S. B. ROW, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. CLEARFIELD, PA., JULY 21, 1858.

THE STATE CONVENTION.

We devote considerable space this week to the proceedings of the People's State Convention which assembled at Harrisburgh on last Wednesday. The attendance was very large, every district in the State being represented. The proceedings were throughout of the most pleasant and harmonious character, and will doubtless have the effect of completely uniting the various forces in the State opposed to the Buchanan Administration, and laying the foundation of a great National party that will overthrow in 1860 the miserable concern that is now so wofully misruling our government.

The candidates nominated are good men. John M. Read, the candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court, is among the most eminent members of the Philadelphia Bar. He is distinguished for his learning as well as his experieace, and in point of character is not excelled anywhere. He was formerly a member of the Democratic party, but like many other consistent and intelligent men, when he found that the party had deserted its ancient landmarks and become corrupt, he left it. In 1856 he earnestly and vigorously opposed the election of James Buchanan, and since then has continued to oppose and condemn the course and conduct of the Administration. As a Judge of the Supreme Court, if elected, he will have no superior.

William E. Frazer, the candidate for Canal Commissioner, is a resident of Fayette county. For several years he represented Fayette and Westmoreland counties in the State Senate, and in that position rendered general satisfaction to his constituents. He formerly acted Pumroy. with the old Whig party, and has continued up to this time a staunch and firm opponent of the Democracy. He is a practical business man, and would make a good officer.

The platform adopted by the Convention is broad, comprehensive and liberal, upon which every honest and sincere opponent of the er- Geo. Reed, Geo. M. Hill, Joseph Sommers, ratic, extravagant and corrupt policy of the John Welsh, Archibald M'Intire, Wm. P. present National Administration, can stand. We believe it is satisfactory to all the various elements of opposition, and we have no doubt of the triumphant election of the ticket. We trust that all will give the proceedings a careful perusal.

Position of Senator Douglas .- On Friday last a week Mr. Douglas was received by his friends at Chicago, and he addressed them at length. After vindicating his course on the Lecompton measure, he proclaimed his unchanged adherence to the Cincinnati platform, and the sentiments of Mr. Buchanan's inaugural-gave a sort of quasi endorsement to the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the Dred Scott case,-dwelt much upon the necessity of maintaining harmony in the Democratic party, and begged, with an evident desire to have himself fully reinstated in his position as a member of the Democracy, that there might be no proscription of Democrats for past differences of opinion. Some of the Southern papers compliment Mr. Douglas' speech highly, declaring that he "has adopted the only line of conduct to be expected from a man true alike to his own dignity of character and the welfare of his party." It would seem from this that "the little giant" is in a fair way of again getting into the good graces of his recently irate brethren, and we would not be surprised if, in a very short time, he and "old Buck" would be "cheek by jowi" and both averring that their late criminations were all made in a "Pickwickian sense."

THE SCALPEL .- This quarterly, published in New York by Dr. Dixon, is a rare periodical. Its articles, besides being highly instructive, are written in a very attractive and fascinating style, and display an independence and vigor of thought and action that is really refreshing in this time-serving and truckling age. The more we read The Scalpel, the better we like it. It is always a rich treat-"a feast of reason and a flow of soul."

The Delaware Division of the Pennsylvania Canals, which recently came into the possession of the Sunbury and Eric Railroad Company, was sold week before last to a company of capitalists, represented by Messrs. E. W. Clark & Co., for the sum of $1,775,000. The S. &. E. Company are making a nice thing out of the public works speculation.

Intelligence has been received from the Atlantic telegraph fleet. Two unsuccessful attempts to lay the cable have been made. On the second trial forty miles were laid, when the communication suddenly ceased. Notwithstanding this, the liveliest hopes of success were still entertained.

A TERRIBLE Accident occurred on the New York and Eric Railroad on the 15th. A broken rail threw the two hind cars off the track, down a declivity of 30 feet, killing five persons and wounding about fifty, some of them dangerously.

There is just now a tremendous rush of immigration to Frazer River, which runs from the British Possessions into Washington Territory. It is said that almost fabulously large deposits of gold have been discovered there recently.

STATE CONVENTION.

In pursuance of a call issued by the different Chairmen of the Republican, American and People's State Committees, a Convention of the people assembled in the Hall of the Honse of Representatives at Harrisburg, on Wednesday the 14th day of July, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court, and also a candidate for Canal Commissioner.

