THE RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL,

THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., SEPT. 29, 1858.

CHEAP LIKENESSES .- Mr. A. M. Hall, as will be seen by an advertisement in another column, has opened an Ambrotype Gallery in ple's tie'tet. Shaw's Row, opposite this office, where he is prepared to take likenesses at reduced prices.

Mysteriors .- Sometime in July last, we have been informed, a man named Conner, residing on Chest creek, in this county, started away from home for the purpose of attending | ded that ill health is sufficient excuse for breach of to some business at a Justice's office, we believe, and since then has not been seen or heard of. It is suspected that he has been toully dealt with, and the affair will in all probability be investigated in a proper manner.

PENNSYLVANIA ITEMS.

PREPARED FOR THE "RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL."

CAMBRIA COUNTY .- The new steam saw-mill of Darlington & Co., in White township, was destroyed by fire on the 7th inst. The mill had been in operation but a few weeks. Loss $4,000 to $5,000, without insurance. . . . It is rumored, that another Rolling Mill, for the manufacture of bar and rod iron, wagon tire, &c., is to be erected in Johnstown.... On the 19th, a little son of Mr. Reed, of Kernville, aged about two years, was scalded so severely as to cause his death in a few hours after the accident. . . . On the same day, the wife of Jacob Reighart, of Richland township, was thrown from her horse, and had her arm tractured below the elbow. . . . The residence of Mr. John Moreland, about one mile above Cambria furnace, with its contents, was destroyed by fire on the 22d. Mrs. Morelond was severely burned in attempting to put out the fire. . . . A little son of Theopholis Bojohn, on the 19th, fell off a coal wagon, and one wheel psssed over his breast and another over one of his legs, without doing him any injury.

CLINTON COUNTY .- On the night of the 16th inst., several houses in Lock Haven were entered by burglars, and goods of considerable value taken. A valuable watch, among other articles, was taken from the house of Mr. Mader. The residence of Mr. Hanna, on the opposite side of the river, was also entered, and the boarders robbed of their pocket change and loose jewelry. . . . The Democrat says street fights, drunken brois and night rowdyista are getting to be common occurrences in Lock Haven. . . . In the case of the Commonwealth vs. John Dubois, E. S. Lowe and others, who were charged with cutting the boom at Lock Haven in May last and letting out a large number of logs, the defendants were found guilty of riot, and the employers sentenced to pay a fine of $30,00 each and costs of prosecution, and the hands fined $5,00 each and costs.

MIFFLIN COUNTY .- On the 15th, the vicinity of Lewistown was visited by a heavy rain storm, which did considerable damage to bridges,&c., but worse than all, a young man named Adam M Curdy was drowned. He was on a fish basket, to which he held for two hours, but finally his hold relaxed and he was swept into eter Rity. The Roman Catholics are having a "protracted meeting" in Lewistown-two or three priests are in attendance. . . . Judge Stine lately fell from the loft of his barn, threaking his arm and a few ribs. He is doing . . W. P. Robison was thrown from a well.... W. P. Robison was thrown from a vehicle by his horse taking fright, breaking one of his legs.

WESTMORELAND COUNTY .-- A fire broke out at 2 o'clock, on the 21st inst., at Greensburg, and the stench is overpowering. in the stabling of Mr. J. Gilchrist. The wind

The gentleman and lady escaped without injuries.

Lycoming Coustr .- An Irishman engaged on the railroad, was drowned in the river, near the residence of John Cook, at Jersey Shore, on Thursday, 16th inst. He is said to have been intoxicated and was attempting to cross the river in a canoe when he lost his balance and fell out. His body was recovered on the following Tuesday, having arose near the place he was drowned.

A CAT RACE .- According to the Meuse, of Liege, (to be pronounced Meus on this occasion.) a match of this nature took place three nights ago in that town. Eighteen cats, belonging to different persons in the quarter of the city called the Outre-Meuse, were taken a distance of a league, and let loose at midnight. In exactly halt an hour one of the cats reached home, and carried away the prize; and all the others arrived in rapid succession. Three toms, whose roving disposition triumphed over every sporting sentiment, did not, however, make their appearance till after suprise. Their names have, consequently, been scratched out of all other subsequent sacing ongagements .- Galignani.

