

S. B. ROW, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. CLEARFIELD, PA., MAY 12, 1858.

THE PHILADELPHIA ELECTION .- On Tuesday of last week the election for Mayor, Members of Council, &c., took 'place in Philadelphia, and resulted in an overwhelming triumph of the People's Ticket, headed by Alexander Henry, who was elected Mayor over Richard Vaux, the Democratic candidate, and present 4,000. In addition to the choice of a Mayor, the opposition elected the City Solicitor, Controller, Receiver of Taxes, City Commissioner, a large majority of both branches of Council, fifteen out of the twenty-four members of the Board of Health, and a majority of the Guardians of the Poor. The victory for Mayor is overwhelming, the extent of which may be more fully realized from a comparison of the returns with those of the election held in May, 1856, when the Democratic majority for Vaux was four thousand two hundred, and of the November election in the same year, when Buchanan's majority over Fremont was over thirty thousand; and still later, those of 1857, when Packer's majority over Wilmot was over eighteen thousand, and over the vote of Wilmot and Hazlehurst combined, upwards of four thousand. The result of this election is a terrible warning to that party in the city who, repudiating all its former professions, went before the people on the issue presented by the National Administration, and embodied in English's bill, which seeks to crush out freedom in Kansas. They and their friends elsewhere, have in it a lesson of wisdom which might have been learned long ere this-a lesson which will doubtless prove practical in its effects, as it teaches the demoralized democracy of the North, that the people have their eyes upon those who would swindle free labor of its rights in the territories. The victory is an important one-it was nobly achieved. and is a source of rejoicing among freemen, where ever it has become known.

The vote stood thus: Total vote for Mayor. For Alexander Henry, People's candidate, 33,771; for Richard Vaux, Democrat, 29,068; majority for Henry, 4,702. Total vote for City Controller .- For Geo. W. Hufty, People's candidate, 33,381; for William Curtis, Democrat, 29,700; majority for Hufty, 3,681. Total vote for Receiver of Taxes .- For A. I. Flomerfelt, People's candidate, 32,847; for Charles Worrell, Democrat, 29,960; majority for Flomerfelt, 2,887. Total vote for City Solicitor .- For Henry T. King, People's candidate, 32,654; for Jas. H. Randall, Democrat, 30,033; majority for King, 2,921. Total vote for City Commissioner .- For E. R. Williams, People's candidate, 33,003; for Thomas Ellis, Democrat, 30,054; majority for Williams 2,949.

THE NEW LICENSE LAW .- The new law relative to tavern licenses, relieves the Courts from all responsibility in regard to houses at which liquor shall be sold. Upon the certificate of twelve men that the applicant is of good repute for honesty and temperance, and possessed of a house containing the number of rooms and beds demanded by the statute, the Court is obliged to grant a license, unless remonstrances are presented in the form of affidavits, when the power is given to investigate the matter. The new law provides that "If any person shall neglect or refuse to take out a license within fifteen days after the same is granted, such neglect or refusal shall be deemed a forfeiture of the license, and such persons selling vinous, spirituous or malt liquors, after the expiration of the fifteen days, shall be liable to prosecution and conviction in the proper Court as fully and effectually as if no such license had been granted to such person or persons.23 The County Treasurer has the power of licensing eating houses.

After the passage of the general License law, another law was enacted, which requires County Treasurers to refund to the several landlords who have taken out licenses under the law of 1856, whatever amount of money they may have paid above what the act of 1858 requires.

The Brownsville Clipper, in noticing the new liquor law, speaks of it in the following gislature is the most lame, bungling, befogged enactment that ever emenated from a legislasynopsis of this huge nondescript, we were forcibly reminded of a prayer made by old to another term. Dr. West, on the occasion of some convention of the clergy, several of whom had preceded him, in the exercises, and of the sermonising talents of one of whom the Dr. had not the most exalted opinion, judging from the terms in which he alluded to him in his prayer, which was nearly as follows :-"O Lord! we thank thee for the innumerable blessings and privileges thou hast vouchsafed to us. We thank thee for the clear, foreible, impressive exposition which we have heard this day from our brother Johnson; Lord, if Thou can'st make any thing of it, do to the terms of the nigger drivers. so, for it's more than I can do."

