THE RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL,

FIGHT WITH A BEAR .- At Woodland, Ulster | county, New York, on Sunday, two brothers, John and Mat. Schoonmaker, with no weapons but their pocket knives, and no companions but their two dogs-one a fox-hound, the other a water-spaniel-had a rough and tumble fight with a bear. Part of the time the bear had the upper hand, and part, the men and dogs; but in a lucky moment the spaniel got the bear fast by the hind leg, and then, as he turned over to give the dog his quietus, the hound seized the opportunity and the bear, too, by the under jaw, and so the two pinned him to the ground, when John thrust a heavy stake into his mouth, and placing his knee on the bear's head, proceeded, with but a sorry specimen of a jack-knife, to perform the operation of tracheotomy upon Bruin's throat, and killed him. It proved to be a genuine black bear, one of the red-nosed and most savage kind, and weighed, when dressed, some 300 pounds.

A Green-Looking Chap from the Green Mountain State, went over the line and on to Montreal, "to look reound a lectle." Going into a large and handsome dry-goods store, his verdancy attracted the attention of the proprietor, who attempted to quiz him; but unhappily having an im-p-p-p-pediment in his began. "Mr. Bull wished to know if you can tell him why Balaam's ass spoke ?" "Wa'al," says Jonathan, "I rayther guess as how that Balaam was a stutterin' man, and his ass had to speak for him !"

Sam Slick says: "I believe every critter in the world thinks he is the most entertainin' one in it, and there's no gettin' on anyhow without him. Conceit grows as natural as the hair on ones head, but is longer in comin' out."

Goop ADVICE .- Never abuse one who was once your bosom friend, however bitter now. Never hire servants who go in pairs-as sisters, cousins, or anything else. Never speak contemptuously of womankind.

Aunt Betsy has said many good thingsamong the rest, that a newspaper is like a wife, because every man ought to have one of his own. Aunt Betsy was right that time.

-A CARD FROM DR. JAMES M. JAR-RETT, OF THE NEW-YORK LUNG IN-FIRMARY .- My connection for the past eight years with the above Institution, as Chief Physician, and a twelve years' course of steady devotion to the Cure of Pulmonary Consumption and its kindred diseases, together with my unrivalled op-portunities and advantage of pathological research aided not a little by a perfect system of Medical Inhalation-has enabled me to arrive at a deci-sive, direct, and successful course of treatment for the positive and radical cure of all diseases of the Throat, Lungs, and Air-passages. By Inhalation, the vapor and curative properties of medicines are directly addressed to the diseased organs of the integument. I do not advise the use of Medical Inhalation of any kind, to the exclusion of general treatment: and although I consider it a useful ad-juvant in the proper management of those fearful and often fatal diseases, yet I deem it very neces-sary that each patient should have the benefit of both general and local treatment. The success of my treatment in the above diseases, and the high character of the Institution over which I have se long had the honor to preside, are too well known to need any eulogy or comment from me. At the solicitation of many private and professional friends, through whose philanthropic aid the above charity has been long and liberally supported and after due consideration, I have concluded to make such arrangements as will bring the benefits of my experience and treatment within the reach of all. and not confine myself, as heretofore, to those only who entered the Infirmary, or who were able to visit me at my office. Hoping therefore that the arrangement will give entire satisfaction, both to my professional brethren and the public, I would respectfully annonnee in conclusion, that I can now be consulted personally or by letter, on all dis cases as above, and that the medicines, the same as used in the Institution, prepared to suit each individual case. Inhaling Vapors, Medical Inha-ters. &c., &c., will be forwarded by express to any part of the United States or the Canadas. TERMS -My terms of treatment by letter are as follows. $12 per month for each patient, which will viz: nclude medicine sufficient for one month's use; also, Inhaling Vapor, and an Inhaling Apparatus. Payment as follows : $6 to be paid to Express Agent on receipt of the box of Medicine, and the balance S6 at the expiration of the month, if the patient be cured or is entirely satisfied with the treatment. Patients, by giving a full history of their case, and their symptoms in full, can be treatd as well by letter as by personal examination. Patients availing themselves of Dr. Jarrett's treatment may rely upon immediate and permanent relief, as he seldom has to treat a case over thirty days. Letters for advice promptly answered. For further particulars address JAMES M. JARRETT, M. D.

