RIDING ON THE SNOW. Ye gentlemen and ladies, who live in Southern climes, How little do you think upon the joys of sleighing times. Your summer's hot as Tophet-your winter's soft, you know;

So you never taste the pleasures of riding on the snow.

The bracing winds of winter, you're never made to feel,

When they penetrate the forests, and o'er the meadows steal;

But long and weary lassitude oppress you as you go,

For you're strangers to the pleasures of riding on the snow.

From Summer's flery ordeal, you're glad to find retreat,

While winter brings you nothing else than water, mud or sleet ;

But here, in merry Clearfield, 'tis not precisely so,

For we spend the live-long winter in riding on the snow.

As soon as old king Boreas gets seated on his throne,

Our lads begin to buckle up, and think of leaving home;

But far from being selfish when they design to go,

They always take the ladies when they ride upon the snow.

In spite of wind or weather-regardless of the storm, They swiftly glide o'er hill and vale, and fear no ill or harm ;

Encircled in their buffaloes, defy the winds to blow,

And chatter to the ladies, when they ride upon the snow.

Our youth are true American, by nature or by birth,

And when they go a sleighing they mean to have some mirth :

They take along the fiddler, the fiddle and the bow--

A blythesome time they make of it, when ri ding on the snow.

The frolic is inspiring-old gents get up their back, And pretty dames of ripened years in spirit

do not lack : They muffle up in furs and cloaks, and soon forget their woe, And, Jehu-like, they go it, when they ride upon the snow.

To Curwensville they hie them-on frolic they are bent-And there indulge in all the sports the season can invent; The "Aborgoins" are thunderstruck to see them cut up so,

And vow there's inspiration in this riding on the snow.

'Twas worth a hundred dollars of any human gear, To see these antique juveniles thus biling o'er plete, early and reliable information of all Bank Failures and changes; true descriptions of all counterfeit, altered and spurious bills; genuine with cheer;

INRIVALLED ATTRACTIONS !! EMERSON'S MAGAZINE AND PUTNAM'S MONTHLY,

TWO GREAT MAGAZINES IN ONE. 90,000 COPIES THE FIRST MONTH !!!

MAGNIFICENT PROGRAMME FOR 1858 $20,000 IN SPLENDID WORKS OF ART.

FIVE-DOLLAR ENGRAVING TO EVERY SUBSCIBER. The Great Labrary Offer .- Agents Getting Rich !

The union of EMERSON'S MAGAZINE and PUTNAM'S MONTHLY has given to the consolidated work a circulation second to but one similar publication in the country, and has secured for it combination of literary and artistic talent probably unrivalled by any other magazine in the world. During the first month, the sale in the trade and demand from subscribers exceeded 90,000 copies, and the numbers already issued of the con-solidated work are universally conceded to have surpassed, in the richness of their literary contents, and the beauty and profuseness of their pictorial illustrations, any magazine ever before issued from the American press. Encouraged by these eviden-ces of favor, the publishers have determined to commence the new volume in January with still additional attractions, and to offer such inducements to subscribers as cannot fail to place it, in circulation, at the head of American magazines. With this view they now announce the following splendid programme. They have purchased that superb and costly steel-plate engraving,

"THE LAST SUPPER," and will present a copy of it to every three-dollar subscriber for the year 1858. It was engraved at a cost of over $5,000, by the late celebrated A. L. Dick, from the original of Raphael Morghen, after Leonardo Da Vinci, and is the largest steel-plate engraving ever executed in this country, being three times the size of the ordinary $3 engravings. The first impressions of this engraving are held at $10, and it was the intention of the artist that none of the engravings should ever be offered for a less sum than $5, being richly worth that amount. Thus every three-dollar subscriber will receive the Magazine one year-cheap at $3-and this splendid engraving, richly worth So; thus getting for $3 the value of Eight dollars. We shall commence striking off the engravings 2500 Gold Pens, with silver pencils, 2500 Ladies' Gold Pens, with cases, immediately, yet it can hardly be expected that impressions of so large a plate can be taken as fast as they will be called for by subscribers. We shall, therefore, furnish them in the order in which subscriptions are received Those who desire to obtain their engravings early, and from the first impressions, should send in their subscriptions without delay The engraving can be sent on rollers, by mail, or in any other manner, as subscribers shall order.

In addition to the superb engraving of "THE LAST SUPPER," which will be presented so eve-ry three-dollar subscriber for 1858, the publishers have completed arrangemente for the distribution, on the 25th day of December, 1858, of a series of splendid works of art, consisting of one hundred rich and rare Old Paintings, valued at from $100 to $1,000 each; Also, 2,000 magnificent Steel-plate Engravings, worth from $3 to $5 each, and 1,000 States. choice Holiday Books, worth from S1 to S5 each, making, in all, over THREE THOUSAND GIFTS, worth TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS. Inclose $3 to the publishers and you will com-mence receiving the Magazine by return mail. You will also receive with the first copy a num-bered subscription receipt entitling you to the En-graving of "THE LAST SUPPER," and a chance to draw one of these "Three Thousand Prizes."

LINES ON THE DEATH OF ELLIE GOFF. BY A FRIEND.

The grass will grow on Ellie's grave, The snow will melt away, The early flowers of spring will bloom Beneath the sun's warm ray.

Sad mother, let the warm rays fall, Within thy sorrowing heart ; Look up-the Sun of Righteousness Can heavenly peace impart.

Go wipe the dust from Ellie's chair, And from her little bed :

No dust should rest on Ellie's things, She lies not with the dead.

'Tis true the earthly covering rests, Beneath the grassy sod ; But with a form more glorious, Thy Ellie rose to God.

More beautiful the "beauteous hair," The beaming eye more bright ; For Ellie lives in heaven now-The world of love and light.

