THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., NOV. 24, 1858.

WINTER .- Considerable quantities of snow have tallen in this region within the past two for Defts. or three days. Yesterday, notwithstanding it was somewhat slushy, we noticed several sleds and cutters passing along the streets. The jingle of the sleigh-bells sounded quite merry.

Tax Iren .- it is reported that this exceedingly troublesome disease is prevailing to some extent among the school children in this place. The matter should be investigated by the Directors, and if there are any who are afflicted in this way they should not be permitted to attend until thoroughly cured of the

NEW COURT HOUSE .- The Grand Jury, at a former Court, reported favorably to the erection of a new Court House in this place. Last week, upon the recommendation of the Court, the Grand Jury concurred in that report. The old Court House is entirely too small, and is not at all adapted to the wants of the County, and we trust, if we are to have a new one, that the work will be immediately contracted for and pushed forward vigorously.

THANESGIVING DAY was pretty generally observed in our place. The Court adjourned over till 2 o'clock, in order that all who felt disposed could attend public worship. A greater part of the stores, offices, shops, &c., were closed, and services were held in St. Andrews church by Rev. Dr. McLeod and in the Presbyterian by Rev. J. M. Galloway. It is always gratifying to see the request of the Chief Executive of the Commonwealth treated with respect by the people, who thus evince their appreciation of the manifold blessingscivil and religious-which they enjoy at the hands of a kind and beneficent Providence.

SINGULAR INCIDENT .- On Wednesday evening of this week, Mr. Terence Behan, of Lawrence township, was standing in the Court of Huston township. Nuisance. House during the evening session, when he suddenly fell to the floor, apparently lifeless. He was immediately taken to the "Mansion House" and a physician called, but it was some time before animation was restored. We saw Mr. B. the same evening, shortly after his recovery, and he informed us that he felt as well as usual both before and after his sudden illness and knew nothing of the incidents of it, except as they had been related to him by others .- Republican Nov. 18.

School Exhibition .- Last Friday evening, 19th inst., the public school in Curwensville gave an exhibition, which, we learn, was creditable to all concerned. After the delivery of a number of declamations, Mr. Still, our wor- | ignored. thy County Superintendant made some appropriate remarks; these were followed by the reading of a paper, composed of the contributions of scholars, which proved not only highly interesting, but elicited loud applause from the large and appreciative audience. The proceedings were enlivened by the performances of the Curwensville Saxe-Horn Band, which is composed of as fine and clever a set of musicians as can be found anywhere. The entire proceedings rendered general sat-

PROCEEDINGS OF COURT.

Last week, the regul r November Term of our Courts was held, and a large amount of business transacted, eleven cases having been tried in the Common Pleas, and fifteen in the Quarter Sessions. The Grand Jury also ignored 5 bills and found 13 true bills.

THE RAILROAD SAFE ROBBERS ARRESTED. A few days ago the boss painter in the railroad shops at Ft. Wayne, named Rivers, was arrested charged with being concerned in the late robbery of the Railroad safe, at that place, of a large amount of money, as has been heretofore announced by telegraph. Twelve thousand dollars of the money was recovered. He also implicated a German named Chrest, who being arrested, delivered up $5,000 of the stolen money. The valuable papers, tickets, &c., that had been stolen, were found in a corner of a fence, in the field in which the prisoners had hid the money. Both burglars are now in jail at Ft. Wayne.

A MAN CARRIED AWAY BY A KITE .- A VOUNG man named Power, residing at Castlecomer, termed a Spanish kite, of very large dimentions, and having adjusted the cord and tail, it rapidly ascended with a brisk breeze until it bad taken the full length of the cord, which became entangled round Power's hand, and the wind increasing, he was drawn a distance of half a mile in the greatest agony, the cord cutting into the bone.
