Two story cars are used on the Philadelphia Passenger Railways. Access is had to the upper story by means of two winding stairways leading from the rear platform. As these stairways are necessarily narrow, ladies will find it impossible to reach the top. and consequently, gentlemen fond of the "weed," will be allowed to smoke at this elevation.

A Nebraska editor announces in the following language his plans and purposes for celebrating the Fourth of July : "We shall luxuriate over our dinner until about four o'clock, when we shall go and swim for half an hour, and then pitch cents till dark. In the evening we shall go a courting."

A city girl who has been with her beau to a "maple sugaring off," in the country, writes home that "the funniest thing I saw was Charley dear trying to eat maple wax with his moustaches on; a turkey eating thick dough is nothing in comparison."

It is said that buckwheat bran is injurious to hogs causing the skin to crack all over, and the ears and tails to drop off. This explains why the Democratic Party looks so scaly-been feeding on buck-wheat bran.

An old fellow being visited by his pastor, assured him that he could not be a good Christian unless he took up his daily cross; whereat he cought up his wife and began lugging parts same days at 1 P. M. her about the room.

The Bridgeport Standard says that the only available funds of the Bridgeport Insurance Company, recently put into bankruptcy, are thirteen cents in copper and a two dollar bill on a broken bank.

A person in passing a conceited fellow, happened to strike his foot with a cane. "You had better knock my brains out, and finish me, said the dandy. "I was trying to do it," was the rejoinder.

When Lady Holland wanted to get rid of a fop, she used to say, "I beg your pardon-but I wish you would sit a little farther off; there is something in your handkerchief which I do not like."

HOUSEHOLD WORDS,
CONDUCTED BY CHARLES DICKENS,
Author of "Piekwick Papers," "Nicholas Nickleby," "Dombey & Son," etc., etc. Re-published Monthly by the Subscriber, from advance sheets, under sanction of the London publishers, and by special arrangement with them. Each monthly number contains Tales, Stories and Articles, by Charles Dickens, William Howitt, Leigh Hunt, Barry Cornwall, Wilkie Collins, and almost eve ry conspicuous English writer, thus rendering it by far the most interesting, varied, and decidly the best Literary Periodical in the English lan-guage. No work of the kind contributes so successfully and so much to the floating literature of the day; its sharp, crisp, genial articles, and its admirable stories are more extensively copied by cotemporary publications than those of any other work whatsoever.
