THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., JUNE 2, 1858.

THE WEATHER .- For the last seven or eight weeks we have had a great deal of rain, which has almost entirely suspended farming operations. But little corn has as yet been planted in this county, and that which is in the ground will doubtless rot, and render re-planting necessary. The growing crops look well, but stand much in need of warm sunshine.

Holmes had reference to such weather as we have been experiencing for some time, when he wrote that

.The weather cock has rusted East; The blue sky is forgotten; The earth's a saturated sponge, And vegetation 's rotten.

"I hate to see the darkest side : I hate to be complaining; But hang me if my temper stands This raining, raining, raining !"

RELEASED ON BAIL.-Hiram and Jonathan Hemans, who were committed to jail in the beginning of last week charged with being implicated in the robbery of Wm. Irvin's store in Curwensville on the 24th April, were on Monday brought out on a habeas corpus, and released after entering bail for their appearance at our next court of quarter sessions.

THE FLEMING HOTEL, formerly the Good Intent, Curwensville, has been taken by Mr. Wm. A. Mason, who announces in an advertisement which will be found in another column of this paper, that he has refitted and reformished it, and is now prepared to accommodate guests in the best manner.

We direct the attention of the public to the card of Mr. H. H. Morrow of the Clearfield House, which has been much improved and newly furnished, and is now comfortable and commodious. The stabling, which was consumed by the late fire, has been re-built.

Mr. James Morgan, whilst playing ball on last Thursday, slipped and dislocated a joint in one of his feet.

We learn by the Journal, printed at Middletown, Dauphin Co., Pa., that one of the boldest and most daring robberies ever perpetrated in that borough, took place on Wednesday night, May 19th, between the hours of 11 and 1 o'clock. The large tavern of Mrs. Griffee was entered, where the thieves succeeded in getting some $80,00. Following up Union street, the hext house entered was that of Mr. Samuel Landis, which was entered through a window. The pocket book of Mr. L., containing some $59,00, had been left in his pantaloons, which he had thrown in the entry before retiring for the night. This the rascals extracted, and left, it appears, without disturbing any of the inmates, who must have been Ferrington was also entered, but as some one of the family were up at the time, the alarm was given and the thieves disappeared. On the same evening, the large brick house of Gen. Smuller, President of the Bank of Middletown, was entered. The thieves gained admittance through a window on the balconyhaving climbed up on a grape vine. After having gone through two rooms, the noise of the intruders awakened Mr. S., who called to know whether any of the family had been up. Receiving no reply, he proceeded to light a taper, when he distinctly heard a noise as if some one was leaving the house, after which all was quiet. In the morning traces of the intruders were visible, but nothing had been stolen.

Specie.-Peterson's, Philadelphia, Detector of June 1st says: "The amount of specie now held by the banks of the Atlantic cities, and in the subtreasury, is immense; New York exhibiting more than forty millions, and the other cities in proportion. The demand for coin for export is very light, while steamer after both Banks and Brokers in New York have taken steamer from California adds millions more to them. the stock on hand, already troublesome from its great amount, and the difficulty of finding profitable means of getting it into general circulation, and into the performance of its so much-needed function of stimulating trade, manufactures and commerce. In the absence of more useful occupation, clerks will sometimes make curious calculations. In connection with the many reports of the great amount of gold on hand, it has been computed that if the other offices there are also plenty of patriots. we estimate the solid yard of gold at ten millions of dollars, which it is in round numbers, all the gold in the world might, if welded into ingots, be contained in a cellar twenty-four feet square, and sixteen feet high. All the boasted wealth already obtained from California and Australia, would go into an iron safe nine teet square, and nine teet high-so small is the cube of yellow metal that has set populations on the march, and roused the whole world to wonder.

A Mixed up law suit came off lately in Vermont. One Smith shot a rabid dog that was trespassing on his lot, and beloning to one Davidson. Dog ran into the road frightened a horse belonging to one Shufelt. Shufelt's a horse belonging to one Shufelt. Shufelt's the office of Samuel Sebring, Esq., in NEW WASH-horse ran away, upset a wagon, and broke a leg belonging to W. H. Patterson. As Smith of June next, at 9 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose leg belonging to W. H. Patterson. As Smith caused the accident, Shufelt says that Smith should foot the bill. Smith says that the owner of the dog should pay the damages. Davidson claims that he is not holden, because the dog was not mad, and if he were mad, he would not have frightened the horse, had Smith attended to his own business, and let the dog alone.

TENNESSEE .- Where the carcass is there will the eagles be gathered together. Wherever there is public money to steal, a locofoco is sure to have his hand in it. Dr. T. N. U. Burton, the democratic Secretary of State of Tennessee, has run off in consequence of large defalcations in his accounts. The clerk of the Comptroller's office is also charged with stuffing his pockets with coupons whenever he was in want of small change. The coupons were lying about "loose," it is said, begging to be
