

CLEARFIELD, PA., FEB. 3, 1858.

Wz are under renewed obligations to Hon. J. L. Gillis, our member of Congress, and to Messrs. Souther, Wilcox and Brady of the State Legislature, for documents.

UTAH EXPEDITION .- Advices from the Utah Expedition to the 14th ult. have been received. The troops were engaged making themselves comfortable for the winter, and were enjoying good health. Capt. Marcy, who had been sent to New Mexico for salt, had not yet returned. There was, however, a supply of salt on the way from Fort Laramie. Grass and buffalo were plenty, and there was no snow to the east of Fort Laramie.

THE LECOMPTON CONSTITUTION reached Washington on the 30th. It was to have been presented to Congress on Monday. The President has re-written his message, in a milder tone. He is, however, determined to force the Lecompton Constitution through Congress. "He is said to have received a letter from Gov. Denver declaring if it is forced on Kansas, civil war is mevitable. Some of the Southern men are also beginning to be alarmed.

GEN. SCOTT, it seems, has definitely relinquished going to California. The intention of so doing was predicated on the expectation of Congress authorizing the increase of the regiments asked for by the President, so that the force on the Atlantic might be transferred to the Pacific, and their place filled by the new levies. The opposition manifested last week in both Houses of Congress, to the bill to increase the army, led to the abandonment of the policy.

KANSAS .- The returns of the election held on the 4th January, are correct as published last week. The Free State men had elected their State officers and a large majority of the Legislature. Regent Calhoun had, however, determined to thwart the popular will, if possible. To do this he threatened to throw out all the returns made to Gov. Denver, which would elect the pro-slavery State officers and give their party the preponderance in the Le- ington, Pa., has received the cognomen of Calhoun has agreed to give conditional certificates, and this is considered as virtually surrendering the whole result in favor of the Free State party. MEXICO .- This country is again in a state of internal convulsion. Advices from the City of Mexico to the 18th January state that the capitol had been bombarded by the opponents of Comonfort, and a desperate conflict, which the pro-slavery ticket. Finding that more continued for several days, resulted in the loss of over one hundred lives. It is but a short time since Comonfort, by a coup d' etal, had himself declared Dictator. For a brief the time the returns reached Lecompton the period, success appeared to attend him. Now everybody seems turned against him, even those who were prominent in raising him to the dictatorship, and his official career will doubtless soon be cut short. Santa Anna, it appears, is at the bottom of the present movement against Comonfort. A DANGEROUS CHAP .- Mr. Davis, of Mississippi, made a speech a few days since in the cure "Apprehenderson." Having thus done lower House of Congress, in which he threatened, if the North didn't behave themselves, that the South would march an army right straight up amongst us, with the sword in one hand and the Bible in the other, scattering desolation in their path. What the fellow wants with a Bible in such a crusade is difficult to conjecture, as it doesn't exactly ap- as "Apprehenderson."-Pittsburgh Gazette. prove of proceedings of the sort he threatens to indulge in, unless, as a cotemporary suggests, to enable him to cite passages to justify the making slaves of such northern enemies tics relative to the business. Virginia has not as might fall into his hands. Be this as it may, we advise everybody to keep a sharp look out for the coming of this valiant knight of niggerdom, as such a dangerous chap is doubtless not to be fooled with. forts are being made for the repeal of our present license laws. Petitions, numerously signed, have already been presented to the Legislature, and others are in circulation for signature. The grounds upon which a repeal is asked are to be found in some remarks contained in the State Treasurer's Report. He says, "large amounts of revenue are lost to the Bedford each own ten sail at least of large Treasury by the refusal of persons to apply for tavern licenses, who prefer to sell without a license rather than pay a tax which does not annually to Fairhaven ; 4,000,000 to New York fully protect them against competition from those who disregard the law. It has been estimated that there are three unlicensed taverns of the other cities of the Commonwealth." gate of 18,000,000 busheis. The State Treasurer thinks justice requires that something should be done to protect those who pay the tax assessed upon their business, and suggests that the law should be so changed as to have a license for a tavern, restaurant or beer house, upon paying the amount which may be assessed upon the house.

HARRISBURG CORRESPONDENCE. * HARRISBURG, Jan. 28, 1858.

