiling and cut his way from there out through the roof, and then descended to the ground by means of a tope made of his bed clothes. Sheriff Kelly offers a reward of $50 for his apprehension. ... A young man named Hugh Blaney, of Kittanning township, met with a serious accident on Friday the Sth inst. while engaged in working about a threshing machine, at the barn of Mrs. McIntosh, in Plumcreek township in said county. It ap- himself and his style to be to them absolutely pears that as he was oiling some portion of the machinery, the tail of his coat caught, and he was whirled round several times with great violence against the barn floor by the tumbling shaft. When taken up, it was found that he invigorated by careful culture, Chapin and was severely injured-particularly about the head-the skin of which was almost entirely stripped off. Mr. B. was still living at last accounts, though but faint hopes were entertained of his recovery.

LEMMAN COUNTY .- On Saturday evening last. as Mr. William Hardy, of Philadelphia, in the employ of the publishing house of Virtue, Emmons & Co., in New York, was coming up from Lehigh Ward, he was met by three highwaymen, one of whom spoke to him, and almost simultaneously clapped a cloth saturated with an opiate over his mouth, which, upon inhalation, prostrated him to the ground in an unconscious state. Of course, after this was accomplished, the tearing out of the pantaloon peckets of their victim, one of which contained a wallet with $52, was an easy matter; after which they passed on with their booty. Mr. Hardy was left lying in the street, but taken to his hotel by the police shortly after. The officers soon arrested three loafers. on suspicion, but as nothing could be proved against them they were discharged. Two of them were afterwards arrested again and placed in jail on the same charge.

WESTMORELAND COUNTY .- On the 11th Jannary the house and stable of Mr. Andrew Reed, of South Huntingdon township, were burnt to the ground, together with all their contents, except a few hed clothes.... An attempt was made a few weeks since to enter the house of Mr. W. B. Matthews, but before the burglars succeeded, the alarm was given, and they beat a hasty retreat. . . . A fire broke out in the Hempfield Hotel, in Greensburgh, on the evening of the 13th, but was put out before much damage was done. . . . The store of Wm. S. Kead, in Latrobe, was broken into on the night of the 14th, and seven and a half dollars in money and two carpet sacks, containing some new clothing and ribbons stolen. The carpet sacks and all the goods except a cont, instead of which the thief left his old one, were afterwards found lying at the station IORSE.

BLAIR COUNTY .- On the 13th, Col. L. L. Moore, manager at the Bermington tarnace, attempted to jump from one coke car to another whilst in motion, but fell down between the umping beams and was seriously injured. The lower part of his body is still paralyzed, religious meeting, was put to jail in Hollidaysburg on the 14th. . . . The farmers about

PREACHERS .- The English boast much of their preachers,-the late Edward Irving, and incline to believe these famous men will be found, if they could be set side by side, not superior to those reigning orators of the American pulpit in our day, Chapin and Beecher. England is not nationally eloquent. Americans who have heard Spurgeon, are not fascinated with any genius in him but that of honest zeal. Englishmen, on the contrary, upon hearing our Chapin, have expressed positive amazement. They declare the phenomena of a new revelation. It is probable that for the cloquence which, based wholly on the power of temperament, is at the same time greatly Beecher stand now at the head of the world's list of ecclesiastical orators. Considering them, not as literary talkers or academicians, but as orators, they command the highest seats in the world's synagogue. They are twin children of Calliope; the wreathes of the Muse of Eloquence are woven for their brows by the admiring million ; the gold and glory which only a republic gives to eloquence are given to them; and there they stand, faithful servants of God, crying aloud and sparing not. There, on either side of the rushing river which rolls by the wharves of the mighty capital of the commercial West, fast anchored there, like two repeating frigates, volleying forth their echoing broadside to each other, against the sins of the Babalonic city.

IN & QUANDARY .- Johnny Bull is puzzled. He is in a similar fix to the chap who won the elephant at a raffle. He has built a steamer which is designed to be-little all our ideas of monsters of the deep. The "Leviathan" looms up as one of the wonders of the world, at least as marvelous a structure as the pyramids of Egypt. But, unfortunately for brother Bull's vanity, the vessel still remainshigh and dry on terra firma and stubornly resists all attempts to move her. The last effort to make her take the water was a signal failure, and the idea of launching her has been abandoned for the present.

THE CZAR'S STABLES .- The cavalry stables of the Emperor of Russia are the wonder and astonishment of those who have obtained admission to them. The enclosure of stone walls and iron frames cover an area of ten miles in length by five in width. The stalls are twelve fect square each, while in the centre of this vast building is an arena where an army of five thousand head of the finest horses in the world are broken, trained and exercised daily by another army of the most skillful trainers, jockies, &c., in the Emperor's dominions.

A Goop Osz .- A few days since, a rough, country looking tellow entered one of the New York Banks, and marching up to the counter, exclaimed, "Here I am, I want you to take a fair look at me." Without a word further he strode out. The next day the same customer appeared, uttered the same words, and again disappeared. The third day, at about the same time, he walked in, and advancing to the teller's desk, threw down a draft payable three days after sight. "Now," said he, "you've seen me three times, I want the money for it !"

"THE GREAT UNITED STATES."-The census of the United States shows that we have two millions and a half of farmers, one hundred thousand merchants, sixty four thousand masons, and nearly two hundred thousand carpenters. We have fourteen thousand bakers to make our bread ; twenty four thousand lawyers to set us by the ears; forty thousand doctors to "kill or cure," and fiftcen hundred editors to keep this motiey mass in order by the power of public opinion controlled and manufactured through the press.

RETURN OF MR. ALLIBONE .- Thomas Allibone, late President of the Bank of Pennsyl-
