▲ Good EDUCATION .- There is much good sense in the article quoted below which we find without credit in one of our exchanges. The conversations of adults in the presence of children has much influence upon the latter In school, sometimes exercising a most baneful and destructive influence. We often hear adults boasting of certain smart mischievous acts of their school days, in the presence of children, who are apt to take it for granted that it is something worthy to be boasted of. For the most part these smart things are coined fabrication-not a word of truth in themyet they may influence the child hearing them to a course of action which will do a life-iong injury. Such follies should be corrected, and every sensible person should rebuke them whenever opportunity offers. But read the

"Parents generally are desirous of securing for their children what they call a "good education." This is a commendable manifestation of parental effection. It still would be more so, however, if the motives urging them to provide a good education for their children were somewhat more elevated than they usually are. A good education is too often sought, merely or chiefly as a stepping-stone to wealth or rank, or respectability in the world. There are considerations rendering a good education desirable, of a much higher and more commendable nature than this. Need we name them? For the the present we will leave them to be presented by the conscience and good sense of our readers, while we proceed to say that which we intend to say.

It is this: Parents, in desiring a good education for their children too commonly indulge in a very narrow and inadequate conception of what constitutes a really valuable or good education, and also of what influence a child must be brought under in order to secure it. Do not too many regard a good school, a teacher well versed in the usual branches and apt to teach, with approved text books, about all that is necessary in order to secure the good education which they contemplate for their children? Is it not too generally and too much forgotten, that every conversation which they hear from the lips of their parents and every action of their lives, which manifests either a low or lofty character, either worthy or unworthy principles, are a part of the education, good or bad, of their children? Is it not too generally forgotten that every word and every deed of the companions and associates of your children has something to do in making their education, either good or bad? Is it not generally forgotton that the temper, the taste, the habits of their parents, and, indeed, of all with whom they come in contact, have a powerful influence in making the education of children, either good or bad, according as these are of a happy or unhappy character? Let our children see their parents, and all received to their intimacy, living for high, noble, Heaven-approved ends and objects-such appearing plainly in all conversation and conduct as the ruling purpose of life-and they will then be receiving what constitutes the most essential part of what may truly be called a good EDUCATION."

TEACHING SCHOOL UNDER DIFFICULTIES .- A correspondent of The Boston Traveller, writing from Franklin, Mass., relates the following:

"One of the district schools has recently been the scene of a singular disturbance. The teacher undertook to punish a disobedient girl about fifteen years of age, when she seized him by the hair of the head and a contest ensued. She snatched away one rod from him and broke it up, but he was fortunately supplied with another, and with this he succeeded in punishing her severely. Judging from appearances that she might dodge out of the door when his back was turned, he turned the key thereof. A brother of the unruly girl had run ont while the whipping was going on, and told his mother that the teacher was killing his sister; whereupon she started off for the school-house. She arrived there just as the key was turned, and very unceremoniously went through the door, without asking to have it unlocked. She clenched the teacher instanter who was as much astonished at her unexpected advent and attack as he would have been if a tiger had pounced upon him. He kept her at arm's length, however, until they came to terms. FANCY ARTICLES AND CONFECTIONARIES. The woman subsequently made the following expression, in substance, "If I had not driven the breath out of my own body running a half mile, I should have knocked the breath out of his."

NRIVALLED ATTRACTIONS! EMERSON'S MAGAZINE PUTNAM'S MONTHLY. TWO GREAT MAGAZINES IN ONE.

COPIES THE FIRST MONTH !!! MAGNIFICENT PROGRAMME FOR 1858 $20,000 IN SPLENDID WORKS OF ART.

