TEMPERANCE MEETING .- The Washingtonian Temperance Society will hold its quarterly meeting on Monday the 15th day of November, at early candle-light, in the Court House. Several addresses may be expected on the oc- turkey, on Thursday night. easion. The public is kindly invited to at-G. PHILIPP GUELICH, Prest. tend.

LOST IN THE WOODS .- Last Friday, at noon, a party, consisting of George Smeall and two of his sons, Joseph Bailey, Calvin Bailey, Geo. of the cotton crop. Boal and Benj. Hartshorn, Jr., of Pike township, started out to hunt chestnuts, on the old Indiana road, between Neeper's and the Grampian Hills road that leads to Punxsutawney. Mr. Hartshorn was left to take care of the wagon and horses, and put up a shelter, whilst the others took to the woods. The party did not, however, return to the place of rendezvous agreed upon, that evening. Next morning Mr. H. fired his gun several times as a sigmal for the party, but hearing no response, he concluded they had lost themselves. With this impression on his mind, he hastened to Curwensville and induced a number of persons of that place and vicinity to go in search of his companions. No trace of them was, however, discovered until Sunday, about the middle of the day, when they were found. They had lost their way in the dense forest, and as the sun had been obscured by clouds both days, they had no guide by which to determine the proper course to pursue, and accordingly kept wandering around without being able to extricate themselves from their unpleasant situation. Having had nothing to eat for two days and nights, and exposed to the inclemency of the weather, (it having rained the greater part of the time,) when found they were in a hungry and suffering condition.

WHY IS IT ? that the road between Curwensville and Clearfield is in such a miserable condition. There is a large amount of travel constantly going on from the one place to the other, high tolls are charged, the road is well located, and yet chuck-holes and ruts have been left unrepaired all summer, and now that. Eve in Welsh, and scolded her in Guelie when the wet weather is setting in, the road will become almost impassable. We don't know where the fault lies, but it is certainly somewhere, and we trust steps will be immediately taken to have the road put in better condition.

THE SPECIAL COURT, called for this week, is now in session. The cause of Patchin vs. Lamburn, occupied the time and attention of the Court till last evening, when a verdict was rendered in favor of Patchin. The cause was tried before His Honor, Judge Fisher, of York, who won the esteem and good wishes of the members of the Bar, and all others who formod his acquaintance, by his affable and unas-
