

CLEARFIELD, PA., JUNE 30, 1858. A NEW DODGE.

It is becoming more and more apparent every day that the course pursued by Mr. Buchanan and the leaders of his party on the Kansas question, is highly distasteful to the honest-minded portion of the party, and that unless they can make a master-stroke of policy, an overwhelming defeat cannot be averted. That they will endeavor by some means to prevent such a disastrous result, cannot be doubted ; whether they will succeed, remains to be seen. Locofocoism, we know, is a subtle, cunning institution, and seldom at a loss for means to turn things to its own advantage. Its leaders are always on the look-out, watching the tide of public opinion, so as to be ready to fish at the flood. Latterly they have observed that the policy of Protection to American Industry has taken strong hold upon the minds of the masses, and that this ques tion will be the principal issue in the approaching Congressional election, as well as the next Presidential contest. Several weeks since we noticed that, in order to save the party from that destruction which the Lecompton ignominy has rendered inevitable, the Pennsylvania members of Congress of the Democratic faith would soon attempt to mount the protective tariff hobby, and upon that drive ahead of the Opposition. This, we see, they are striving to do. J. Glancy Jones, of Berks, and Owen Jones of the Montgomery district, have, it is said, openly avowed themselves in favor of an increase of the rates of duty on foreign goods. As a cotemporary remarks, if this be true, it shows a highly praiseworthy change of sentiment in the two Joneses; but we agree with him that no confidence can be placed in their professions, as their conversion is too sudden. Their object is too apparent-a reelection is, perhaps, what they desire; and then, most probably, they will forget their promises, violate their pledges, and turn traitors to those whom they induced to "stick to the ticket." In 1844 the Democracy should for "Polk, Dallas, Shunk and the Tariff of '42," and thereby succeeded in carrying the election. Their faithlessness all remember. The tariff of '42 was soon after repealed, and the present system, which was at the bottom of the late financial revulsion, established. It is an incontrovertible fact that the Democratic politicians have always had Free Trade proclivities-they have always opposed a protective tariff, and after the duplicity practiced by them in 1844, we are forced to believe that they have no idea of carrying out any pledges they may now make relative to Protection to American Industry. The opponents of the Democratic party have, on the other hand, always been the advocates of the protective policy, and they are yet. Whenever they had the opportunity, they put the system into operation, and invariably under its workings the commercial, manufacturing, mechanical, farming, and laboring interests of all kinds were in the most healthy and flourishing condition. These are facts which the people should remember. since the melancholy failure of that enterprise, have been laboring to manufacture assassinations and other herrible things to throw upon the American party, with a view of justifying the course of the Vigilance Committee, and, if possible, bringing about a resuscitation of that ill-fated concern. All the shooting and stabbing affairs, all the affrays, and all the assaults and batteries that occurred or are said to have occurred, are promptly attributed by these apologists for the Vigilance movement to the American, party. One instancer is reinproceedings; which, Judge Eckles and the ported of a German tound dead and mangled on the sidewalk. A great outery was raised over this murder by the "Thugs," and an American was arrested charged with the murder. When an investigation was made by a coroner's jury, it was ascertained that the murdered German had fallen in a drunken fit from the second story window of his house and was killed and mangled, by the fall, Another ter; rible outcry was raised about the assassination by the Thugs of a Mr. Howell, who had taken an active part in the Vigilance, movement. Mr. Howell was subsequently found walking the streets, alive and well, and perfectly unconscious of his assassination. THE LATEST SCANDAL .- Charles Dickens, the gifted English novelist, has separated from his wife, and as a natural consequence all sorts of stories are afloat as to the cause. Some assert that it is simply on the ground of an ancient and unconquerable incompatibility of their respective characters-something like what Dickens himself says with so much emphasis in "David Copperfield"-that "there can be no disparity in marriage like unsuitability of mind and purpose." Others contend that feasting and flattery have made Mr. Dickens quite a "fast" man, and that the true cause of difficulty is owing to his intimacy with a young actress named Leman. These and a thousand other causes are assigned by the gossips and scandal-mongers-

SUMMARY OF NEWS.

