DARING ROBBERY .- On Monday night, the 12th inst., some scoundrel entered the Post Office, in Luthersburg, and carried off 1 gold watch, 5 silver watches, 4 setts ladys' ear-bobs, and about 50 coppers which were in a drawer. The articles enumerated belonged to A. L. Schmell, and, as near as can be ascertained, are worth about $160.00. The thief is supposed to be a man named Cyrus Litsfield or Litsford. He is a small man, of English or Scoth descent, and follows painting. He has lived in Curwensville, and has, we are informed, been in several scraps in that place. Nothing belonging to the Post-office is missing.

SENSIBLE .- We have practical proof that South Carolina, with all her insane devotion to Slavery, contains sensible and good men. We perceive that Col. W. S. Dogan, of that State, declines being considered a candidate State, declines being considered a candidate ever ?" said a romantic young girl to her less ro-for the Legislature, for the reason that he can mantic companion. "Oh no." said he, "I would never enter the field as a candidate for the Legislature so long "as the freating mode of electioneering is allowed." The Colonel says if a candidate is elected by treating, "his election signifies only that he is a good drinker." We commend the Colonel's example to all candidates for office in our county-that is, his refusal to buy support by treating. DEATH FROM LAUDANUM .- On Sunday morning, 11th inst., we learn, the only son of John Matson, of Decatur township, aged about three years, tost his life by drinking a quantity of laudanum. One of the family had been using it for the tooth-ache and had set it down on the window, when the little fellow unperceived got hold of the vial and drank the contents. Medical aid was called, but to no avail, and in about four hours after the occurrence the lad since the 1st of April, have been returned to Wash breathed his last.

FOUR MORE FREE STATE MEN MURDERED .----It is strange, passing strange, that the citizens of Kansas have so long permitted Hamilton and his gang of murderers to redden the soil of that Territory with the blood of Free State men. The cold-blood assassinations in the vicinity of Fort Scott cry aloud for vengeance, and later intelligence from Southern Kansas of country. is that on the night of the 11th of June, four more Free State men were killed on the Little Osage, by the band of Missouri desperadoes under the lead of Hamilton, Titus and Brockway. The men killed were peaceable farmers, named Andrews, Allen, Thompson, and one, name not learned. Montgomery had previously advised them to leave, and had pointed out their danger, but they said they did not meddle in affrays, and the Missourians would not molest them. Montgomery and his force started in pursuit of the murderers as soon as the news of this fresh outrage reached him, and it is to be hoped he may come up with and adminiter justisce to the ruffians.

The St. Paul Pioneer of the 1st instant says that some two hundred and fifty carts from Pembina, laden with furs, are encamped on the outskirts of that city, and enough others are expected to swell the number to six hundred. Altogether, they will bring furs to the value of $50,000. These carts are made of the most primitive character, and are drawn by oxen and the stunted ponies of the plains.

One can hardly realize the condition of things along the Mississippi. Mr. Fayweather the General Agent of the Chicago and Burlington railroad, has stated that they carried the passengers to Oquawka station, seven or eight miles, in a steamboat, crossing a wheat field. The wheat is covered to a depth of 8 feet with water, and the steamer makes regular trips over it.
