SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN.—PROSPEC. TUS .- Volume Fourteen begins Septembe 11, 1858.-MECHANICS, INVENTORS, MANU FACTURERS AND FARMERS .- The Scientific American has now reached its Fourteenth Year, and will enter upon a New Volume on the 11th of Soptember. It is the only weekly publication of the kind now issued in this country, and it has a very extensive circulation in all the States of the It is not, as some might suppose from its title, a dry, abstruse work on technical science; on the contrary, it so deals with the great events go-ing on in the scientific, mechanical and industrial worlds, as to please and instruct every one. If the Mechanic or Artizan washes to know the best machine in use, or how to make any substance employed in his business—if the House wife wishes to get a recipe for making a good color. &c.—if the Inventor. the Inventor wishes to know what is going on in the way of improvements—if the Manufacturer wishes to keep posted with the times, and to employ the best facilities in his business—if the Man of Leisure and Study wishes to keep himself familiar with the progress made in the chemical laboratory, or in the construction of telegraphs, steamaking railroads, representations of the construction of the ships, railroads, reapers, mowers, and a thousand other machines and appliances, both of peace and war-all these desiderata can be found in the "Scientific American," and not elsewhere. They are here presented in a reliable and interesting form. adapted to the comprehension of minds unlearned

A CARD FROM DR. JAMES M. JAR-RETT, OF THE NEW-YORK LUNG IN-FIRMARY .- My connection for the past eight years with the above Institution, as Chief Physi-cian, and a twelve years' course of steady devotion to the Cure of Pulmonary Consumption and its kindred diseases, together with my unrivalled op-portunities and advantage of pathological research -aided not a little by a perfect system of Medical Inhalation-has enabled me to arrive at a decisive, direct, and successful course of treatment for the positive, and radical cure of all diseases of the Throat, Lungs, and Air-passages. By Inhalation, the vapor and curative properties of medicines are directly addressed to the diseased organs of the integument. I do not advise the use of Medical Inhalation of any kind, to the exclusion of general treatment; and although I consider it a useful adjuvant in the proper management of those fearful and often fatal diseases, yet I deem it very neces-sary that each patient should have the benefit of both general and local treatment. my treatment in the above diseases, and the high character of the Institution over which I have so long had the honor to preside, are too well known to need any eulogy or comment from me. At the solicitation of many private and professional friends, through whose philanthropic aid the above charity has been long and liberally supported and after due consideration, I have concluded to make such arrangements as will bring the benefits of my experience and treatment within the reach of all, and not confine myself, as heretofore, to those only who entered the Inurmary, or who were able to visit me at my office. Hoping therefore that the arrangement will give entire satisfaction, both to my professional brethren and the public. I would respectfully announce in conclusion, that I can now be consulted personally or by letter, on all dis eases as above, and that the medicines, the same as used in the Institution, prepared to suit each individual ease. Inhaling Vapors, Medical Inha-ters. 4c., 4c, will be forwarded by express to any part of the United States or the Canadas. TERMS -My terms of treatment by letter are as follows. viz: $12 per month for each patient, which will medicine sufficient for one month's use; also, Inhaling Vapor, and an Inhaling Apparatus.

Payment as follows: $6 to be paid to Express Agent on receipt of the box of Medicine, and the balance S6 at the expiration of the month, if the patient be cured or is entirely satisfied with the treatment. Patients, by giving a full history of their case, and their symptoms in full, can be treated as well by letter as by personal examination. Patients availing themselves of Dr. Jarrett's treatment may rely upon immediate and permanent relief, as he seldom has to treat a case over thirty days. Letters for advice promptly answered. THE AGE.—NOW READY: THE LIFE OF THOMAS JEFFERSON, by Henry S. Rendall, LL. D.—In 3 volumes, octave.— This work contains upwards of 2,000 pages, is prin-ted on fine paper, and handsomely bound in va-It is illustrated by several engravings on steel, and numerous far simeles; among the former are two fine portraits of Jefferson. The fac simules embrace, among others, the original draft of the Declaration of Independence, in Jefferson's own hand-writing.
This is, in every sense, an authorized work; it was undertaken under the approbation of his family, and with an unreserved access to all the private papers of Jefferson in their possession; and has received the benefit of their recollections and opinions at every step.

The work contains the expressions of Jefferson on every great public question which arose from his advent to public life to his death—a period of about sixty years, and embracing the whole forming period of the Republic. It contains Jeffer-son's heretofore unpublished family correspondence; selections from his finest published letters, state papers, etc., etc., etc.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS. "No other Life of Jefferson ever publishedprobably none that ever will be published-can bear any comparison to this in thorougness, fullness of incident and conscientious fidelity.

This biography has evidently been a labor of love, and the years of patient, assiduous toil it has cost, have been given with ungrudging, untiring enthu-siasm."-New-York Tribune.

"At length the public have a Life of Thomas Jefferson that is not only fascinating, and therefore sure to be popular, bu one that will stand the esric test-that of accuracy and truthfulness. It is seen that the ground-work of the whole is authentic cotemporary material, and of the highest order. To gather it has been the work of years. We would not compare this volume with that inimitable and incomparable biography of Boswell, and yet so faithful is the portraiture that Jefferson is made to draw of himself, that his nature, his very soul, is deliniated with a distinctness not unlike that in which Johnson stands out in the pages of Boswell. "-Boston Post

"Imbued with that enthusiastic admiration of his subject, without which a biographer is rarely successful, Mr. Randall nevertheless does not seek to hide whatever faults he may find, either from himself or from the reader. He prints the picture as Cromwell insisted his should be painted The picture gains by this in life-like coloring, without losing any of its majestic proportions."-Albany Evening Journal.

"No one who runs his eye, however casually, over this work, will fail to be satisfied that Mr. Randall has added very largely to the stock of the world's information about Jefferson, that he has had access to sources hitherto unexplored, and that he has done more than was ever done by any one before him to illustrate the personality of that great statesman."—N. Y. Evening Post.

We have read with delight Mr. Randall's captivating details of Mr. Jefferson's personal history, which he has seduously gathered, and admirably grouped together, from a great variety of authentic sources, hitherto unexplored. Out of the tempting richness of his materials, the able and clearsighted author has constructed a book, at once most entertaining and instructive-one that should be studied by every patriot of the land."-Richmond, Va., Enquirer.

"There can be only one opinion as to the ability, general impartiality and industry which Mr. Handall has brought into combination in the composition of this biography. He has worthily executed a much wanted book."—Phil-

"It will take place among the choicest classics of American literature, and be consulted by every future historian of this country."-Philadelphia Evening Bulletin. "We like it because it neither conceals, palliates, exaggerates, nor distorts, but approaches, in every instance, and in every particular, the career of the noble character whose opinions have done so much to shape the domestic and foreign policy of the notion he contributed so greatly to call into existence."—N. O. True Dolta.