He was fined $100 for disturbing the peace, and will probably serve ten years in the penitentiary for the mayhem of his poor little daughter.

To Wonders will never cease. English himself, author of the Kansas bill, by which his name is made immortal, has turned traitor to his own han. tling and to the Administration, and in the hope to increase his small chance of re-election, has de clared his rendiness to vote for the admission of Kansas without regard to the population. English takes this position openly on the stump

De The town of Troy. Mo , has been long noted for its abounding wickedness and draukenness, gambling fighting and Sabbath breaking had held undisputed sway, until the first Sunday in last May, when a protracted meeting was commenced in a Presbyterian church, which resulted in the hopeful conversion of nearly seventy persons, including some of the most hardened characters in the place.

G INPORTANT TO TOT OF THE AGE. IMPORTANT TO TOBACCO CHEWERS. Dr. Gustav Linnard's Taste Restorative Troches, the Great Substitute for Tobacco - It is a well known and incontrovertable fact that the use of Tobacco is the promoting cause of many of the most severe MENTAL AND PHYSICAL disorders to which the race of man is subject, as cureful analasis and long and painful experience have clearly proven that it containscertain narcotie and polsonous properties most dangerous in their effocts. which by entering into the blood derange the functions and operations of the Heart. causing many to suppose that organ to be seriously diseased. TOBACCO affects also she entire nervous system manifesting itself-as all who have ever used the noxious weed will bear testimony-in Lassitude. Nervous Irritability, Water Brash. Dyspepsia, and many other disorders of a similar character. The 'Taste Restorative Troches'' are designed to counteract these baneful influences, and have proved completely successful in a multitude of cases, and wherever used. Being harmless in themselves they exert a beneficial effect upon the entire sys-tem, restoring the Taste which has become vitiated or destroyed by great indulgence, complete ly removing the irritation and accompanying tick-ling sensation of the Throat-which are always consequent upon abstaining from the use of To-bacco, and by giving a healthy tone to the Stomach. invigorate the whole system.

Persons who are irretrievably undermining their constitutions and shortening their lives, should use these Troches immediately and throw off the injurious and unpleasant habit of Tobacc Chewing.

One volume, large Octavo, handsomely bound in red moroceo, with gilt side and back; containing 750 pages, and H-Instrated by 300 Beautiful Engravings.-The design of this book is to bring whole libraries into a single volume-to furnish a mental meal for every day and every hour-for every taste humor. age. caprice-a book for the grave and gay, the old and young; we have, therefore, Science and Phyloso-phy. Rhyme and Reason. Wit and Wisdom, Fact and Fancy, which, put together as they come, pro-duce a sort of intellectual plum pudding, inasmuch as the whole is peppered and spiced with puns, conundrums, and drolleries, to say nothing of a garnish of three hundred engravings. In these pages are given the essences of thought and sentiment from Goethe, Sydney Smith, Sam Johnson, and many others : elerical anecdotes, Hibernian eccentricities, Western extravaganzes, gathered from the four winds of the Press; out-lines of the tales of Don Quixote and Gil Blas; of the Fables of Flavian and Lafontaine; of the epic poems of Jerusalem Delivered, Telemachus, Or-land Furioso, and others; of the Life and Sayings of Mrs. Partington and the Widow Bedott; of the Burshy Papers and the Green Mountain Girls ; of the Life of Sam Houston, Gerard the lion-killer, Cummins the clephant-destroyer, and Livingston the giralfe-chaser; of Stevens' Travels in Egypt and Palestine. Paul and Virginia. Alexander Dumas the Swiss Family Robinson, Mr. Gliddon and Sam Patch; with spicy citations of prose and po etry, from the master-spirits of the day-Longfel-Bryant, Bayard Taylor, Dr. Kane, Commodore Perry. etc. It furnishes also, a fund of in-formation for the serious-the Natural History of the Bible, which is a subject of exhautless interest; striking facts in Astronomy, Chemistry, and Natural History; remarkable Biographies, inter-esting Travels, and Wonderful Discoveries in Art and Science.