EDIFOR OF RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL :-- I have waited in vain for the purpose of writing something to your valuable paper, which would be of interest to your readers. As yet nothing of importance has transpired at the seat of Government that could be of the least moment to any person. It has been remarked by the members and those who assemble here each winter, that there has been no session for a long time at which so little legislation would be required as at the present. The attendance nois dissented from the report, and Mr. Foot upon the "third House" is very meagre, which indicates a very "small run of shad" this flood. The new administration is fully organized, and has yet run against no snags, unless it snagged in the start upon the Lecompton issue, with the Administration at Washington. Many are of the opinion that the Inaugural Address would not go down well with the President. For my part, I do not think it has convulsed the National elements a great deal, or that it amounted to any particular sum. It is the intention of the President to force Lecompton upon the country-and he has a pertect right to do so, and then stand from under. There is no doubt but some members of Congress from this State will have the foolhardiness to vote for it, well knowing that after the repeal of the Missouri Compromise the people will stand anything. The present Administration are determined to be as near the Pierce Administration as they can in iniquity, and they are afraid that another chance may not present itself. The nigger is very sick, and I down him in some way, and then "bress de Lord, we'll know who wears de wool." The idea of getting up such a muss, just because one territory wants to keep slavery in its borders, is very absurd, and every Democrat who cannot go with the party, (if he knows which way the party is,) should not have a single fish, much more a loaf. The people of the Territory asking to vote upon a Constitution after being formed by a convention, is too simple a request to listen to. What is a convention for, if it is not to make a constitution? and when it is made, what other one is there to be voted upon except that one? No State can have two-and the only way is to take the one the convention makes-if there is no way to prevent it ! Can you suggest any way to get the people out of this dilemma ? If you can do so and be a benefactor to your country ; acknowledge that you have been wrong in supposing the people of a State or Territory have some rights, and agree with the President that they have none, then you may get a good office, after one week or so from making the Committee rose and the House adjourned. declaration. OLDTOWN.

"APPREHENDERSON."-The people of Kansas have a famous facility of giving names. They have dubbed James Buchanan, "Muggins," and "Specky" Henderson, late of Washgislature. Later advices, however, state that "Appre-henderson," from the fact of his be- Davis' bill cannot be passed without serious ginning every speech he made by squeaking through his nose : "Mr. President, I apprehend, &c." He has at last been "apprehended" indeed, and is now in the hands of the Philistines. He was seized on account of frauds committed by him on the elective franchise. It seems that he was sent by the regent Calhoun to fetch the vote of the Kaw Reserve (where there are no voters by the way) to Lecompton. Thirty men had been at the Kaw Reserve, however, from Westport, and voted votes would be needed, the Border Ruffians sent Jack Henderson down for the returns. Jack accordingly went after them, and, although he started with only thirty votes, by vote stood at upward of five hundred-a number sufficient to save the "Democracy" of Leavenworth county and the country generally-the increase having been made, as the lawyers would say, in transitu. The Free State men of Leavenworth hunted up the judges of election at the Delaware crossing, got sundry affidavits from them to the effect that 30 votes only were cast, and that the returns showed said fact; and, having secured these preliminaries, the next thing was to sehis duty, our hero started for Washington, but was spirited from the stage coach soon after he set out and is now, or was at latest dates, in durance vile at Lawrence. For his services in securing the Lecompton swindle just as it is, he has obtained the post of mail-route agent for Kansas. Besides a good salary, this position affords a fine opportunity for speculation to a man of such unmistakable genius THE OYSTER BUSINESS .- The extent of the oyster trade is not generally known. The Norfolk Argus gives some interesting statisless than 2,000 square miles or 1,280,000 acres of oyster beds. At the lowest estimate twenty millfons of bushels are taken every year from the rocks and beds, eighteen millions of which are carried beyond the boundaries of the State. It is known that 275 vessels, varying in capacity from 400 to 4,000 bushels each, REPEAL OF THE LICENSE LAW .- Active ef- and employing 725 men, are employed in the oyster trade of Baltimore. In Fairhaven 80 vessels, varying in capacity from 2.000 to 7,000 bushels, were owned in 1856, which were exclusively employed in this trade, besides a large number which were chartered by its inhabitants during the busy season. Six years ago New York City had 60 yessels in the trade. Boston is known to have at least 40 vessels. Providence, New London, Bridgeport and New vessels, and other smaller vessels, and Long Islands and elsewhere own many others. It is estimated that 4,060,000 bushels are carried city and vicinity ; 2,000,000 to Boston ; 2.000,-000 to Philadelphia; 2,000,000 (not including those from the Maryland beds) to Baltimore ; 3.000.000 to Providence, Bridgeport, New and eating houses in Philadelphia to one which London, New Bedford and elsewhere, and is licensed, and the same may be said of some 1,000,000 to the South, making a grand aggre-DON'T KNOW WHO THEY BELONG TO .- One of our exchanges thus "hits" off those Locofoco editors who are halting between Douglas and and Green ; after which the Senate adjourned Buchanan, unable to make up their minds to Monday. The House was in Committee of where they belong :- "A fine looking darkey to allow any person of good moral character | was sauntering about, when a gentleman asked whose property he was? "Well," said he, "I don't know; Captain B. owned me this morning, but he has been playing euchre all day, and I don't know who I belong to now." So Buchanan and Douglas have been playing a game, and until it is ascertained who wins some of the Locotoco editors of Pennsylvania "don't know who they belong to," yet !