THE TRANSIT ROUTE .- A new and most remarkable chapter in Central American diplomacy, has just been unfolded in a letter from a reliable source to the N.Y. Tribune. The writer says :- "M. Felix Belly and his French gasconade on the one hand, and the old Transit Company with its new treaty on the other, have been completely out-generaled by Commodore Vanderbilt, who has made a personal treaty with Nicaragua, backing it with a loan of $100,000 from his own pocket, and has thereby secured to himself a monopoly of the Transit Route for a term of years! The apprehensions of our cotemporaries that Louis Napoleon was about to take military possession of the Nicaragua transit, and the nonsense about our fighting him thereupon in pursuance of "the Monroe doctrine," are all overboard together. The Transit Route is safe in American hands, under a contract which secures its reopening within ninety days and its maintenance thereafter. So Mons. Belly may retire." STORM IN NEW YORK .- On Monday afternoon, June 21st, New York city and vicinity was visited by a severe storm. Several houses were blown down, a new church, nearly completed, was laid flat with the ground, chimneys were blown over, roofs torn off, scaffolds of unfinished buildings were scattered, fences prostrated, awnings torn to shreds, and trees torn out by the root. A number of persons were more or less injured-some having legs or arms broken. In Brooklin the storm did much damage. Besides blowing off roots, demolishing fences, &c., several boats were capsized. On Long Island the storm was terific, prostrating buildings, and doing much other damage. A wing of the American Flint Glass Works, 150 feet in length, which was built of brick, was blown down, and 25 persons, who were at work in the building, were buried in the ruins. The groans of those under the ruins, the agony of parents looking for children, brothers for sisters, and friends for friends, all blended in the general tumult, rendered the scene most heart-rendering and appalling. Singular as it may seem, with the exception of two who were killed, the rest were taken out of the mass of rubbish with comparatively slight injuries.

A NEW MOVEMENT .- A despatch from Washington under date of June 24, says the Administration meditates a demonstration against Nicaragua and Costa Rica. It is believed in diplomatic circles that M. Belly acted under secret instructions from Louis Napoleon, though he had no official position. The nomination of Marcoletta as Minister to France confirms this nomination.

FRANCE AND ENGLAND .- We see by the foreign news that trouble is apprehended shortly between France and England. The London | not a party, even in Spain, Russia, or Austria, reparing for an invasion of England. THE UNEMPLOYED IN THE WESTERN CITIES .-Buffalo, Chicago and some other western cities, it appears, are overrun with laborers and mechanics, who are unable to find employment. In the former place last week, several hundred of this class paraded the streets, demanding "work or bread." In Chicago the demand for labor by poor people has been so great that street commissioners have been enabled to supply each man but two days in a week, at seventy-five cents per day.

THE FACTS IN THE CASE.

The Republicans of "high Henry," the banner Republican county of Iowa, held a Convention at Mount Pleasant on the 29th ult., to choose Delegates to their Congressional Convention. In contemplating the present political aspects, they, with Western frankness, say :- "During much of the past six months, we have beheld a conflict, unparalleled in fierceness, waged by the champions of Justice and Freedom, led on by Seward, Douglas, Crittenden and their noble compeers on one side, and the cohorts of loathsome fraud and shameless despotism, sustained by the Chief Magistrate of the Republic, on the other side. In the height of this mighty struggle, we have seen, with indignation, the power and patronage of the Government prostituted to seduce and corrupt the venal, and to strike down lifelong Democrats who would not bow to the dictations of a base-minded despot. And it is cheering to perceive, in spite of all the nefarious wiles of a false Executive, during which the intelligence flashed along our telegraphic wires has kept the country agonized with hope and fear, that the free spirit of the nation is unconquered, and uncontrollable.

"The Lecompton swindle has proved too monstrous in all that is most atrocious and detestable among decent people to be tolerated by Democratic servility. It has not only disgusted every honest citizen of the country, but has at last aroused the abhorrence of such men as Douglas, Walker, Stanton, Forney, and even of Stringfellow. And we take pleasure in recording the almost universal revolt of the Democracy of Iowa against a recreant President, aided by the felon Calhoun and his scoundrel crew of Lecomptonites. Here in Henry Co., we rejoice to say, we scarcely know of one who voted for Buchanan, whose stomach has not been turned by the flagitious attempt to force upon the long oppresed and outraged people of Kansas and hated Constitution concocted by a presumptuous gang of self-appointed border ruffians. We are equally glad to find that the dirty contrivance hatched by English, Stephens and Green, with the low and criminal design of bribing the free citizens of a Territory to surrender their rightful sovereignty and submit to the yoke of bondage, meets with little more favor.

