PUTNAM'S MONTHLY, COPIES THE FIRST MONTH !

The Great Labrary Offer.-Agents Getting Rich . The union of EMERSON'S MAGAZINE and PUTNAM'S MONTHLY has given to the consolidated work a circulation second to but one similar ably unrivalled by any other magazine in the world. During the first month, the sale in the trade and demand from subscribers exceeded 90,000 co-and the beauty and profuseness of their pictorial illustrations, any magazine ever before issued from the American press. Encouraged by these evidences of favor, the publishers have determined to commence the new volume in January with still additional attractions, and to offer such inducements to subscribers as cannot fail to place it, in circulation, at the head of American magazines.

"THE LAST SUPPER, and will present a copy of it to every three-dollar subscriber for the year 1858. It was engraved at a cost of over $5,000, by the late celebrated A. L. Dick, from the original of Raphael Morghen, after Leonardo Da Vinci, and is the largest steel-plate engraving ever executed in this country, being three times the size of the ordinary $3 engravings at $10, and it was the intention of the artist that none of the engravings should ever be offered for a less sum than $5, being richly worth that amount. Thus every three-dollar subscriber will receive the Magazine one year-cheap at $3-and this splendid engraving, richly worth $5; thus get-

We shall commence striking off the engravings immediately, yet it can hardly be expected that impressions of so large a plate can be taken as fast as they will be called for by subscribers. We shall, therefore, furnish them in the order in which sub-scriptions are received Those who desire to obtain their engravings early, and from the first im-pressions, should send in their subscriptions without delay The engraving can be sent on rollers. mail, or in any other manner, as subscribers shall order.

Counon Schools .- An exchange gives the following hints on the duties of parents to schools which will be found worthy of attention :

1. Parents should send their children to school constantly and seasonably.

2. They should see that they are decently clothed, and cleanly in their persons.

3. They should encourage them to respect and obey the rules and requirements of the school.

4. And they should encourage them to be orderly in their deportment and studiously to regard right.

5. They should encourage them to be studious, by manifesting an interest in their lessons. 6. They should have regard for the character of the Books their children read, and see that they read understandingly.

7. They should cultivate in their children habits of true politeness and courtesy.

8. Besides visiting the school, and co-operating and sympathising with the teacher, they can do much for its improvement and success, by manifesting at all proper times and in all proper places an interest in its welfare, and a deep solicitude for its rsputation, by speaking well of the teacher and of his judicious plans; by palliating or excusing his faults or failings, (of which every teacher must be expected to have some,) and inducing his neighbors to 1850 Bell, visit the school and take an interest in its exercises, thus showing to their children in the most convincing manner, that their present employment is an important one, and that the duties of school are not to be regarded as of 1853 Decatur, little consequence.

Inclose $3 to the publishers and you will com mence receiving the Magazine by return mail You will also receive with the first copy a numbered subscription receipt entitling you to the En-graving of "THE LAST SUPPER," and a chance o draw one of these "Three Thousand Prizes."

REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD SERSCRIRE FOR EMERSON'S MAGAZINE FOR 1858. First : Because its literary contents will, during the year, embrace contributions from over one hundred different writers and thinkers, numbering among them the most distinguished of American authors.

Second : Because its editorial departments. "Our Studio." "OurWindow," and "Our Olio," will each be conducted by an able edisor-and it will sur pass, in the variety and richness of its editorial contents, any other magazine.

Third : Because it will contain during the year, nearly six thousand original pictorial illustrations from designs by the first American artists.

Fourth : Because for the sum of $3 you will re-ceive this splendid monthly, more richly worth that sum than any other magazine, and the superb engraving of "The Last Supper," worth S5. Fifth : Because you will very likely draw ono of the three thousand prizes to be distributed on the 25th day of December, 1858-perhaps one that is worth One Thousand Dollars.

Notwithstanding that these extraordinary in-ducements can hardly fail to accomplish the ob-jects of the publishers without further efforts, yet they have determined to continue through the year
