THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., JULY 28, 1858.

COMMITTED .- On last Saturday, Thomas Zelitzski, a Polander, a resident, we believe, of St. Marys, Elk county, was brought to our town by constable Hyatt of that county, charged with having robbed the store of Mr. Christopher Kratzer of this borough on the night of the 3d July. Zelitzski had been engaged at shoe making for several weeks prior to the time the burglary was committed, but quit work the day previous, and it was supposed had left town. A couple individuals, as onr readers will doubtless remember, were arrested at that time on suspicion, but no evidence of guilt was found. Matters then remained quiet until last week, when it was ascertained that Zelitzski had been unusually flush and liberal with money at a celebration on the 5th at St. Marys, and after inquiries as to the kind of money, &c., a warrant for his arrest was issued, he was apprehended, bro't before M. A. Frank, Esq., and after a hearing, committed to jail to await his trial at the approaching term of our Quarter Sessions. We understand that he had given his wife a parasol, and that he had in his possession a breast pin, both of which were taken from the store on the night of the robbery, and which were easily identified.

DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY ELECTION .- The Democracy of Clearfield county will hold their primary election on the 14th of August. As is usual in that party, there is a full supply of patriots on hand for nomination, though it is not too late as yet for other aspirants to "roll in." There is nothing like having plenty of material to select from. The following are the names already announced:

Assembly-William F. Johnson, of Union, and Dr. T. J. Boyer, of Brady.

District Attorney-Robert J. Wallace, Is rael Test, and John L. Cuttle. Sheriff-Samuel Clyde, of Lawrence; Jacob Wilhelm, of Graham; George W. Shoff, of Woodward; Fredk. G. Miller, of Bell; M. II. Luther, of Brady; B. D. Hall, of Karthaus; Wm. L. Ogden, of Lawrence; James Bloom, of Pike; Edward Perks, of Morris; Jacob A. Faust, of Penn; Gidcon D. Goodfellow, of Lawrence.

County Commissioner-William Merrell, of Lawrence; Vincent B. Holt, of Bradford; David Dale, of Morris; Jacob Hoover, of Lawrence; Jacob Kuntz, of Brady; Solomon Hamerschley, of Decatur; Wm. McCracken, of Ferguson; Richard Freeman, of Pike.

Accident .- On last Monday, a number of little boys of our town were playing with gunpowder, and whilst one was pouring it out of the horn upon the ground, another set fire to it and caused an explosion. Ira Boynton, son of Jonathan Boynton, had his face and one hand frightfully burned, and Willie Crans, son of L. J. Crans, Esq., had the right side of his face severely scorched. Several other lads escaped with a niere scorching of clothes .-This accident should serve in tuture as a waruing not to let children have free use of such a dangerous article as powder.

SNAKES .- Mr. Wm. Albert informs us that the workmen on the new road from here to Sinnamahoning, from the 21st June to 21st July killed, within five miles of town, twentyfour rattlesnakes. Shouldn't wonder if that place would be dubbed "Rattlesnake Hollow."

Several additional Sheriff's sales appear this week; adjourned sale of the real estate of James Sharp, dec'd. Mr. A. H. Bauman offers to sell his property in Tyrone City.

FALSE CALCULATIONS.

We note that Mr. Secretary Cobb has been assured by his commercial advisers, whoever they may be, that the Imports of the Fall season just before us must be very heavy, and that he may safely calculate on large receipts from Customs during the later months of this year. Mr. Cobb, we trust, has been too often the dape of fond illusions to pin his faith on the sleeve of these prophesiers of smooth things. We see no reason for expecting large importations during any part of this year; and we are quite sure that, if such shall be made, they will prove disastrons to the importers, and probably to the exporters as well. The naked truth is that the country is in no condition to buy liberally of foreign fabrics, and if they shall nevertheless be bought, they must remain, to a great extent, unpaid for. The floods and nouring rains of the Spring months have overflowed and devastated hundreds of thousands of our most fertile acres, rendering it morally certain that they can yield no crop this year. The Wheat, especially of the South West and Mid-West, is likely to suffer severely from rust. Of Indian Corn, the area planted is conaiderably less than usual, and much of that planted has rotted in the ground or is likely to be caught by early frosts. Then the necessity ot sending abroad a large portion of our Grain crop in quest of a market is sure to keep the range of prices very low. The average price of Grain realized by its producers have not for the last eight months been one half those of the year previous, and we see little prospect of decided improvement. Of course, the Silks and Laces, the Robes and Mantillas, that -could be afforded and were liberally purchased when Corn on the Upper Mississippi was worth fifty cents per bushel and Wheat a dollar and a quarter, are out of the question when Corn sells there for twenty cents and Wheat for fifty. If our Importers and their foreign correspondents would only look an inch beyond their noses, they would be in favor of such a Tariff as would set our wheels running and cover the land with laborers, opening mines, building mills and dams, &c., &c., and thus create a Home Market for our surplus food, increase its price on the Ohio and Mississippi, and enable our farmers and laborers to buy wares and fabrics they must now go without .- N. Y. Trib.
