The MOUNT VERNON HOTEL, Philadelphia, has been taken and opened by Mr. A. M. Hopkins, who will use every effort to render satisfaction to all who favor him with their custom. The house is well known to many in this section, who will doubtless be pleased to stop there when visiting the city.

A Good CHANCE .- We call attention to the advertisement in another column, offering the property of tleo. J. Kyler for rent. This is one of the best farms and tavern stands in the county, lying as it does, at the junction of four or five public roads, all of which are extensively traveled. The buildings are good, and there is a large orchard of choice fruit. This is an excellent opportunity for any one desiring to go into a profitable business. It is necessary to apply soon, as a contract must be closed with some person capable of taking charge of the property, in a very short time.

To Make Towaton Catsur -Take one half bushel of ripe tomatoes, two quarts of onions, one half dozen common size red peppers, (if not quite ripe no matter). Cut your onions and peppers fine and place them over a good fire to stew, in a pint of water. Wash your tomatoes, cutting up the large ones, and put them all in another kettle with one gallon of water over a slow fire, and boil till soft, stirring often to keep from burning to the kettle When soft remove from the fire and strain them through a wire seive, rubbing them with the bottom of a tin cup or dipper until all but the seeds and skins are pressed through. These you will place in a cloth strainer and express the juice ent, and add it to that which you have pressed through the seive. Add the onions and peppers, and again place the whole over a slow fire, boil down one half, add salt to please the taste, and let it boil a few minutes, and remove from the fire. Then add, two quarts of good vinegar, and fire. Then add, two quarts of good vinegar, and the Ohio corn erop will be an abundant one and thinks that the farmers who anticipate a contrary on the side in a cool place This catsup improves result were more scared than hurt. with age, and will keep any length of time without souring.

We are indebted to Gen. A. M. Ilills for the above recipe.

The Hon. Robert J. Walker, when he was in the United States Senate, was the leader of the Democracy of that body. From the Senate he went into Mr. Polk's Cabinet as Secretary of the Treasenry, and, in that capacity, made himself the idol of the Democracy every where. When the Buehanan Administration appointed him Governor of Kansas, the whole Democratic party hailed his selection as the best that could possibly have been made from the entire Union, and he was greeted with ten thousand enthusiastic expressions of Democratic gratitude for the devotion manifested by him to the interests of the Democratic party in condescending to accept an office that might not be deemed fully worthy of his transcendant ability. And now the Washington Union, the mouthpiece of the Administration, denounces Robert J. Walker as "a traiter and a swindler." Well. if which no alteration has been permitted to be traitors and swindlers are thus honored and trusted and lauded and idolized by the Democracy of the nation, what is Democratic honor or trust or

SENATOR BIGLER, in his speech at Clarion, on the next day. the 7th inst., predicted that Kansas would be admitted into the Union under the first constitution she may form, by an almost unanimous Northern and Southern Democratic vote. If so, why was the numerical condition of admission engrafted upon the English bill? What was the purpose of it? Was it a menace to compel the adoption of the Lecomptan constitution, but which the Administration never seriously intended to execute, if Lecompton, was (as it has been) rejected by the people of Kansas? Or has the Administration been compelled to come down a peg, in compliance with popular sentiment, that it may secure the re-election of some of its Northern adherents to the House ? Let the Senator explain

We are forry to say it-we do not wish to say it -but must, as faithful chroniclers, say it, namely ; Mctoria's daughter, Mrs. Princess of Prussia. quarrels with her husband; or, Mr. Prince of Prussia quarrels with Mrs. Princess-that is, they do not think exactly alike, and Mrs. Victoria is with the "happy pair," trying to tie the "true lovers' knot" a little tighter. "A Casket of Gems of Wit and Wisdom A THOUSAND AND ONE STORIES. A Of Fact and Fancy, Wit and Humor, Rhyme, Reason, and Romance, Edited by S. G. GOODBICH—(PETER PARLEY.) One volume, large Octavo, handsomely bound in red morocco, with gilt side and back; containing 750 pages, and Il- 2500 Ladies Gold Pens, with cases and holders, astrated by 300 Beautiful Engravings .- The design of this book is to bring whole libraries into a single volume-to furnish a mental meal for every day and every hour-for every taste humor, age, caprice-a book for the grave and gay, the old and young; we have, therefore, Science and Phyloso-phy, Rhyme and Reason. Wit and Wisdom, Fact and Faney, which, put together as they come, produce a sort of intellectual plum pudding, inasmuch as the whole is peppered and spiced with puns, conundrums, and drolleries, to say nothing of a garnish of three hundred engravings

In these pages are given the essences of thought and sentiment from Goethe, Sydney Smith, Sam Johnson, and many others; clerical anecdotes. Hibernian eccentricities, Western extravaganzes, gathered from the four winds of the Press; outlines of the tales of Don Quixote and Gil Blas; of the Fables of Flavian and Lafontnine; of the epic poems of Jerusalem Delivered, Telemachus, Orand Furioso, and others; of the Life and Sayings of Mrs. Partington and the Widow Bedott: Bunshy Papers and the Green Mountain Girls; of the Life of Sam Houston, Gerard the lion-killer, the Cummins the elephant-destroyer, and Livingston the giraffe-chaser; of Stevens Travels in Egypt and Palestine, Paul and Virginia. Alexander Du-mas the Swiss Family Robinson, Mr. Gliddon and Sam Patch; with spicy citations of prose and po etry, from the master-spirits of the day-Longfel low, Bryant, Bayard Taylor, Dr. Kane, Commo dore Perry, etc. It furnishes also, a fund of in-formation for the serious—the Natural History of the Bible, which is a subject of exhautless interest; striking facts in Astronomy, Chemistry, and Natural History; remarkable Biographies, interesting Travels, and Wonderful Discoveries in Art

Peter Parley, the editor of this book, has a worldwide reputation. as an arthor-his writings havwide reputation, as an arthor—his writings having become familiar as household words wherever the English language is spoken. This is his last work, and we predict for it a popularity equal, if not superior, to that acquired by any of his former publications. This work will be said excelusively by subscription, at the low price of $3.50. Agents wanted in all parts of the country to obtain subscribers for it. Specimen copies will be sent by mail, prepaid, to any address on receipt of the price. For full particulars address DERBY & JACKSON, Publishers