THIRTY-FIFTH CONGRESS.

JANUARY 25 .- In the Senate Mr. Mason of Virginia, from the Committee on Foreign Relations, presented a report on Central American affairs, in which he expressed his approval of the present Neutrality laws, but recommended the passage of a bill containing further provisions for bringing offenders to justice. The report embraces resolutions to the effect that the law arms the President with sufficient power to act upon the high seas, and that the seizure of William Walker, although technically illegal, calls for no further censure than such as may prevent it from being hereafter drawn into precedent. Mr. Douglas of Illiof Vermont from so much of it as imputed blame to Commodore Paulding. The subject was made the special order for February 9. Mr. Davis of Miss. pressed the consideration of his bill, providing for the increase of the Army, but after some discussion between him and Mr. Fessenden of Maine, the matter was postponed until to-morrow. Mr. Harlan of Iowa made a speech upon Kansas affairs. Skirmishing with respect to charge of fraud in Kansas followed between Messrs. Polk of Mo., Stuart of Mich., Wilson of Mass., and Davis of Miss., after which on motion of Mr. Brown of Miss., who said that on Friday the Lecompton Constitution would be submitted to Congress, the subject was postponed till that day, and the Senate adjourned. In the House, the Speaker appointed the following Select-Committee on so much of the President's Message as relates to and recommends National aid to the construction of a Railroed from the Atlantic States to those bordering on the Pacific :-Messrs. John S. Phelps, Mo.; Israel Wash-burn, Jr., Me.; Sam. R. Curtis, Iowa; W. L. Underwood, Ky.; J. A. Gilmer, N. C.; J. F. Farnsworth, Ill.; D. W. G. Leach, Mich.; C. L. Scott, Cal. ; G. W. Jones, Tenn. ; J. S. Millson, Va.; Erastus Corning, N. Y.; W. S. Groesbeck, Ohio; O. R. Singleton, Miss.; do hope that the Lecompton dose can be got H. M. Phillips, Pa.; Guy M. Brya, Texas Messrs. Washburn, Curtis, Farnsworth and Leach are Republicans; Messrs. Underwood and Gilmer, Americans; the residue (nine) are Administration men. Locally, it is not unfairly constituted, and we believe a fair majority of its members are favorable to the great enterprise of the age. The only rock on which it can now be lost is that of sectional covetonsness; and we will hope that some plan may be devised which will so provide that the road will be constructed on whichever route will cost least to the Government. If the friends of the Southern route will give security for its construction at less cost to the Treasury than will be required on the Middle or Northern route, to the South let it go. The House spent the day in Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union upon the Invalid Pension bill. Mr. Gartrell of Georgia took the opportunity to defend Slavery, as being "strictly in accordance with right, the sternest dictates of humanity, and the Word of God." Mr. Washburn of Wisconsin criticised the reasons by which the Administration sought to account for the financial revulsion. and Mr. Granger of New-York exposed its want of ecofiomy and good judgment. Mr. Bingham of Ohio made a speech of some length upon Kansas aflairs, after which the

THE RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL.

