INBUMANITY AND DEATH .- Under this heading we find the following item going the rounds of the papers :--

"Some days ago, a stranger named Shepler, was found lying in a church four miles from N. Washington in Clearfield county, in ad :ing condition. The persons who found him were going to a prayer meeting, and it seems they had not time to set the good Samaritan, but left the stranger hungry and sick. The mext day he escaped from the church by erawling out through the window, (the door having been locked,) and made his way to near New Washington, and stopping at a farm house, the first thing he did was to drink a very large quantity of water, and afterwards eat a small piece of bread and butter. He staid all night at this house and cat some breakfast, when he passed on through the village a short distance beyond which he was seen to stagger and fall into a fence corner. evidently in a fit. The people gathered but all refused to care for him any further than to lay him in a wagon maker's shop, on a bed of shavings, where he refused to take any nourishment, but lingered out a miserable existence until Sunday evening when he died. He said he had some friends in Johnstown. and relatives in Harrisburg. He also asserted that he was from Cincinnati."

We were at New Washington a few days since and made special inquiry about the matter, and find there is not a word of truth in it. Nothing of the kind occurred there, and no one can conceive how such a ridienlous story gained currency.

SHOOTING AFFAIR .- Mr. Jacob Barr of Bennett's branch was brought to town on Monday last charged with attempting to shoot Phillip Chambers, " We have not been able to obtain full particulars, but the story runs about thus: A misunderstanding existed between the parties, and Chambers went to or near Barr's house and talked something about ing lands to store them on. shooting, having at the same time, a revolver or something of the kind in his hand; upon out his trusty rifle and told his assailant that if any shooting was to be done he would have a share. What then followed we know not, but no lives seem to have been lost, and no powder wasted. Both parties however made information, and Mr. B's share of that performance seems to have been his trip to the county boarding house, unless he can procure bail. This comes of making an unlawful use of those weapons which should never be turned by man against his fellow except in legitimate warfare .- Republican, Oct. 6th.

FINE House .- It is a noteworthy fact that of late the citizens of this county are paying more attention to the creetion of good buildings. In passing through Barnside township. a Jew days since, we noticed that our friend James McMurray has nearly completed one of the largest and finest brick houses in the county. There is much taste displayed in its location and style of srchitecture, and Mr. McMurray is certainly deserving of praise to send the Eche negroes back to Africa. That is for the spirit and enterprize displayed in this just one per cent of the cost of sending a Southimprovement. His property is within the limits of the proposed county of Pine, and many are in favor of locating the county seat there, in the event of its formation. The situation is a beautiful one, and possessed of some advantages that should not be overlooked. We trust others, when about erecting new dwellings, will follow the example set by Mr. McMurray and put up neat, sabstantial and commodious buildings.

GOOD PROPERTY FOR SALE .- Any person desirous of purchasing a small farm, well sitnated, is directed to consult the advertisement of Wm. M. McCullough, Sr.

A valuable sawmill property located in Pike | the alarm bell. and Knox townships, is offered for sale, as will be learned by referring to an advertisement in another column.

Persecution of Protestants .- The person cution of the Maubenge Protestants commerces to awaken as much indignation as excitement among their co-religionists throughout France. Meetings are talked of, in order to get up a general petition to the Emperor, praying for themselves, and the punishment of the fanatic sub-prefect of Maubenge; for, as the Protestants justly remark, if the example of the sub-prefect be followed, or a bar not raised to religious persecution by the all-potent chief of the State, the cry of "Death to the Huguenots!" may again resound, and the

A THOUSAND AND ONE STORIES. A Of Fact and Fancy, Wit and Human, Rhyme, Reason, and Romance, Edited by S. S. Octava, handsomely bound in red morocco, with gilt side and back ; containing 750 pages, and Ilustrated by 300 Beautiful Engravings .- The design of this book is to bring whole libraries into a single volume-to furnish a mental meal for every day and every honr-for every taste humor, age, caprice-a book for the grave and gay, the old and Pike leading from Clearfield to Curwensville. It young: we have therefore. Science and Phyloso-has upon it a good house, a large spring-house phy, Rhyme and Reason. Wit and Wiscom, Fact with fresh water constantly flowing through it. It duce a sort of intellectual plum pudding, inasoven, and other out-houses, necessary for a country residence. There is upon said farm, a bank puns, conundrums, and drolleries to say nothing puns, conundrums, and drelleries, to say nothing of a garnish of three bundred engravings.

In these pages are given the essences of thought and sentiment from Goethe. Sydney Smith, Sam Johnson, and many others; clerical anecdotes, Hibernian eccentricities, Western extravaganzes, gathered from the four winds of the Press; ontlines of the tales of Don Quixote and Gil Blas; of the Fables of Flavian and Lafontaine; of the epic poems of Jerusalem Delivered, Telemachus, Orand Furioso, and others; of the Life and Sayings of Mrs. Partington and the Widow Bedott; of the GREATEST PAPER OF THE AGE !- A | Bunsby Papers and the Green Mountain Girls; of mas the Swiss Family Robinson, Mr. Glidden and Sum Patch; with spicy citations of prose and poetry, from the master-spirits of the day-Longfel-Bryant, Bayard Taylor, Dr. Kane, Commodore Perry, etc. It furnishes also, a fund of in-formation for the serious—the Natural History of the Bible, which is a subject of exhautless interest; striking facts in Astronomy, Chemistry, and Natural History; remarkable Biographies, interesting Travels, and Wonderful Discoveries in Art

Peter Parley, the editor of this book, has a worldwide reputation, as an arthor-his writings having become familiar as household words wherever the English language is spoken. This is his last work, and we predict for it a popularity equal, if not superior, to that acquired by any of his form-er publications. This work will be sold ex-clusively by subscription, at the low price of $350. Agents wanted in all parts of the country to obtain subscribers for it Specimen copies will be sent by mail, prepaid, to any address on receipt of the price.
