THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., MARCH. 3, 1858.

LEVYING BUILDING TAX .- The following letters, in relation to a decision made recently in our County court, in which Judge Burnside held that School Directors had no authority under the law to levy a special tax for building purposes, will be read with interest:

Bellefonte, 12. Feb., 1858. Chas. Cadwalader, Esq :- Dear Sir : I had repeatedly instructed Boards of School Directors to collect a building tax, in addition to the school tax, and regarded that as the law, while Superintendent of Common Schools.

I understand the present Superintendent places the same construction on the law, and I have enclosed him your letter. I never doubted that such was the reasonable construction of the school law, and I do not think you should acquiesce in the decision of the Court. Yours, - A. G. CURTIN.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMON SCHOOLS, !

Harrisburg, Feb. 15, 1858. Dear Sir :- Your letter of the 2nd inst. to Col. Curtin, has been forwarded by him to this Department. Judge Burnside's decision against the right of townships to levy building tax for school houses is manifestly erroneous, and not sustained by the letter, objects and spirit of the school law. If he refuses to reverse his decision, the only remedy will be an appeal to the Supreme Court; and in the meantime the Directors will, of course, be obliged to obey the injunction.

Respectfully, yours, H. C. Hickor, Supt. Com. Sch. To Chas. M. Cadwallader, Esq., Prest. Boggs Sch. Bd., Clearfield Co.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE .- The Union District Teachers' Institute held their regular monthly meeting in this place on last Saturday. The day sessions were taken up with various exercises of a profitable character. The evening session was held in the Court House. A large number of persons were in attendance. Addresses were delivered by W. A. Wallace and H. B. Swoope, Esquires. CURWENSVILLE, Feb. 25th, 1858. Mr. Row-I have taken your paper about ! year, and have become wise enough, by the diffusion of light and knowledge through its columns, therefore I ask for a discontinuance. Enclosed you have 37½ cents, your due for the same. Yours, W. B. THOMAS,

A man growing wise in three months, at a cost of 371 cents! [It ought to be half a dollar when not paid in advance.] At that price, everybody should roll in and take a chance. Who's next?

THE REAL GAME OF CALHOUN .- The Kickspoocorrespondent of the Press, Philadelphia, in his letter of Feb. 9, 1858, says:

"The programme of the Lecomptonites has unwittingly leaked out. It is this: Calhoun has left a man here to issue certificates to the officers elect, who are pro-slavery according to his count, whenever the Constitution passes through Congress, which fact he is to telegraph to his said agent at the earliest opportunity. As soon as the members of the Legislature receive their certificates, they are to meet at Fort Leavenworth, elect Calhoun and Isancs United States Senators, and adjourn sine die. What the State officers are to do we are not informed. The game is a very desperate one, and it is very certain that Calhoun has staked his "bottom dollar" on the result. If the Constitution passes Congress, I know of no two men who would be better entitled to its advantages, or better representatives of the Lecompton party, than the two above named. It is not expected that either of them will ever game thus frandulently begun."

HAVING A FINE TIME OF IT .- Hawes Crowell shipped as steward recently of the brig Helen Jane, on a voyage from Boston, Mass., to Truxillo, Honduras, but on the second day after sailing he disappeared, and was supposed to have fallen overboard. On the brig's arrival at Truxillo the steward made his appearance, when it was found that he had been stowed away in the hold, and had managed to support life in a sumptuous manner. He had been there twenty-two days, and in that time had consumed eight baskets of champagne, six boxes raisins, hams, &c., to the amount of $250. He will be sent to the United States

EXTRAVAGANCE IN WASHINGTON .- At Lady Napier's last ball, the wife of the Count de Sartiges were diamonds to the amount of several thousands of dollars. The lace robes worn by Mrs. Matthews, of Alabama, cost $3-000. Mrs. Gwin, ot California, also wore a robe of Honiton lace, valued, with its decorations, at $2,500. The dress worn by Lady Napier cost nearly the same figures.

Bronchial affections, Coughs, Colds, Pleurisy, Bronchis, Asthma, and all other diseases of the throa and lungs, except Consumption. In this everchanging climate, where coughs and colds so fre-quently end in consumption and death, no family hould be without this CERTAIN CURE.

It would be easy to follow in the wake of the venders of patent medicine, and multiply certificates got up for the occasion, of miraculous cures, but no such adventitious aid is necessary in introducing this preparation to the public.
