THANKSGIVING DAY.

We, the undersigned, feel it to be our duty to commend a general and fitting observance of the day set apart by the Chief Magistrate of our Commonwealth as a day of public thanksgiving. We plead the cause of a beneficent Providence and entreat the churches and the citizens generally to acknowledge the goodness of God, and show their respect to the recommendation of their Chief Magistrate, by closing their stores, and shops and offices, and uniting in the public worship offered to the God of all our mercies.

Last week, Maj. Jacob Wilhelm retired from the Commissioners' office, and the newly elected member of the Board, Wm. McCracken, entered upon his duties. This week Sheriff Reed retires from his office, and Frederick G. Miller assumes the duties; Thos. J. McCullough also retires from the office of District Attorney and R. J. Wallace takes his station. We have no doubt that the new officers will discharge the duties of their respective positions with the same commendable efficiency and ability as did their predecessors.

In the night he stole 20 of Mr. Bevard's sheep, put them in with the 41, and in the morning sold the whole flock to Mr. Bevard.

MINISTER SHOT .- The Rev. P. E. Green, Methodist preacher in charge of the Warren Circuit, Mississippi, was shot at Mentalbon, a few days since, by a man named Fisher. The wound is supposed to be mortal. The cause of the shooting was that Fisher's wife had joined the church lately-and Fisher meeting Mr. Green, abused him terribly, and finally pulled out a pistol and shot him. The culprit-
