A FINE CHANCE!

The approaching NovemberCourt will afford a good opportunity to persons in different parts of the county to transact business in this place. Those who are not called here themselves, can doubtless get their neighbors to attend to little matters that should not be put off. We have been for the last year very lenient with our patrons; but, as we are in need of money, we feel ourselves compelled to call upon those in arrears to give us some "material aid and comfort" at this time. We trust, therefore, that they will respond to our request liberally during the November Courts.

The Sierra Citizen, printed at Downleville, Ualifornia, under date of September 18th, contains the following paragraph :-

"ACCIDENT .- On Thursday last, Mr. Henderson, formerly of Pennsylvania, while at work on the Middle Fork of the Yuba, was caught in the windlass of a water-wheel derrick, and had his leg broken, and was otherwise injured."

The person named above is Mr. H. L. Henderson, who left Clearfield some months ago, and is well known to many of our citizens. We are sorry to hear of the accident that has

NEW FIRM AND NEW GOODS .- Mr. C. Kratzer and Sons have entered into partnership in the Mercantile Business in this place, and have received a large and varied stock of Seasonable Goods, which they offer to the public at the lowest cash prices, as will be seen by an advertisement in another column of this paper, to which we direct special attention.

SEASONABLE GOODS .- Wm. F. Irwin has received and opened his usual variety of Fall & Winter Goods, at his store in Clearfield, to which he invites the attention of purchasers. His stock was selected with a special view to the wants of this community, and will be sold at prices to suit the times. His advertisement will be found in another column.

THE MT. VERNON HOTEL, Nos. 117 and 119 Second street above Arch, is one of the best kept public houses in Philadelphia, since it has passed into the hands of Mr. A. M. Hopkins, and will doubtless be well patronized by its former customers who reside in Clearfield

A BEAR TREED BY A HORSE .- Bears are more numerous this season than for several years in the central counties of the State, and adventures with them are quite common. Mr. D. Cross, of Fairfield, who recently visited Eaton county, related to us an affair which occurred four miles east of Eaton Rapids, which presents an example of maternal care by a mare for her colt that is rarely exhibited by the korse kind, if it was not a hair breath adventure. A mare with a colt by her side, was feeding in a pasture, when she was approached by three bears-an old one and two cubs near ly full grown. Alarmed for the safety of her colt the mare forgot the usual fear of the horse for these animals, and attacked them with such vigor that they were forced to retreat. They were pursued so closely that one of them was compelled to seek safety, and remain in a tree until the owner of the mare, who had watched the whole proceeding, went to his house for a gun, returned and shot it .- Adelan, (M.chigun) Watch Tower.

A correspondent of the Springfield Repub. lican says that a natural daughter of Aaron Burr, and his residuary legatee, comes curionaly into possession of quite a fortune, in this way: Burr held a lease from Trinity church of the Richmond Hill property, three or four hundred lots in the centre of New York, for 66 years. He released the land for 63 years to Astor and others, and their lease expires in 1860. The lease for three years then belongs to Burr's daughter, and the claim is indisputable, and the value of the lease very great. Already several of the lessees have compromised the claim for from $1500 to $2000 per lot.

The Hon. J. Glancy Jones, the best-whipped man in the country, has accepted the appointment of Minister to Austria, which the president offered him in such hot baste after the news from Pennsylvania reached the White House. The Union of the 21st remarks that the appointment was "eminently fit to be We are glad to know what the Administration deems official fitness. What mafority against a Lecompton Democrat would entitle him to the Ministry to England ? What to the Ministry to France? Let us have the official scale, Mr. Buchanan. Let us have it before the November elections.

A NARROW ESCAPE .- Mr. Paul Grabbit possesses a philosophical turn of mind which enables him to extract consolation from the most depressing circumstances. Upon reading the election returns from Pennsylvania-we hardly need inform our readers that he is one of the stiffest-backed democrats in this region of stiff-backed democracy-he exclaimed, "Judas, didn't our tolks narrowly escape a severe drubbing in the old Keystone state," and then he added, saying as a sort of mental reservation, "those who stayed away from the polls, I meau."-Gloucester Telegraph.

Louisville, Ky. "A Casket of Gems of Wit and Wisdom A THOUSAND AND ONE STORIES. A Of Fact and Fancy, Wit and Humor, Rhyme, Reason, and Romance, EDITED BY S. G.

GOODRICH—(PETER PARLEY.) One volume, large Octavo. handsomely bound in red morocco, with gilt side and back; containing 750 pages. Instrated by 300 Beautiful Engravings. -The design of this book is to bring whole libraries into a single volume-to furnish a mental meal for every day and every hour-for every taste humor, age, caprice-a book for the grave and gay, the old and young; we have, therefore, Science and Phylosophy, Rhyme and Resson, Wit and Wisdom, Fact and Fancy, which, put together as they come, produce a sort of intellectual plum pudding. much as the whole is peppered and spiced with puns, conundrums, and drolleries, to say nothing f a garnish of three hundred engravings. In these pages are given the essences of thought and sentiment from Goethe. Sydney Smith, Sam Johnson, and many others; clerical anecdotes, Hibernian eccentricities, Western extravaganzes, gathered from the four winds of the Press; outlines of the tales of Don Quixote and Gil Blas; of the Fables of Flavian and Lafontaine; of the epic poems of Jerusalem Delivered. Telemachus. Orand Furioso, and others; of the Life and Sayings of Mrs. Partington and the Widow Bedott; of the Bunsby Papers and the Green Mountain Girls; of the Life of Sam Houston, Gerard the lion-killer, Cummins the elephant-destroyer, and Livingston the giraffe-chaser; of Stevens' Travels in Egypt and Palestine, Paul and Virginia, Alexander Dumas the Swiss Family Robinson, Mr. Gliddon and Sam Patch; with spicy citations of prose and po-etry, from the master-spirits of the day—Longfel-low, Bryant, Bayard Taylor, Dr. Kane, Commodore Perry, etc. It furnishes also, a fund of information for the serious-the Natural History of the Bible, which is a subject of exhautless interest; stribing facts in Astronomy, Chemistry, and Natural History; remarkable Biographics, interesting Travels, and Wonderful Discoveries in Art Peter Parley, the editor of this book, has a worldwide reputation. as an arthor—his writings hav-ing become familiar as household words wherever the English language is spoken. This is his last work, and we predict for it a popularity equal, if not superior, to that acquired by any of his form-er publications. If This work will be sold exclusively by subscription, at the low price of $350. Agents wanted in all parts of the country to obtain subscribers for it. Specimen copies will be sent by mail, prepaid, to any address on receipt of the price. For full particulars address