The report was adopted without debate, and Gov. Reeder was conducted to the chair, from whence he delivered the following address:

GENTLEMEN :- When I look around me upon this Convention, and see its ranks filled with men who have been again and again endorsed by the people of our State-who have been honored with the public confidence-who, in places of public trust, have repaid that confidence with meritorious integrity and distinguished ability-whose talents and whose power have made them the leaders and the representative men of their respective parties upon the great questions submitted to, and decided by, the people in times gone by-who have adorned and shed lustre upon the high places they have filled, surrounded now by younger men full of talent and zeal and budding power, destined to tell upon the future destinies of our State and country, I feel most deeply impressed with the honor of the selection which has called me to this position, and the thrice worn, threadbare terms of thankful acknowledgment seem to be a stale, tasteless and inadequate return for your partiality. I can only tender you the sincere assurance that they fall short of the feeling which they seek

I have alluded to the high standard of ability and reputation which seems to have been adopted by the people in your selection. It is, however, none too high for the cause in which we are engaged-none too great for the dignity and honor of the work committed to our hands. To men whose love of country must be startled and aroused by the dangers understandings appreciate the evils that threaten us, and the remedies to be applied, I need waste no time in detail of these.

Suffice it to say, that the very essential doctrines of Republicanism are at issue-the right of self-government-the rule of the majority-the right of suffrage, popular liberty, all are perilled, and their ringing cry for rescue clangs upon the ear of the patriot like a fire bell in the still watches of the night.

The American people had their origin and owe their pre-eminent national vitality and wonderful progressive power to the fact that of the prominent nations of the old worldfrom the picked men of Europe with the largest brain, and heart, and muscle, of all their kind; who towered above all their fellows. and did not bend before the blast that was sweeping down her man rights, and were thus driven from their respective homes to beget a new nation in a new world, to make a new era in the history of man, before which all the fall into insignificance. Norman, Celt and of their kind-pure metal, proven and tried by fire and peril and tyranny, loving liberty better than a native land covered with oppression and disgrace-struck hands in a new Welch. league, torgot ancient fends, combined their respective qualities in a vigorous and healthy fusion, and thus made a great Union party, from whose loins sprung the master nation of the earth.

The same reasons which drove the Covemanters, the Puritans, the Huguenots, and the Lutherans from the graves of their fathers, have compelled most of us to turn our backs upon our old associates in search of the popular rights and liberties which tyranny had driven out before us. As we have been placed eral gentlemen were nominated. in their situation and emulated their effort let the master party of the land.

Vain will be this hope, however, unless we are prepared to trample under foot all selfishness; all mere pride of opinion; all the con- Patton 3. temptible spirit of unnecessary cavil and contention. We must in all things cultivate a spirit of high honor, forbearance and magnanimity which shall inspire mutual kindness and respect, and when we shall have submitted our anxious wisdom. Mr. Mercur offered the following resolution: Resolved, That a committee consisting of greed to. thirteen be appointed to report resolutions to this Convention. Mr. Dunlap moved to amend the resolution by striking out all after the word resolved, and insert the following:

"That the delegates from the several Senatorial districts select one of their number from each district, to draft resolutions for the consideration of this Convention."

Mr. Todd spoke in opposition to the adoption of resolutions of this kind. He expressed himself in favor of the largest committee, and advocated the largest number of the Com-

This Convention representing the freemen of Pennsylvania who are opposed to the leading measures of the National Administration, most especially those which seek to stifle the voice, and ignore the rights of a large majority of the citizens of Kansas; and those which Mr. Stavely nominated J. P. Jones, of Berks have prostrated the industry of the country, and are fast driving our Government into national bankruptcy, do hereby declare and

1. That the Federal Constitution, the sovereign rights, and union of the States, and the liberties of the people, must and shall be preserved.

2. That we protest against the Kansas policy of the National Administration, as at war with the rights of the people, and subversive of the principles of our government. 3. That the reckless and profligate extravathe Convention proceeded to ballot for a can- gance of the National Administration, causproper legislation. 5. That this Convention do most heartily a; prove of and endorse the course pursued by our able and distinguished Senator in Congress, the Hon. Simon Cameron, as well as that of those Representatives from this State, who have steadfastly opposed the tyrannical policy of the National Administration in their attempts to impose upon the people of Kansas by fraud and force a Slavery Constitution, in opposition to the known and oft expressed sentiments of the freemen of the Territory. 6. That the National Administration, during all the late long session of Congress, evinced an entire disregard of the great industrial interests of the country, and indulged in a most wasteful and lavish expenditure of the public money. 7. That the revenue necessary for a judicious and economical administration of the Government, should be raised by the imposition of duties upon foreign imports, and in 35 laying them, such discriminating protection should be given as will secure the rights of free labor and American Industry. 8. That in presenting John M. Read to the people of Pennsylvania, as a candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court, we recognize No choice, and the Convention proceeded the man, scholar and jurist, eminently qualifi-