FIVE-DOLLAR ENGRAVING TO EVERY SUBSCIBER. The Great Labrary Offer .- Agents Getting Rich . The union of EMERSON'S MAGAZINE and PUTNAM'S MONTHLY has given to the consoli-dated work a circulation second to but one similar publication in the country, and has secured for it a combination of literary and artistic talent probably unrivalled by any other magazine in the world. During the first month, the sale in the trade and demand from subscribers exceeded 90,000 copies, and the numbers already issued of the consolidated work are universally conceded to have surpassed, in the richness of their literary contents, and the beauty and profuseness of their pictorial illustrations, any magazine ever before issued from the American press. Encouraged by these eviden-ces of favor, the publishers have determined to commence the new volume in January with still additional attractions, and to offer such inducements to subscribers as cannot fail to place it, in circulation, at the head of American magazines. With this view they now announce the following splendid programme. They have purchased that superb and costly steel-plate engraving,

"THE LAST SUPPER, and will present a copy of it to every three-dollar subscriber for the year 1858. It was engraved at a cost of over $6,000, by the late celebrated A. L. Dick, from the original of Raphael Morghen, after Leonardo Da Vinci, and is the largest steel-plate engraving ever executed in this country, being three times the size of the ordinary $3 engravings.

The first impressions of this engraving are held at $10, and it was the intention of the artist that none of the engravings should ever be offered for a less sum than $5, being richly worth that amount. Thus every three-dollar subscriber will receive the Magazine one year—cheap at $3—and this splendid engraving, richly worth $5; thus get-ting for $3 the value of Eight dollars. We shall commence striking off the engravings mmediately, yet it can hardly be expected that impressions of so large a plate can be taken as fast as they will be called for by subscribers. We shall, therefore, furnish them in the order in which sub-scriptions are received Those who desire to obtain their engravings early, and from the first im-pressions, should send in their subscriptions without delay The engraving can be sent on rollers. by mail, or in any other manner, as subscribers shall order

$20,000 IN WORKS OF ART.

In addition to the superb engraving of "THE LAST SUPPER," which will be presented so every three-dollar subscriber for 1858, the publishers have completed arrangemente for the distribution, on the 25th day of December. 1858, of a series of splendid works of art, consisting of one hundred rich and rare Old Paintings, valued at from $10 to $1,000 each. Also, 2,000 magnificent Steel-plate Engravings, worth from $3 to $5 each. and 1,000 choice Holiday Books, worth from SI to S5 each making, in all, over THREE THOUSAND GIFTS worth TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS

Inclose $3 to the publishers and you will comnence receiving the Magazine by return mail. You will also receive with the first copy a num bered subscription receipt entitling you to the En-graving of "THE LAST SUPPER," and a chance to draw one of these "Three Thousand Prizes.

REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD SEBSCRIBE FOR EMERSON'S MAGAZINE FOR 1858. First: Because its literary contents will, during the year, embrace contributions from over one hundred different writers and thinkers, nun bering among them the most distinguished of A merican authors.

Second : Because its editorial departments, "Our Studio," "OurWindow," and "Our Olio," will each be conducted by an able edisor-and it will sur pass, in the variety and richness of its editorial ontents, any other magazine.

Because it will contain during the year nearly six thousand original pictorial illustration from designs by the first American artists. Fourth: Because for the sum of $3 you will re-ceive this splendid monthly, more richly worth that sum than any other magazine, and the superb engraving of "The Last Supper," worth $5.

Fifth: Because you will very likely draw one of the three thousand prizes to be distributed on the 25th day of December, 1858-perhaps one that is worth One Thousand Dollars. Notwithstanding that these extraordinary in ducements can hardly fail to accomplish the obects of the publishers without further efforts, yet they have determined to continue through the year THE GREAT LIBRARY OFFER. To any person who will get up a club of twenty-four subscribers, either at one or more post-offices we will present a splendid Library, consisting of over Forty Large Bound Volumes, embracing the most popular works in the market The elub may be formed at the club price, $2 a year, without the engraving, or at the full price, $3, with the engra-ving of The Last Supper to each subscriber. List and description of the Library, and specimen copy of the magazine, will be forwarded on receipt of 25 cents. Over 200 Libraries, or 8,000 volumes, have already been distributed in accordance with office in the country. AGENTS GETTING RICH. The success which our agents are meeting with is almost astonishing. Among the many evidences of this fact, we are permitted to publish the

this offer, and we should be glad of an opportuni-
