IMPORTANT TO TOBACCO CHEWERS.

Dr. Gustav Linnard's Tusic Restorative Trockes, the Great Substitute for Tobacco.—It is a well known and incontrovertable fact that the use of Tobacco is the promoting cause of many of the most severe MENTAL AND PHYSICAL disorders to which the race of man is subject, as cureful analasis and long and painful experience have clearly proven that it centains certain narcotic and poisonous properties most dangerous in their effects, which by entering into the blood derange the functions and operations of the Heart, causing many to suppose that organ to be seriously diseased. TOBACCO affects also she cutire nervous system. manifesting itself-as all who have ever used the noxious weed will bear testimony—in Lassitude, Nervous Irritability, Water Brash, Dyspepsia, and many other disorders of a similar character. The "Taste Restorative Troches" are designed to counteract these baneful influences, and have proved completely successful in a multitude of cases, and wherever used. Being harmless in themselves they exert a beneficial effect upon the entire system, restoring the Taste which has become vitiated or destroyed by great indulgence, complete ly removing the irritation and accompanying tickling sensation of the Throat-which are always consequent upon abstaining from the use of To-bacco, and by giving a healthy tone to the Stomach, invigorate the whole system.

"A Casket of Gems of Wit and Wisdom." A THOUSAND AND ONE STORIES, 2500 Gold Pencils, (Ladies'.) A Of Fact and Fancy, Wit and Humor, Rhyme, Reason, and Kamance, Edited by S. G. GOODEICH—(PETER PAULEY.) One volume, large Octavo, handsomely bound in red morocco, with rilt side and back; containing 750 pages, and Il-Instrated by 300 Beautiful Engravings.—The design of this book is to bring whole libraries into a single volume—to furnish a mental meal for every lay and every hour-for every taste humor, age. eaprice-a book for the grave and gay, the old and young; we have, therefore, Science and Phyloso-phy, Rhyme and Reason, Wit and Wisdom, Fact phy, Rhyme and Reason. Wit and wiscons, and Fancy, which, put together as they come, produce a sort of intellectual plum pudding, inasmuch as the whole is peppered and spiced with puns, community and drolleries, to say nothing of a garnish of three hundred engravings.

In these pages are giver the essences of thought and sentiment from Goethe. Sydney Smith, Sam-Johnson, and many others; elerical anecdotes, Hibernian eccentricities, Western extravaganzes, gathered from the four winds of the Press; outlines of the tales of Don Quixote and Gil Blas; of the Fables of Flavian and Lafontaine; of the epic poems of Jerusalem Delivered, Telemachus, Orland Furioso, and others; of the Life and Sayings of Mrs. Partington and the Widow Bedott; of the Bunshy Papers and the Green Mountain Girls; of the Life of Sam Houston, Gerard the lion-killer, Cummins the elephant-destroyer, and Livingston the giraffe-chaser; of Stevens Travels in Egypt and Palestine, Paul and Virginia, Alexander Dumas the Swiss Family Robinson, Mr. Gliddon and Sam Patch; with spicy citations of prose and po etry, from the master-spirits of the day-Longfel-low, Bryant, Bayard Taylor, Dr. Kane, Commodore Perry, etc. If furnishes also, a fund of in-formation for the serious—the Natural History of the Bible, which is a subject of exhautless interest; striking facts in Astronomy, Chemistry, and Natural History; remarkable Biographies, inter-esting Travels, and Wonderful Discoveries in Art

Peter Parley, the editor of this book, has a worldwide reputation, as an arthor-his writings having become familiar as household words wherever the English language is spoken. This is his last wark, and we predict for it a popularity equal, if not superior, to that acquired by any of his former publications. Let This work will be sold exclusively by subscription, at the low price of $3.50. Agents wanted in all parts of the country to obtain a bandless for it. Specimen copies will be tain subscribers for it. Specimen copies will be sent by mail, prepaid, to any address on receipt of the price. For full particulars address