A DEMOCRATIC PICTURE.-The editor of the Chicago Times, a leading organ of the National Democracy at the West, who recently spent a few days in Washington, gives the following picture of affairs in that city under the present "Democratic" administration :-

"We stayed in the great city five days and in that brief period we saw enough to satisfy us that personal and political depravity never had such a harvest as they are now reaping in the Federal City. Do you wish to see a man who in cold blood shot down his neighbor, his countryman without any other provocation than to gratify party hatred and the brutal propensities engendered by habits of drunkenness? Do you wish to see a gang of men of every age, from twenty-five to fifty, all old in in the most shameless deeds of depravity? Do you wish to see men who boast of cold blooded murders, of thieving forays, of fraubloated faces, and frames worn down by excesses common among men lost to self-respect and common decency-if you wish to see these men, go to Washington and hunt up the incumbent of the office, by a majority of over delegates to the Lecompton Constitutional Convention and their followers. Imagine to yourself the desperadoes, bullies and outcasts, even of Kansas, and your fancied picture will fall short of the real living tableaux presented by the "citizens of Kansas in Washington," who, it is said, visited the President a few days ago, and assured him of the strong feeling of admiration they entertained for him.

Offices are bought just as openly as the butcher buys the beef intended for his customers. Office-brokers have the run of the Senate ante-chamber, of the several departments and the executive mansion; and the actual sum of money to be paid for an office is as publicly named by these brokers and their clients, as the price of dry goods are named between a dealer in those articles and city, not in disguise, but with unblushing front and exalted mien; the time for vice to seek dark lanes and private places for its operations is gone by, and now men are bought and sold, votes purchased, and all the detestable traffic in the hopes, weaknesses and sorrows of human nature is carried on without shame. The cause of this great change is plain to all. Fraud rules the Cabinet and Senate; fraud-deep, malicious, infamous fraud upon the people of the Union, upon party-is set up as an object of worship. The Lecompton fraud has become another molten calf, and those who have set it up for worship have "corrupted themselves."

One-half of these cut-throats and ballot-box stuffers are awaiting their commissions as officers of the General Government. Land offices, Indian agencies, mail agencies, etc., are an excellent wheat crop, was never more fato be bestowed upon these outcasts as soon as the Democratic party at the North shall be defeated in every State in which the Lecompton fraud shall be endorsed.

Four or five females were arrested and tried last week, at Mount Vernon, Indiana, for assaulting a German Methodist clergyman .-They way laid him as he was leaving the church. after an evening meeting, and pelted him with stale eggs. Surgical aid was promptly sent for, but all the skill employed was abortive, and the lad died on Wednesday morning. Another solemn warning to be careful with firearms. On Saturday, the 17th inst., Mr. Daniel Ansley, Sr., of South Mahoning tp., while busily engaged making fence, was suddenly attacked by a fit of Apoplexy, causing his death in about one hour. His liabilities, it is said, exceed two hundred thousand dollars. It is thought, however, that his extensive property will cover all his debts, and still leave him a handsome competence. . . . Some weeks ago a number of the mechanics and laboring men attached to the Railroad Depot at Altoona. petitioned the Superintendent of the Road for an increase of wages, which, at the commencement of the financial crisis, had been decreased ten per cent. The petition was considered by the officers of the Company, and assurance given to the petioners that the wages in the course of a few months would be restored to their original standard. Some of the petitioners were satisfied with this assurance : but the majority of them desired the increase immediately, and held meetings, at which an obligation was subscribed to, resolving upon a "strike." The affair was comceeded. Here, apparently, the matter ended. On Friday last, however, Mr. Scott, at the decision of the Board of Directors, gave notice strike to "walk up to the Captain's office for settlement." The number discharged amount