"In view of these things, what are we to think of those who still cling to the gloomy | Coal Company are busily engaged in shipping fortunes and contine to sustain the wicked coal from their wharf at McKelvy's Furnace, schemes of an upprincipled Executive? In our opinion, there is not to-day in all Christendom a political organization so hostile to the rights of human nature, to the development of republican ideas, to the general pro-gress of the human race, as the Lecompton portion of the Democratic party. There is Times intimates that the French powers are that dare in the face of the civilized world

THE RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL,

PREPARED FOR THE "RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL." MIFFLIN COUNTY .- The Lewistown Gazette. of the 24th June, says :- Our community was considerable startled on Friday afternoon by the approvncement that Daniel Fichthorn had died suddenly at Jack's Creek. In company with Alex. Eisenbise he had started off in the morning for the purpose of spending the day in fishing, &c., and while seated along the creek eat a considerable quantity of sorrel, familiarlarly known as sour grass. About 2 o'clock he was seized with violent cramping pains and immediately taken to the building at the dam, occupied by Wm. Palmer, where such restoratives as were at hand were administered, but he soon became conscious that his end was approaching, and after giving some directions respecting his affairs, expired. No post mortem examination was made, but the general impression prevails that he was poisoned by the sorrel or some other herb he inadvertantly laid his hands on, though this is evidently an error, as poisonous plants do not act on the muscular system. Mr. F. was a native of Berks county, and had resided in this place for a number of years engaged in various pursuits. His remains attended by a large number of deeply afflicted relatives and several hundreds of our citizens, were interred in the Methodist Cemetery on Sunday last. . . . Joseph Inglis, formerly a resident of Kishaco-quillas Valley, who had gone west in 1850, died on the steamer Potomac, on her way from Cincinnati to Pittsburg, a few days since. LYCOMING COUNTY .- Petty robberies are of frequent occurrence about Jersey Shore. On the night of the 17th an attempt was made to enter the house of Rev. J. A. Kelly. . . . The body of the little boy, Campbell, who was drowned a couple weeks ago, was found floating on the water nearly opposite the mouth of Larry's creek. It was conveyed to Jersey Shore and interred on Friday.... A young man named Sheetz, working on Williamson's saw mill, at Larry's creek, cut his hand nearly half off with a circular saw on the 21st. . . . A young man named R. Emery Poisal, son of Rev. John Poisal, formerly Presiding Elder of the Bellefonte District of the M. E. Church, a member of the graduating class, lost his life at Williamsport, by drowning, on Monday even-ing the 21st. He was bathing in the river, and started to swim to the boom, on the other side, but sunk before reaching it. Whether he was taken by the cramp, or whether his strength was exhausted we are not informed. It seems that no effort was made to save him notwithstanding there were several that saw him drown. His body was found about two hours after the occurrence. He was about 19

or 20 years of age, a young man of fine talent and bid fair to make a useful man. COLUMBIA COUNTY .- A couple of Bears were captured one day last week near the Northern border of this county. The Kingston near Bloomsburg. . . . A sad accident occurred at Berwick on Tuesday the 22d. A young man-a boatman-went out in search of a couple of mules that had been turned loose. Not returning, others went in search for him, and found him dead, with the imprint of a mules hoof on his chest. His remains were taken to Harrisburg, where he belongs.... at the "Corner Store," Curwensville, a fresh supand found him dead, with the imprint of a The upper part of this county was visited on ply of Summer Goods, among which may be found Monday, the 21st, by a heavy storm. Also, lightning was severe. The concussion was so in the West end of a house in Greenwood, stunning a woman and child in the same. HUNTINGDON COUNTY .- On Wednesday last. locust tree, on the farm of Col. S. S. Wharton, in Walker township, was struck by lightning, at a time when the sun was shining brightly, and shivered to pieces. Two little boys were sitting about eight feet from the trunk of the tree, and strange to say were only slightly shocked .- An accident occurred to the Express Passenger train going west, on Thursday morning of last week, at Mapleton station, (Huntingdon county,) on the Penna Railroad, by which two ladies and a boy were injured; the former lightly, and the latter more seriously. One truck only was thrown from the track, which caused that end of the car to strike a freight car standing on the siding, occasioning the injury referred to, but do ing no other damage. The injured persons were taken to Huntingdon, when they received from the officers of the Company every atten-

CAMBRIA COUNTY .- A most daring burglary NOTICE,-The undersigned having been ap was perpetrated in Ebensburg on the night of the 19th. The office of M. D. Mahegan, Esq., was perpetrated in Ebensburg on the night of the 19th. The office of M. D. Mahegan, Esq., was entered by some villain, in search of val-uables. The entrance was effected by prying open the window shutters and raising the window. The Col's. papers were rumaged through and scattered over the floor ; but, fortunately there was nothing stolen, except a large ink bottle, which the scamp, no doubt thought contained some of the "O! fet us be joyful."