The precious one you fondly strove To shield from earthly ill, Hath now an angel-mother's care, But thou art near her still.

The spirit-world is near us now, The veil between is thin : Each tho't, each word, each act of love, Reveals the heaven within.

Then let not night obscure the day, And earth appear less fair, But let thy spirit rise to heaven,

And meet thy Ellie there. Pennsville, Clearfield Co., March 2, 1858.

AUTION .- All persons are hereby cautioned Curvenseille Nor 5 1857 energy calculated Curwensville, Nov. 5, 1857-nov11-tf

REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD SRESCRIES FOR EMERSON'S MAGAZINE FOR 1858. First : Because its literary contents will, during the year, embrade contributions from over one hundred different writers and thinkers, bering among them the most distinguished of American authors.

Second : Because its editorial departments, "Our Studio," "OurWindow," and "Our Olio," will each be conducted by an able edisor—and it will sur pass, in the variety and richness of its editorial contents, any other magazine.

Third : Because it will contain, during the year, nearly six thousand original pictorial illustrations from designs by the first American artists. Fourth : Because for the sum of $3 you will re-ceive this splendid monthly, more richly worth that sum than any other magazine, and the superb engraving of "The Last Supper," worth S5. Fifth: Because you will very likely draw ono of the three thousand prizes to be distributed on the 25th day of December, 1858-perhaps one that is worth One Thousand Dollars. Notwithstanding that these extraordinary inducements can hardly fail to accomplish the objects of the publishers without further efforts, yet they have determined to continue through the year THE GREAT LIBRARY OFFER.

To any person who will get up a club of twenty-four subscribers, either at one or more post-offices, we will present a splendid Library, consisting of over Forty Large Bound Volumes, embracing the most popular works in the market The slub may be formed at the club price, $2 a year, without the engraving, or at the full price, $3, with the engraving of The Last Supper to each subscriber. List and description of the Library, and specimen copy of the magazine, will be forwarded on receipt of 25 cents. Over 200 Libraries, or 8,000 volumes, have already been distributed in accordance with this offer, and we should be glad of an opportunity to furnish a Library to every elergyman. to every school teacher, or to some one at every postoffice in the country. - following:

GENTLEMEN-The following facts in relation to what your Agents are doing in this section, may be of use to some enterprising young man in want of employment. The Rev. John E. Jardon, of this place, has made, since last Christmas, over $4,000 in his agency. Mr. David M. Heath, of Ridgly, $4.000 Mo., your General Agent for Platt county, is making $8 per day on each sub-agent employed by him, and Messrs Weimer & Evans, of Oregon, Mo., your agents for Holt county, are making from $8 to $25 per day, and your humble servant has made. since the 17th day of last January, over $1,700, be-sides paying for 300 acres of land, out of the business, worth over $1,000. You are at liberty to publish this statement, if you like, and to refer to any of the parties named.

DANIEL GREGG, Carrolton, Mo. With such inducements as we offer, anybody can obtain subscribers. We invite every gentleman out of employment, and every lady who desires a pleasant money-making occupation to apply at once for an agency. Applicants should inclose twenty-five cents for a specimen copy of the Mag-azine, which will always be forwarded with answer to application by return mail.

If the number will divide by one hundred, as 700. 800, etc., the holder is entitled to twenty-five volumes as a premium, or a complete set of Dickens

Works. INDUCEMENTS TO CLUBS.

To any Lady or Gentleman who will procure thirty yearly subscribers to "Honschold Words," the publisher will present a beautiful edition of Charles Dickens' works, or, if preferred, a splendid library of twenty-five volumes, to be selected from the catalogue of premium books.

As it may not be convenient to send the whole thirty names at one time, a club book will be opened, a register kept of the names, to which ad-ditions can be made at any time before the close of the volume, and as soon as the number amounts to thirty, the premiums will be carefully boxed, and sent by express or otherwise as ordered.

The volumes commence with the September and March number, but subscriptions may begin with any number desired. Write the name of Post Office, County, and State, plainly. All orders must be addressed to JOHN JANSEN, Publisher, Oct29 126 Nassau street, New York.

THE NEW-YORK STEAM SAW-MILL AND MACHINE COMPANY .- CAPITAL 5250.000-This company has been organized with the above capital for the purpose of supplying the demand for the Combination PORTABLE STEAM SAW-MILL, and other Improved Mr chinery. They have purchased the entire machine-ry business heretofore carried on by J. M. Emer-son & C., also the Montgomery works at Yonkers, on the Hudson, near this city, and with the expe-rience and facilities combined in its organization are prepared to furnish machinery of all kinds at more liberal rates, than has ever been offered at any other establishment. THE COMBINATION SAW-MILL, was patented

October, 1856, and is now generally acknowledged to be the cheapest, most practical, and efficient lumber manufacturing machine in the world. A large number of them are in successful operation in different sections of this country, Canada, Cuba, and South America, and wherever their merits have been tested they are being adopted by lumber manufacturers in preference to all other mills.

The following letter expresses the general opin-ion of those who are using the Combination Mill : Messrs. EXERSON & Co-Gentlemen : I have tried the saw-mill purchased of you, and will say that it performs well, and more than meets my expectations. I am well pleased with its performance. I set it up on a small stream that afforded constant water about as thick as my little finger, which was much more than sufficient to supply the boiler. We are able to cut 3.006 feet of beautiful lamber in 12 hours with something less than one cord of wood. It is the very thing less than one cord of wood. It is the very thing we have needed in our county for a long time. With a little trouble and expense, we are able to move it from five to ten miles per day, and set it up in the heart of the timber, which saves the great burden of hauling the logs a long distance to the mill. Yours, respectfully, JESSE KERR, JR.,