PREPARED FOR THE "RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL." CENTRE COUNTY .- Capt. Cummings of the Pennsylvania Hotel in Bellefonte, states that one day last week in his absence, a lady and her son, residents of Jersey Shore, stopped at his house over night, on their return from a visit to the West-that their baggage, consisting of two trunks, and a shot-gun belonging to the boy, were left in the hall dur-ing the night. Next morning the gun was missing. Mr. Cummings on his return home accosted a fellow that was seen at his house late on that evening, (and without the slightest evidence of his guilt,) told him if he did not return the stolen gun by 10 o'clock the next morning, that he would institute a suit against him immediately. He was saved the trouble, however, as the gun was on hand at the appointed time. Mr. C. deserves a great deal of praise for his promptness in ferreting out the rascal. The new PresbyterianChurch at Pine Grove Mills, will be dedicated on Sabbath, the 14th of February. Services commencing at 11 o'clock. Dr. McKinney of Pittsburg, and Dr. Junkin of Hollidaysburg have promised to be present; and Dr. Plumer of the Western Theological Seminary, and others are expected. Preaching will commence on the Friday evening preceding. . . . Week before last Joseph Galbraith Jr. of Eagleville, was killed by means of a log falling on him, crushing one side of his skull. He was a steady industrions lad of some 18 or 19 years of age.

CRAWFORD COUNTY .- On the evening of the 10th inst., a stranger called at the house of L. D. Mann, Steuben township, and asked if he was at home ; being told that he was not, but was shortly expected, he declined a proffered seat : and advanced toward the stove. Mrs. Mann seated herself with her back toward the stranger, when she was seized and a bandage drawn across her eyes. She screamed so as to be heard by a neighbor, six rods distant, when a plaster was placed upon her mouth. She lost all consciousness, remembering nothing more. Mr. Mann coming home shortly afterwards found her under the bed, her hands tied behind her, and in an apparently dying condition. Procuring assistance she was taken from under the bed, the plaster removed from her mouth, and efforts made to resuscitate her. which proving successful, she gave the above statement of the transaction. A sealed envelope found upon the table, addressed to Mr. Mann contained a piece of paper upon which was written :- "Your wife is dead, and near her grave and out of the way." The whole affair is enveloped in mystery. INDIANA COUNTY .- A two-horse team, onging to a Mr. Niller near Indiana Borough, frightened at the locomotive on the Railroad and ran away, on the 21st. A little lad, nine or ten years of age, was on the wagon at the time. The horses ran through an alley and knocked one of the wheels off the wagon; next they ran the wagon against the corner of a slable and jerked the fore carriage loose. The boy still held on to the lines, but was finally thrown off, without receiving any serious injury. His escape was miraculous. . . . A revival has been in progress in the Methodist church in Indiana borough for a couple weeks, and quite a number of new converts have been made. Frederick Hart of Indiana, was put to jail for abusing his wife. Fred had been drinking too freely.

BLAIR COUSTY .- On Friday the 22d, the team of Col. W. W. Jackson, engaged in ink through Gaysport, were

ING OVER EIGHTFEN MONTHS WITHOUT EATING on DRINKING .- Relative to the case of the woman Mrs. Hayes, of the town of Day, Saratoga county, New York, of whom it is said she has lived now nineteen months without eating a morsel of food, and whose death was recently announced in one of the papers of Albany, the Sandy Hill Herald has the following : -"Mrs. Hayes is not dead but remains in the condition in which she has been for many months past. Incredible as it may seem, there is little, if any doubt, but that this woman has lived for more than eighteen months without eating or drinking. We have not alluded to the case before for the reason of its apparent incredibility; but scientific gentlemen, together with hundreds of others, after the closest scrutiny, have become convinced that there is no deception practiced, and that the woman actually subsists without food or water. In order to test the matter, a gentleman took the woman to his residence, and parties watched her day and night for one month, who say that she neither ate nor drank during that time, and that on food being introduced into the room, concealed in the pockets of disinterested persons, the woman would immediately go into horrible convulsions. The same effect was produced by persons taking tobacco, or any kind of ardent spirits where she was. The woman is reduced to a perfect skeleton, so much so that by placing the hand upon the abdomen the back-bone can be distinctly felt. We are aware that there are instances on record somewhat akin to this, which turned out to be frauds; but if this is a deception, it has been so adroitly practiced that every one who has examined it has been duped. Besides, there is no motive for the deception, and it is quite incredible that any person would suffer to the extent that this woman has for the sole purpose of playing upon the credulity of the