WHAT OUR IMAGINARY SOUTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD COSTS .- The Albany Journal says that it may not be generally known that we are building a Pacific Railroad. It is rather an airy, unsubstantial structure, the rails being laid nowhere except in the imagination but it has already cost us a good deal of money The road was begun about four years ago. As our Government is a Government which legislates always for the South and seldom for the North, it was a foregone conclusion that the railroad must be a Southern railroad. It must connect with Charleston and Mobile, instead of New York or Philadelphia, and must link the States which talk of forming a Southern Confederacy to California and the Pacific coast. We began by sending out a corps of Army officers to survey the Southern route. The first route they surveyed was a route through Texas. The second route they surveyed was a route through Texas. The third route they surveyed was a route through Texas. And so on to the end of the chapter-every one of the dozen routes, with but one or two exceptions, being a route through Texas. This Texas engineering took out of the Treasury about $1.000,000. The printing of the survey cost $750,000; the Gadsden purchase, consisting of sandy desert, agreeably diversified with rocks, too barren of vegetation for the most part, to support a field mouse-all for the moderate sum of $10,000,000; a wagon road $250,000 ; the camels from the cast $250,-000, and the Artesian wells along the route $500,000. Grand total $13,000,000.

THE AMERICAN HORSES IN ENGLAND .- The last steamer from Europe brings intelligence that a match has been made for a race between the American horse Prioress and Beadsman, the winner of the Derby. The event is to come off at New-market in October, and the terms are £500 aside. The horses are to car-ry even weights (119 lbs. each) notwithstanding that Prioress has an advantage of two years in age over Beadsman. A match has also been made between Mr. Ten Broeck's horse Babylon, (4 years old.) and Lord Chesterfield's Telegram, (3 years,) at even weights, for £200 aside, to be run the day after the above. Mr. Ten Broeck's horses, Charleston and Prioress, are both entered for the Goodwin cup.

DEATH OF TWO PROMINENT MEN .- The Phildelphia papers bring us intelligence of the death of two of Philadelphia's distinguished men-Hon. ROBERT T. CONRAD and Hon. JOB. R. Tyson, Both died suddenly.

CHARLES FRANCIS ADAMS, only son of John Quincy Adams, is spoken of as a candidate for Congres in the district now represented by Mr. Damrell, whom ill health obliges to decline being a candidate for re-election. This is the same district represented for fourteen years by the "old man eloquent."

UTAH AFFAIRS .- Despatches were received at Washington city on last Friday from Gen. Johnston; also letters from civil officers at Fort Bridger. Some of the latter were dated 21st and others the 26th of May. The former speak confidently of a probable pacification

The New Orleans Crescent says that some of through the instrumentality of Cumming's the sympathisers in the Vigilant movement, efforts, who had been six weeks in various parts of the Territory, and had succeeded in satisfying the Mormors that conciliation was practicable without compromising them or the Federal authorities. All Brigham Young asked was a fair trial, but he objected to a Jury from the Camp. Judge Eckles had thwarted Gov. Cumming seriously by his extra-judicial intervention, and it was known that others were combined with him for the same object. The last dates present a less promising aspect of affairs, and mainly from the United States Marshal had sought to institute, in defiance of the Governor's policy. It was believed that their efforts were directed toward a collision, as the most effectual means of subjugation. Brigham Young had assured Gov. Cumming that he was willing to give himself up if he could have a reasonable chance of justice. The 'hitstifetters' state that Gov. Cumming would go to Salt Lake about the 1st, of Jung, attended by the other civil tofficers. Mr. Forney, the Indian Agent, was to accompany him, and to open an office there or at Provo. He had succeeded in his negotiations with several tribes of Indians, and reports favorable progress with others. If bloodshed now occurs in Utah it will be mainly owing to the rash measures of those whose first duty it is to preserve peace. Instructions have al ready been issued here to stop Judge Eckles's foolhardy course, and additional orders will go by the next mail. SHOCKING ACCIDENT .- A Masonic celebration was held in Wellsville, N. Y., Friday, June 25th. Atter the oration, the meeting adjourn-ed to a large hall for dinner. About 700 persons had entered the hall, when about half its floor gave way, precipitating about 300 of the company to the next floor, and at the same instant the floor above followed, with a quantity of cutters, fanning-mills, lumber, &c., burying the mass of people in the ruins. No one was killed, but from 40 to 50 persons were wounded, some 20 of them badly. Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf of Wellsville, Mr. Daniel Dexter of Independence, Mrs. Colvin of Bingham, Pa., and a Mr. Johnson of Friendship, are reported dangerously injured. At noon to-day all the sufferers were alive, and most of them comfortable.

