THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., JULY 7, 1858.

THE FOURTH .- The 82d Anniversary of American Independence, having come on Sunday, the citizens of our borough had their celebration on Saturday. The several Sabbath Schools united, and after forming in proces- day evening. sion at the Presbyterian church, proceeded to the grove below town, where a stand and table had been constructed for the occasion. Thos. J. McCullough, Esq., read the Declaration of Independence, and Robt. J. Wallace and II. B. Swoope, Esquires, delivered appropriate, patriotic and eloquent addresses. A bountiful collation, prepared by the ladies. who are deserving of high commendation for the elegance with which it was got up, was then spread and fully discussed by all present. In the evening, a very fine display of fireworks was witnessed by a large concourse of people. About 7 o'clock p. m. a very pretty balloon ascension took place. On Monday evening two more were sent up, and floated through the clear air, presenting a beautiful appearance, and raising quite a sensation amone not only the juveniles, but with the older spectators.

The Sabbath Schools and citizens of Curwensville held their celebration on Saturday also. Appropriate addresses were delivered by Revds. Still, Stine and Barnhart, and L. J. Crans, Esq. An elegent dinner was partaken of in the grove opposite town, and all the proceedings passed off pleasantly and satisfactorily.

An interesting celebration was also held at Paradise, which was addressed by I. Test, Esq. Celebrations were also held at several other places in the county, of which, however, we have no definite information.

BURGLARY .- On last Sunday morning, between 12 o'clock and daylight, the store of .C. Kratzer & Son, in this borough, was burglariously entered, and from $50 to $60, it is supposed, of change stolen from the drawers. Entrance was effected through the window, a hole, large enough to admit a hand and permit the loosening of the bolt, being bored with an angur through the shutter. On Monday morning a man named Lloyd was arrested on suspicion, but there was no evidence to justify a committal and he was accordingly released.

A barber named Smith-who seems to be about half negro and half indian, and who has been around town for a couple weeks-is also suspected of knowing something about the burglary. He appears to be a worthless fellow, and another darkey who came here about the same time, who gave his name as Jacob R. Robinson, and who was examined as a witness. said he had been in Harrisburg jail for some offence ; that he has known Smith for about 20 years; that during the first 8 years of their acquaintance Smith followed preaching ; that he was rather fond of things spiritual, and secondingly carried a flask in his pocket when he went into the pulpit; that afterwards another negro and Smith had a show, the former acting ventrilognist, and the latter attending to slight-of-hand performances. Smith disappeared on Sunday morning. On Monday he was also arrested and taken before 'Squire Speace, of Curwensville, but nothing was found upon him that would justify his imprisonment.