So IT SHALL BE .- "History is Philosopy teaching by example," and in a certain fact or two of recent history there is food for solemn reflection, which we commend to the attention of those Northern members of Congress who purpose to vote for the acceptance of the Lecompton Constitution. The bit of history we refer to is this. Of the THIRTEEN Northern members of the Senate who voted for the Kansas Nebraska Bill three years ago but FOUR now have seals in that body. These four are Senator Stuart of Michigan, Senator Jones of Iowa, Senator Douglas of Illinois, and Senator Thompson of New Jersey. The only reason public. Viewed in any light, the subject is worthy of the attention of the scientific and why the three first of these have not lost their seats is simply because their terms have not expired, and there has been no opportunity to elect other men. Of the FORTY-TWO members of the House from the Northern States who voted for this Bill, but THREE are members of the present House. These are J. Glancy Jones and T. B. Florence of Pennsylvania, and W. A. English of Indiana. Upon all the other thirtynine, the waters of political oblivion have closed forever .- N. Y. Courier & Enquirer.

crease proposed. It is plain that Mr. Jeff. modification. No question was taken. In the House, the Printing Deficiency bill was taken up, and Mr. Clark B. Cochrane of New York made a spirited speech against the Lecompton Swindle. Keitt of S. C. questioned him to little purpose. Clingman of N.C. tried but failed to get in an extreme "Manifest Destiny" resolve with regard to Central America. Morris of Ill. had similar luck with one proposing to negotiate with the Mormons. Florence of Pa. ditto with a proposition to adjourn on the 7th of June. Adjourned.

JANUARY. 27 .- In the Senate, a resolution authorizing a Commission to examine into the difficuties with Utah before resorting to force, was introduced by Mr. Wilson of Massachucetts, and referred to the Committee on Military Aflairs. Mr. Pugh introduced the joint resolutions of the Legislature of Ohio. After they had been read, Mr. Wade made a characteristic speech, in which he stigmatized them as disreputable, in that instead of speaking out boldly, as became the Legislature of a sovereign State, they indorsed the Administration in one breath, while opposing its only important measure in another. Mr. Wade would have the people of Kansas, in case the Lecompton Constitution was accepted by Congress, take up the argument of the bayonet where their fathers left it. A discussion ensued upon the Army bill of Mr. Jefferson Davis (a substitute introduced by Mr. Gwin having been rejected), in which Messrs. Bell. Iverson and Chandler took part. Mr. Iverson alliteratively characterized Lawrence, Kansas, as a "sinful place of folly, filth and falsehood." The House, after the adoption of a resolution calling for information respecting the Utah expedition, went into Committee of the Whole on the Printing Deficientcy bill .-Messrs. Davis of Miss., Leach, Avery, and Thompson of New York spoke on Utah, Kansas, and so forth, and Mr. Giddings asked some pertinent questions. When the Committee had risen, reports from the Committee on Elections, in regard to the introduction of testimony in the Ohio contested case, were made. JANUARY 28 .- In the Senate an amendment to Mr. Davis' Pacific Railroad bill, providing for a Northern route, was introduced. A bill prohibiting the issue of bank notes within the District of Columbia, or the circulation there of notes issued elsewhere, of a less denomination than $50, was reported from the select committee on the subject; and a resolution instructing the committee on Commerce to inquire into the expediency of repealing the law creating the Light-house Board, was adopted. Mr. Hale vindicated the figures in his speech on the Army bill against the charges of The Union. Mr. Toombs of Georgia took strong grounds against the measure. To whip the Indians at any time during the last twenty-five years, 2,000 troops would have been amply sufficient ; to whip Brigham Young 3,000 troops were enough. As for Kansas, "the experience of forty centuries had shown that order maintained by regular troops was despotism," and peace so obtained "the cemetry of liberty." He would not vote for a single soldier to maintain peace in Kansas. The subject was postponed till Feb. 9. The special order, authorizing the presentation of a medal to Commodore Paulding, was then discussed by Messrs. Pearce, Slidell, Stuart, Fessenden the whole on the Printing Deficiency bill during the whole session. Messrs. Shaw of Illinois, Hickman of Pennsylvania, both Democrats, and Sherman (of Ohio, we presume,) pronounced against the Kansas usurpation, and Mr. Comins of Massachusetts against the financial policy of the Administration.

