John Jones,

THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., MAY 12, 1858.

IMPROVEMENTS .- The spirit of improvement seems to be prevailing in our town at this time. Quite a number of buildings of different kinds are being erected. Among those under way is a fine brick dwelling-house of W. A. Wallace, Esq., on 2d street, and another of J. B. McEnally, Esq., on Water street.

Our "town fathers" have also made a start, by "ordaining" that side-walks shall be constructed on certain streets. We were scarcely prepared to hear this, as certain members of that august and important body, the Town Council, but a very short time since, had the pecuniary welfare of our citizens so much at heart, that they asked the printers to publish ordinances for little or nothing, assigning as a reason that times were hard, money scarce, and taxes high. The amount that would have been paid for printing, would have been trifling to each individual citizen, more particularly as propositions were made to do the advertising at less than the usual rates. Wellit was right enough to see that our citizens were not overburthened with taxes; but we are not aware that times have improved so much, or that money has become so plenty, that just at this time the whole town should be paved. We do not wish to be understood as opposing the construction of side-walks-we are in favor of making them in proper time;but if times are too hard and money too scarce to pay a triffing sum for advertising, we are inclined to think the construction of sidewalks is an expense that few will like to incur at present.

New Goods .- Wm. F. Irwin, on Market st., is receiving and opening a stock of Spring and Summer Goods, which he offers to the public on the most reasonable terms. His stock having been selected with a view of meeting the wants of this community, he is doubtless able to render satisfaction with any article in his line of business. He has fitted up a new store room in the building one door west of the old stand, into which he designs removing in a few days.

THE ICE-CREAM SEASON being at hand, R. B. Taylor has fitted up very neatly a room in the basement of Merrell & Carter's building, on Second street, where he will be pleased to furnish ice-cream to all who favor him with their custom. He has also opened a large stock of splendid confectionaries, nuts, dates, oranges, &c., to which he invites attention.

Tacob Swipes, a German butcher, residing near Detroit, eloped with the wives of a farmer named Fulmaer and a man named Snyder, on the 26th ult. He, doubtless, thinks it is cheaper to steal slieep and calves than to buy them.

BF The California papers have adopted the English custom of publishing births, as well as marriages, and also add a truly American, or rather "Yankee" peculiarity, by giving the weight of the new-born citizens. A very good idea!

IFA few days since, a farmer, living near Galena, Ill., carried a load of potatoes to that place to sell. The highest offer he could get was ten cents a bushel, and rather than sell them at that rate, he tipped them into the | 5618 1000 Fever river. The result was that he was fined $14 00 for obstructing navigation.

TA terrible whirlwind visited Tuskegee, Macon Co., Alabama, on the 20th ult. The house of Joshua Willis, was totally destroyed, and a negro "blown away" and killed. Several other houses were unroofed, the inmates of which were injured-two or three mortally.

A correspondent from Minnesota writes to his friends in Indianapolis for the character | 3566 450 of the Bank of Dover Hill, Indiana, saying that certain parties in the Territory had $10,-000 of its paper, which they were putting into circulation. The response is that there is no such bank in existence, and that it is the wildest kind of a "wildcat" concern.
