

THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., SEPT. 1, 1858.

See advertisement of "Black-smith wanted" also Election Proclamation.

A FALL.—On last Saturday afternoon, a little son of H. H. Morrow, of the Clearfield House, fell down the steps into the cellar, stunning him, and bruising him considerably.

FIRE!—Mr. Patrick Mulvaney having leased the bank of Judge Moore, is prepared to supply our citizens with coal at reduced rates. We direct attention to his advertisement in another column of this paper.

ACCIDENT.—On Monday, Mr. John Guelich, of this borough, was engaged in the woods at cutting a log, the end of which was lying on the stump, when the log broke off suddenly, and falling across it, he struck his side on a knot with such force that several of his ribs were broken.

THE WEATHER.—During the last eight or ten days we have had unusually cool weather, the atmosphere feeling more like that of November than of August. "Jack Frost" has been loitering about the buckwheat and corn-fields, and we understand that in some places he has done considerable injury to those crops, especially to the buckwheat.

REGULATE YOUR TIME.—By referring to our advertising columns it will be seen that Mr. H. F. Naugle, recently from C. Rishe, has commenced the Clock and Watch-making business in this place. He comes well recommended as a good workman, and we have no doubt that he will render entire satisfaction to all who may favor him with their custom.

IN THE PENITENTIARY.—Sheriff Reed and Constable Denmark in the latter part of the past week conveyed Thomas Zelitzki, who was convicted of robbing Kratzer's store, to the Western Penitentiary in Allegheny City. Warden, who was sent there some months ago for horse-stealing, is said to be a good shoemaker, and Ullman, another Representative from this county, we understand, has been promoted to the position of instructor of cordwainers.

A NEW "POCK."—We publish the following epistle, verbatim et literatim, as a sample of some of the literary curiosities which editors frequently receive:—

Ang 28th Ad 1858
Mr Row sir I will write a few verses for your paper if you will accept it And if you will put this in your paper I will send you som more

Written for the rafmanes Jernal
Sound the stage horn Blast
The trump that the Walling
World may know perchance it
Throughout our borders
Even unto Mexico

Seize your pen o dreaming poet
And in numbers smooth as maby
spread afar the joy ful tidings
Betsy got Another Baby
Boggs to Clearfield co pa

We presume the interesting event alluded to in the "pome" was enough to elate the author and prompt him to give vent to his ecstatic "pheelicins" in a poetic strain, and as he appears anxious to have it in print, we give it a place in our columns, especially as he promises to send "som more."

IRON CITY COMMERCIAL COLLEGE, PITTSBURGH, PA.—Number of students attending this institution is now 300—more than treble at any similar school in the country. It is a model, well furnished counting house of four large halls, 20x40, 22x80, 22x70, 42x30 feet, and is conducted by a Faculty of fourteen experienced teachers and practical business men. The course of study being the most thorough and practical—Teachers of writing always obtaining the medals here, also in eastern and western cities—Low prices of board and tuition—Healthiest city in the Union—Success of its graduates—Best location for gaining a situation—cause this to be the largest Commercial School in the Union, making it the most desirable College for business men in any part of the country. For Circular and Specimens of Writing, address F. W. JENKINS, Pittsburgh, Pa.—Pittsburgh Gazette.

OPENING OF THE ENGLISH STATE PAPER OFFICE.—Hitherto the history of the American colonies has been lacking in some vital parts, owing to the restrictions placed upon access to or use of the records preserved in the State Paper Office in London. The policy of the English government has undergone a change. It is now considered that nothing can be lost by an exposure of the secrets which up to a recent date have been so rigidly guarded; and at the present moment it is not more difficult to obtain access to any of the records of the State Paper Office during the period of the colonial history of the United States, than to the books of a well-regulated library. For two or three years Sir John Romilly has been occupied in having them duly catalogued and indexed. The records of the office will and much valuable matter to the history of the original thirteen States, and to some more than that of New York. A correspondent of the Richmond Enquirer sends that paper some documents which show the records are likely also to throw side lights upon the history of many men of the era.