No. 820 Broadway, corner Twelth St., N. Y. P. S -- Physicians and others visiting the city are respectfully invited to call at the Infirmary, where many interesting cases can be witnessed, and where our improved apparatus for the inhalation of medicated vapor can be seen and inspected. udall, LL, D.olumes, octave .-This work contains upwards of 2,000 pages, is printed on fine paper, and handsomely bound in va-rious styles. It is illustrated by several engravings on steel, and numerous fue similes; among the former are two fine portraits of Jefferson. The fac similes embrace, among others, the original draft of the Declaration of Independence, in Jeferson's own hand-writing.

This is, in every sense, an authorized work; it was undertaken under the approbation of his fumily, and with an unreserved access to all the private papers of Jefferson in their possession; and has received the benefit of their recollections and opinions at every step. The work contains the expressions of Jefferson on every great public question which arose, from his advent to public life to his death-a period of his advent to public the to his death-a period of about sixty years, and embracing the whole form-ing period of the Republic. It contains Jeffer-son's heretofore unpublished family correspon-dence; selections from his finest published letters. state papers, etc., etc., etc.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

have been given with ungradging, untiring enthu-siasm "-New-York Tribune. "At length the public have a Life of Thomas Jef-ferson that is not only fascinating, and therefore sure to be popular, bu' one that will stand the es-sential historic test—that of accuracy and truth-fulness. It is seen that the ground-work of the whole is anthentic colemporary material, and of the highest order. To gather it has been the work of years. We would not compare this volume with that inimitable and incomparable biography of Boswell, and yet so faithful is the portraiture that Jefferson is made to draw of himself, that his nature, his very soul, is deliniated with a distinctness not unlike that in which Johnson stands out in the pages of Boswell. --Boston Post. "Imbued with that enthusiastic admiration of his subject, without which a biographer is rarely successful. Mr. Randall nevertheless does not seek to hide whatever faults he may find, either from himself or from the reader. He prints the picture as Cromwell insisted his should be painted, warts and all." The picture gains by this in life-like coloring, without losing any of its majestic propor-'-Albany Evening Journal. tions.'

"No one who runs his eye, however casually, o-ver this work, will fail to be satisfied that Mr. Randall has added very largely to the stock of the world's information about Jefferson, that he has had access to sources hitherto unexplored, and that he has done more than was ever done by any one before him to illustrate the personality of that great statesman."-N. Y. Evening Post. "We have read with delight Mr. Randall's captivating details of Mr. Jefferson's personal history which he has seduously gathered, and admirably grouped together, from a great variety of authen-tic sources, hitherto unexplored. Out of the tempt-ing richness of his materials, the able and clearsighted author has constructed a book, at once most entertaining and instructive-one that should be studied by every patriot of the land."-Rich-mond, Va., Enquirer. "There can be only one opinion as to the ability, general impartiality and industry which Mr. Randall has brought into combination in the composition of this biography. . . He has worthily executed a much wanted book."-Phil-Press.

"It will take place among the choicest classics of American literature, and be consulted by eve-ry future historian of this country."—Philadel-phia Evening Balletin.

"We like it because it neither conceals, palliates exaggerates, nor distorts, but approaches, in every instance, and in every particular, the career of the noble character whose opinions have done so much to shape the domestic and foreign policy of the notion he contributed so greatly to call interest existence." -N. O. True Delta.

HO! YE HUNGRY AND THIRSTY ! The appearing of hunger and the average The appeasing of hunger and the quenching of thirst, is a matter that has attracted the attention of many wise heads in various ages of the world. What conclusions they have arrived at, and what theories they have propagated, it is need-less to mention here. In these latter days men have conceived the idea that the "inner man" can be at least bountifully supplied by means of res-taurants. With this laudable purpose in view. and a desire to gain a livelihood, the undersigned has fitted up an elegant saloon in the basement of Merrell & Carter's new building on Second Street, Clearfield, Pa. One of the rooms is nestly furn-ished with carpets, stands, &c., and is designed for the accommodation of ladies. He has had considcrable experience in the business, and therefore flatters himself able to render satisfaction. During the summer he will constantly keep on hand the best quality of tee Cream and Cakes of various kinds. He will also keep a large stock of Candies, Nuts, Oranges, Lemons Figs, Dates, Prunes, Raisens, and fruits of all kinds generally kept in such an establishment. Sardines, Spiced Oysters, Bologne Sausage, Crackers, Boiled eggs, &c., can be had at all times.
