"Go," said Broadbrim, "it would delight thee to see him go."

The gentleman therefore purchases him, harnesses him before his wagon; but, to his surprise, he was as immovable as the Alps. He applies the whip, but nevertheless the horse is as still as death.

He then cries to the Quaker : me; you said this horse would go.

"Nay, friend," said the Quaker, "did I not tell thee it would delight thee to see him go? and I hope thee may have that pleasure."

And with this he left the sporting gent to get over the sell as best he could.

Dentists as well as apothecaries meet with Auditors . . Francis Pearce, queer customers at times. A man not long since called on a distinguished dentist and wanted some cavities in his teeth filled up .-The doctor examined his teeth carefully, and told him he did not see any cavities: but he must needs look again, for the man was confident there were several. The doctor looked and went away. A week or so after they met each other, and he asked about those teeth .-"Oh," said the man, "what's his name over here filled them for me; he found four holes -pretty large ones, too. I knew they were there." "Ah," replied the doctor, "I looked very carefully, and did not find any. "Well," said he, "he didn't find them till he drilled a spell."

THE PRESIDENT AND THE JEWS. It may be recollected that President Buchanan made use of the phrase, "all the nations in Christendom," in his answer to Queen Victoria's message transmitted by the Atlantic telegraph .-This expression gave offence to Dr. Isaac Kilisch, rabbi of the Ben Jeshuram congregation in the city of Milwaukie, who wrote to the President, demanding an explanation. It would seem that the worthy Israelitish teacher revolted at the assumption implied in the term "Christendom." Mr. Buchanan replied disclaiming all intention "to east any reflection upon the Jews."

RETT, OF THE NEW-YORK LUNG IN-FIRMARY —My connection for the past eight years with the above Institution, as Chief Physician, and a twelve years' course of stendy devetion to the Cure of Pulmenary Consumption and its kindred diseases, together with my unrivalled op-

portunties and advantage of pathological research —aided not a little by a perfect system of Medical Inhalation—has enabled me to arrive at a deciive. direct, and successful course of treatment for the positive and radical cure of all diseases of the Throat, Languand Air-passages. By Inhalation the vapor and curative properties of medicines are directly addressed to the diseased organs of the in-tegument. I do not advise the use of Medical Inhalation of any kind to the exclusion of general treatment; and although I consider it a useful adjavant in the proper management of those fearful and often fatal diseases, yet I deem it very necessary that each patient should have the benefit of both general and local treatment. The success of my treatment in the above diseases, and the high character of the Institution over which I have so long had the honor to preside, are too well known to need any enlogy or comment from me. At the solicitation of many private and professional friends through whose philanthropic aid the above charity has been long and liberally supported and after due consideration. I have concluded to make such arrangements as will bring the benefits of my experience and treatment within the reach of all. and not confine myself, as heretofore, to those only who entered the Infirmary, or who were able to visit me at my office. Hoping therefore that the arrangement will give entire satisfaction, both to my professional brethren and the public, I would respectfully announce in conclusion, that I ero now be consulted personally or by letter, on all dis eases as above, and that the medicines, the same as used in the Institution, prepared to suit each individual case. Inhaling Vapors, Medical Inha-ters &c., &c., will be forwarded by express to any part of the United States or the Canadas. Tenns My terms of treatment by letter are as follows. viz: 512 per month for each patient, which will nelude medicine sufficient for one month's use; also, Inhaling Vapor, and an Inhaling Apparatus.

Payment as follows: So to be paid to Express Agent on receipt of the box of Medicine, and the balance So at the expiration of the month, if the patient be cured or is entirely satisfied with the treatment. Patients, by giving a full history of their case, and their symptoms in full can be treat-ed as well by letter as by personal examination. Patients availing themselves of Dr. Jarrett's treat-ment may rely upon immediate and permanent relief, as he seldom has to treat a case over thirty lays. Letters for advice promptly answered. For

THE GREATEST BIOGRAPHY OF LIFE OF THOMAS JEFFERSON, by Hen-This work contains upwards of 2,000 pages, is printed on fine paper, and handsomely bound in va-It is illustrated by several engravings on steel, and numerous fac similes; among the former are two fine portraits of Jefferson. The fac similes embrace, among others, the original draft of the Declaration of Independence, in Jefferson's own hand-writing.

This is, in every sense, an authorized work; it was undertaken under the approbation of his fam-ily, and with an unreserved access to all the private papers of Jefferson in their possession; and has received the benefit of their recollections and opinions at every step.

The work contains the expressions of Jefferson on every great public question which arose from his advent to public life to his death—a period of about sixty years, and embracing the whole forming period of the Republic. It contains Jefferson's heretofore unpublished family correspon-dence; selections from his finest published letters, state papers, etc., etc., etc.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS. "No one who runs his eye, however casually, over this work, will fail to be satisfied that Mr Randall has added very largely to the stock of the world's information about Jefferson, that he has had access to sources hitherto unexplored, and that be has done more than was ever done by any one before him to illustrate the personality of that

"We have read with delight Mr. Randall's captivating details of Mr. Jefferson's personal history, which he has seduously gathered, and admirably grouped together, from a great variety of authentic sources, hitherto unexplored. HAMMONTON LANDS.-New England Settlement.—Rare Opportunity.—To all wanting Farms—in a healthy place, twenty-fine miles from Philadelphia, on the Camden and At-lantic Railroad, New Jersey. An old estate has recently been opened for sale, and the first division of 10,000 acres divided up into farms of 20 aeres and upwards. The soil is of the best quality for the production of fruits, grains, &c. The price is $15 to $20 per acre, payable in easy quarter yearly instalments, within a term of four with interest. The terms are made easy, in order to insure the rapid improvement of the land, by enabling every industrious man to buy a farm. is now being extensively improved by good roads, and some of the best citizens from New England and the Middle States are erecting large improve ments. It is a scene of the greatest improvement out of Philadelphia Seventy-five houses have been built in 4 months. Practical farmers and business men from the length and breadth of the I. nion are settling there. It is an important but ness place, on account of its being in the midst of a great market. Every article reised on this land finds an immediate sale. The water is excellent. and no such thing as fever is known. The soil is a sandy or clay loam, with a clay bottom and reentire of manures. It is free of stones and easily worked. It abounds largely in the phosphates and such is its fertility that from the crops produced both upon this land and the area adjoining under cultivation, it will be found not to be excelled anwhere in the production of crops most adapted to its market. The land, hesides being accessible in every way for fertilizers, has an abundant supply of the best puality of muck manure. Lumber and building materials can be had on the spot at a cheap price from the mits. Other mills are now being opened, and brickyards being started on the ground. A person can put up a rame tenement for present convenience for one undred dollars. On account of the extensive emigration, this is the best course to pursue in order oget a place to live in at first. Carpenters and builers are on hand to put up houses on the best terms. In settling here the emigrant has many advanages. He is within a few hours' ride of the great ities in the Middle States and New England; he is near his old friends and associations; he is in a settled country, whire every improvement and comfort of civilization is at hand; he is in a healthy place, and is not subject to the certainty of asing the greater part of his family and his own ealth by those malignant fevers which make the graves of so many millions of the young and harly in far off regions away from home and friends. Besides, he has a mild elimate and an open winter. There are three trains daily to Philadelphia, and to all these who improve the railroad company gives a free ticket.
