of a boy in one of the schools of a neighboring town, who is an inveterate rhymster, and who laughed one morning, during prayers, at the sight of a rat. Being asked why he laughed he replied :

"I saw a rat upon the stairs, Coming up to hear your prayers."

Being told that he must immediately make another rhyme or be severely flogged, he quickly answered .

"Here I stand before Miss Blodgett : She's going to strike and I shall dodge it ;" and took his seat, the whole school being in a roar of laughter.

Mr. Lindahl, the editor who was sentenced to death at Stockholm, Sweden, for a libel on the virtue of the belle of the city, Henriette Mendelsohn, was pardoned just as he was ascending the scaffold, the young lady herself bearing the pardon to him in her own hands The romance of the affair caused a great sensation throughout Sweden.

PUTNAM'S MONTHLY, TWO GREAT MAGAZINES IN ONE. COPIES THE FIRST MONTH !!!

MAGNIFICENT PROGRAMME FOR 1858 $20,000 IN SPLENDID WORKS OF ART FIVE-DOLLAR ENGRAVING TO EVERY SUBSCIBER.

The Great Labrary Offer .- Agents Getting Rich . The union of EMERSON'S MAGAZINE and PUTNAM'S MONTHLY has given to the consolidated work a circulation second to but one similar publication in the country, and has secured for it combination of literary and artistic talent probably unrivalled by any other magazine in the world. During the first month, the sale in the trade and demand from subscribers exceeded 99,000 copies, and the numbers already issued of the consolidated work are universally conceded to have surpassed, in the richness of their literary contents and the beauty and profuseness of their pictorial illustrations, any magazine ever before issued from the American press. Encouraged by these evidences of favor, the publishers have determined to commence the new volume in January with still additional attractions, and to offer such inducements to subscribers as cannot fail to place it, in circulation, at the head of American magazines. With this view they now announce the following splendid programme. They have purchased that superb and costly steel-plate engraving,

"THE LAST SUPPER," and will present a copy of it to every three-dollar subscriber for the year 1858. It was engraved at a cost of over $6,000, by the late celebrated A. L. Dick, from the original of Raphael Morghen, after Leonardo Da Vinci, and is the largest steel-plate engraving ever executed in this country, being three times the size of the ordinary $3 engravings. The first impressions of this engraving are held at $10, and it was the intention of the artist that none of the engravings should ever be offered for a less sum than $5, being richly worth that amount. Thus every three-dollar subscriber will receive the Magazine one year—cheap at $3—and this splendid engraving, richly worth $5; thus get-ting for $3 the value of Eight dollars. We shall commence striking off the engravings immediately, yet it can hardly be expected that impressions of so large a plate can be taken as fast as they will be called for by subscribers. We shall, therefore, furnish them in the order in which sub-scriptions are received Those who desire to obtain their engravings early, and from the first impressions, should send in their subscriptions without delay The engraving can be sent on rollers, by mail, or in any other manner, as subscribers

In addition to the superb engraving of "THE LAST SUPPER," which will be presented so every three-dollar subscriber for 1858, the publishers have completed arrangemente for the distribution, on the 25th day of December, 1858, of a series of splendid works of art, consisting of one hundred rich and rare Old Paintings, valued at from $100 Engravings. worth from $3 to $5 each. and 1,000 choice Holiday Books, worth from $1 to $5 each, making, in all, over THREE THOUSAND GIFTS, worth TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS.

Inclose $3 to the publishers and you will com mence receiving the Magazine by return mail. You will also receive with the first copy a numbered subscription receipt entitling you to the Engraving of "THE LAST SUPPER," and a chance to draw one of these "Three Thousand Prizes."

REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD SRESCRIBE FOR EMERSON'S MAGAZINE FOR 1858. First: Because its literary contents will during the year, embrace contributions from over one hundred different writers and thinkers, num bering among them the most distinguished of A-Second: Because its editorial departments, "Our Studio," "Our Window," and "Our Olio," will each be conducted by an able edisor-and it will sur pass, in the variety and richness of its editorial ontents, any other magazine. Third : Because it will contain during the year nearly six thousand original pictorial illustrations designs by the first American artists. Fourth : Because for the sum of $3 you will reeive this splendid monthly, more richly worth that sum than any other magazine, and the superb engraving of "The Last Supper," worth $5. Fifth: Because you will very likely draw one of the three thousand prizes to be distributed on the 25th day of December, 1858-perhaps one that is worth One Thousand Dollars Notwithstanding that these extraordinary inducements can hardly fail to accomplish the objects of the publishers without further efforts, yet they have determined to continue through the year THE GREAT LIBRARY OFFER.

To any person who will get up a club of twenty four subscribers, either at one or more post-offices, we will present a splendid Library, consisting of over Forty Large Bound Volumes, embracing the most popular works in the market The club may be formed at the club price, $2 a year, without the engraving, or at the full price, $3, with the engra-ving of The Last Supper to each subscriber. List and description of the Library, and specimen copy of the magazine, will be forwarded on receipt of 25 cents. Over 200 Libraries, or 8,000 volumes, have already been distributed in accordance with this offer, and we should be glad of an opportunity to furnish a Library to every clergyman, to every school teacher, or to some one at every postoffice in the country.

AGENTS GETTING RICH. The success which our agents are meeting with is almost astonishing. Among the many evidences of this fact, we are permitted to publish the following :-GENTLEMEN-The following facts in relation to what your Agents are doing in this section, may be of use to some enterprising young man in want of employment. The Rev. John E. Jardon, of this lace, has made, since last Christmas, over $4,000 in his agency. Mr. David M. HO! YE HUNGRY AND THIRSTY!

The appeasing of hunger and the quenching of thirst, is a matter that has attracted the atention of many wise heads in various ages of the world. What conclusions they have arrived at, and what theories they have propagated, it is needless to mention here. In these latter days men have conceived the idea that the "inner man" can be at least bountifully supplied by means of restaurants. With this laudable purpose in view, and a desire to gain a livelihood, the undersigned has fitted up an elegant saloon in the basement of Merrell & Carter's new building on Second Street, Clearfield, Pa.