The fact is, perhaps, not generally known, that when in Oliver Cromwell's time, the Waldenses were so cruelly persecuted by the Church of Rome, he called for collections to relieve their necessities in all the churches of the Puritans and Covenanters in Great Britain. So heartily was this responded to, that a considerable surplus was left after their wants were supplied, which remained in the British Treasury; and this fact coming to the knowledge of the Government, it was agreed that the funds should be set apart for the support of the Vaudois pastors. Accordingly, each of them, sixteen in number, receives annually £40 from the Bank of England. The source of another fact of their support is even more singular. When Napoleon conquered Italy he confiscated certain properties belonging to the church of Rome and made them over to the Vaudois. By the treaty of Vienna, after Napoleon's overthrow, this arrangement was permitted to remain undisturbed, and in consequence of it, each of the Vaudois pastors receives £20 sterling a year. Taking into view the simplicity of their manners, and the circumstances of the country, the £60, or $300 thus provided for them, afford an ample support. It is certainly a remarkable fact in history, to find Cromwell and Bonaparte united in producing such a result.—Banner of the Cross.

In England, there is at present a great deal of talk in regard to the world's population. Great Britain has felt that unfortunate revision as severely as ourselves. Like us, it is now dull and spiritless in business.

A distinguished Berlin professor has lately published a paper in regard to the world's population, in which he arrives at the conclusion that the globe is at present inhabited by twelve hundred and eighty-three millions of people.

A lady was taken by surprise in Mississippi the other day. At least we judge so from the fact that John B. Surprise was married to Sallie A. Stocks—fancy stocks!—on the premises. They will probably have little "surprises" occasionally.

A female correspondent of a St. Louis paper speaks of a sight she saw lately, that made her sneeze her lips. It seems a pity that the ladies in that city have to smother their own lips. In this kind of a man are always ready to save them that trouble.

It is stated that the father of a lady in the vicinity of New Bedford, Mass., recently presented her with a check—good as wheat—for 30,000, in view of her matrimonial alliance. Truly she is a checkered life as that wouldn't be hard to lead. We wish somebody would endeavor to "check" our career in that way.

A man in Allegheny county recently got drunk and whipped his wife. She threatened to leave him, and he begged her to stay. "A Casket of Gems of Wit and Wisdom."

A THOUSAND AND ONE STORIES, OF FACT AND FANCY, WIT AND HUMOR, RHYME AND REASON, WIT AND WISDOM, GOODNESS—(PETER PARLEY). One volume, large Octavo, handsomely bound in red morocco, with gilt side and back; containing 750 pages, and illustrated by 200 Beautiful Engravings.—The design of this book is to bring before the reader in a single volume—to furnish a mental meal for every day and every hour—for every taste, humor, age, caprice—a book for the grave and gay, the old and young, we have, in fact, Science and Philosophy, Rhyme and Reason, Wit and Wisdom, and Fancy, which, put together as they come, produce a sort of intellectual plum pudding, inasmuch as the whole is peppered and spiced with humor, common sense, and dry wit, and every thing of a garish of three hundred engravings.

In these pages are given: the essence of thought and sentiment from Goethe, Sydney Smith, Sam Johnson, and many others; clerical anecdotes; historical eccentricities; Western extracts; gazettes, gathered from the four winds of the Press; outlines of the tales of Don Quixote and Gil Blas; of the Fables of Flavian and LaFontaine; of the epic poems of Jerusalem Delivered, Telemachus, Orlando Furioso, and others; of the Life and sayings of Mrs. Partington and the Widow Bedott; of the Bunsby Papers and the Green Mountain Girls; of the Life of Sam Houston, Gerard the Non-Killer, Columbus the elephant tamer, and Livingston the giraffe-chaser; of Stevens' Travels in Egypt and Palestine, Paul and Virginia, Alexander Dumas the Swiss Family Robinson, Mr. Gliddon and Sam Patch; with spicy citations of prose and poetry, from the most celebrated authors of every country, from Bryant, Bayard Taylor, Dr. Kane, Commodore Perry, etc. It furnishes also, a fund of information for the serious—the Natural History of the Bible, which is a subject of extensive interest; striking facts in Astronomy, Chemistry, and Natural History; remarkable Biographies, interesting Travels, and Wonderful Discoveries in Art and Science.

Peter Parley, the editor of this book, has a world-wide reputation, as an author—his writings having become familiar as household words wherever the English language is spoken.
