

THE RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL.

For the Raftsmen's Journal THE FAREWELL.

Farewell! we meet no more— No more on earth— The flowers that Hope hath sown Are withered in their birth.

Tax editor of the Lafayette [Ind.] Journal is pretty good on a sharp reply and a play upon words. A correspondent wished to know the reason of the bump on the Camel's back.

The way in which eastern people raise subscriptions is thus related: One of the churches of New Bedford, Mass., wished to raise the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, and, at the morning service, one Sunday, they appointed one of the influential brethren to fix upon a plan.

THE DEFINITION.—An Irish Democrat being asked to define in what the nationality of the Buchanan party consists, replied: "It is just for every man to do just as he pleases and to make every other man do just as he wants him to."

TERMS OF THE JOURNAL.—The RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL is published on Wednesday at $1.50 per annum in advance. If not paid at the beginning of the year, $2.00 will be charged.

COUNTY DIRECTORY.—Pres't Judge—Hon. James Burnside, Bellefonte, Pa. Atty' Judge—Hon. Wm. M. Moore, Clearfield.

CONSTABLES can be supplied with Blank Sales, by calling at the Raftsmen's Journal office, Clearfield.

REWARD.—Was stolen from the undersigned residing in Decatur township, on the night of the 1st of October, a HIVE of Bees. The above reward will be paid to any person or persons, who will give satisfactory information that will lead to the detection and conviction of the thief or thieves.

THE GREAT BIOGRAPHY OF THE LIFE OF THOMAS JEFFERSON, BY HEAVY S. RANDALL. In 3 volumes, octavo.—This work contains upwards of 1000 pages of fine paper, and handsomely bound in various styles. It is illustrated by several engravings on steel, and numerous fac-similes; among which are the original signatures of Jefferson, the original Declaration of Independence, and the original draft of the Declaration of Independence, in Jefferson's own hand-writing.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.—"No other work on Jefferson ever published—probably none that will be published—can bear any comparison to this in thoroughness, fullness of incident and conscientious fidelity. This biography has evidently been a labor of love, and the years patient and its majestic proportions, have been given with ungrudging, untrailing enthusiasm."—New York Tribune.