The Republicans of Maine met in Convention June 25th and unanimously nominated the Hon. Lot M. Morrill, the present incumbent, for Governor. Every county was represented, and the proceedings were enthusiastic.

blazon its banners with doctrines so hostile to the rights of man, so repulsive to reason and great as to break nearly all the panes of glass justice, as are avowed and upheld by the supporters of the present Administration."

THE CRITTENDEN RECEPTION .- The progress homeward of Kentucky's noble Senator will be like the triumphal march of a victorious hero. The people everywhere on the route are preparing to give him a hearty greeting and to express in an unmistakable manner their approbation of his course, and their high esteem for this gallant champion of constitutional rights and State equality. At Cincinnati the masses of the people, without party distinction, made arrangements to extend to him a popular welcome. A committee was appointed to meet him at Columbus and escort him to Cincinnati on Saturday morning. The people were to form the escort from the depot of the Little Miami railroad to the Spencer House, where the welcome address was to be delivered by Governor Corwin. In the evening the masses were again to compose his escort to Covington, where a most carnest and liberal spirit had been displayed in the preparation for his reception. One thousand flags, at one order, were purchased, on which have been printed the words, "Welcome to the Old Kentucky Home." Streamers bearing the same motto, and other indications of enthusiastic regard, were to extend across the principal streets, to express the earnest, warm-hearted welcome of his constituents to the Independent Statesman of the West.

Mr. Crittenden was to leave Covington for Frankfort on the 21st. The Kentucky Central Railroad placed at the service of the commit-tee a special train to take him and his escort to Lexington, and to afford an opportunity for a large number of his admirers to join in this holiday excursion. The train was to stop a half an hour at Falmouth, and a half hour at Cynthiana, and a half hour at Paris, on the way to Lexington, where preparations had been made to give him an old fashioned Kentucky welcome. From Lexington he was to proceed townsmen intended to honor him and themselves with a public reception.

THE MORMONS INVITED TO MEXICO .-- One of the elders of the Mormon church who left for Mexico to look up a new Mecca for his persecuted people-as soon as it was positively ascertained that they could no longer remain on American soil and sustain their peculiar institution, polygamy-writes as follows to Brigham Young, from Gaudaloupe Calvo, Chihuahua, under date of Dec. 22, 1857, inviting the whole sect to emigrate :

Here is a government loudly calling for settlers, receiving negro colonists in the South rather than none, unable to defend itself from enemies external or internal, and granting powers to individuals to bring colonists into the country, paying for them a dollar a head, but I would think it best to come without any coremony. Here is a sparse population, charitable and hospitable, tolerant to all, and practically addicted, even the priests, to the most invidious of our tenets, polygamy. Here is a religious system having but little hold on the affections of the people, already tottering and divided by incipient schism. Here is no plague of grasshoppers. Fathers in Zion, leaders of the hosts of Israel, let my feeble voice prevail with you.

What is the difference between a bare head and a hair bed ? One flees for shelter and the other is a shelter for fleas.

tion it was possible to bestow. BLAIR COUNTY .- On Friday night, the 18th of June, some villains undertook to plunder the dwelling of Col. R. M. Lemon in Hollidaysburg, and had succeeded in effecting an entrance to the kitchen before they were driven off by the cities of Mrs. L. who was awake and heard them at their nefarious work. They got no booty. The Colonel would probably have been able to detect them, but for the prudent apprehensions of Mrs. L., who would not alow him to encounter them alone in the dark. ... On Monday, Constable Bowers of Hollidaysburg had a 2.40 chase after a young man named Louis Butler, who was charged with attempting to steal a pair of pantaloons from Shoenthal's Clothing Store, but he succeeded