JANUARY 29 .- The Senate was not in session. The House was occupied in the discussion of the Printing Deficiency Bill, to cover liabilities incurred by the last two Congresses. Mr. the position taken by the Maryland Governor Burnett moved to amend the bill by making is a signal evidence of the reaction which is SINGLE, and Heavy Double Harness, for sale at the appropriation $420,000 in place of $790,000. A little daughter of Mr. A. L. Holliday, of Hollidaysburg, some 4 years of age, fell off a chair whilst playing one day last week, and broke her arm between the elbow and wrist. It was set and put in splints by Dr.Coffey, and will scon be whole again. . . . Robert Crawford, of Sinking Valley, whilst bringing a load of grain from the Valley to Altoona on the 18th ult., had a couple of his ribs broken and was otherwise severely injured by his saddle-horse falling upon him as he was passing through Black's Gap.

WESTMORELAND COUNTY .- On the 15th ult. near Irwin's station on the Penn'a Railroad, at Hays, Warden & Co's coal works, a man named Joseph Boyce, entered the coal pit, out of curiosity, and while in a large mass of slate fell upon him, which crushed both his thighs, fractured his skull, besides injuring him internally. . . . At Livermore, a short time since. two boys quarrelled, when one named Pierce, threw a stick 16 inches long, at the other, named Quinly, striking him on the temple, inflicting apparently but a slight wound. Inflamation ensued, terminating in lock-jaw, and finally in death. . . . An Encysted tumor, of 20 years standing, was extracted from the arm of John McGuire, of Derry tp. He is doing well. On the 25th ult., an insane Irishman killed a little child in the poor house.

BERKS COUNTY .- On the 17th ult., the house of J. Geiger, jr., of Robeson tp., was entered while the family were at church, and robbed of a pair of shoes, several pounds of sausages, a quantity of ground coffee, and other household articles. It is supposed that the robbery was committed by a person in woman's clothes, evidently a man disguised, who was seen passing along the road about the time it happened. ... In connection with the blossoming of the dandelions, the trees in Reading borough are budding, indicating a milder winter than has been experienced for many years.

CAMBRIA COUNTY .- In Oct. 1856, an Irishman, Nicholas Morehead, was fatally shot in Johnstown, without any one knowing who did it. On Friday last a week, a woman made information relative to the affair, charging Wm. Harris with being the murderer, and also implicated Robert Williams. They are in the Ebensburg jail awaiting trial. . . . Two watches were recently stolen from houses in Johnstown-one from David Hite's house, the other out of the shop of John Leitenbarger. . . . The farmers were busy plowing in different sections of the county.

CLINTON COUNTY .- Mr. Harter, a citizen of Flemington, who was engaged in burning lime, lost his life in a mysterious and sudden manner, on Wednesday afternoon, the 20th January. He was last seen standing with another man near the kiln. Soon after they were both missed, and upon search being made, Harten was found dead in the kiln, and the other person nearly so. . . . In consequence of the mild weather, the farmers were busy plowing.

MERCER COUNTY .- On Saturday, 23d ult., as Mr. Shalk, who lives a quarter of a mile from Mercer, was cutting timber, a limb of a falling tree struck his son, aged about twelve years, killing him instantly. On the same day, a lad about fifteen years of age, had his arm shattered by the accidental discharge of a fowling piece.

the Missouri Compromise in his recent Message. This, we believe, is the first instance of a Southern Governor's taking grounds against the unfortunate Nebraska swindle. Unfortunate emphatically to those whom it was designed to benefit. Every day increases the conviction that the South is to be the greatest sufferer from that most unwise measure ; and
