THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., DEC. 15, 1858.

A number of matters intended for this week's paper are unavoidably crowded out.

A Connection .- In noticing the fact of the freezing of Mr. Ellis, a couple weeks since, we said the Irishman who accompanied the unfortunate man, returned to Radebach s. This, it seems, was not the case, neither having been there that day. The Irishman returned about daylight to Connor's shanty. We make this correction, lest a wrong impression might be created by our former statement.

PINE COUNTY .- The friends of this new county are making a vigorous effort to have a bill passed this winter by the Legislature, for its formation. Petitions are in circulation, and a meeting was held on Wednesday evening last at New Washington for the purpose of determining upon the lines, and making such other arrangements as were deemed necessary. A letter, or circular, addressed to certain citizens of Pine county, in favor of the same, was last week circulated and numerously signed in this place, and many of our prominent citizens are thus pledged for the project. This begins to make it look as if the Pine county people may finally succeed in their undertaking.

"The Four Sisters," by Miss Bremer, is one of those novels, by this genial author, which have so pleasantly opened to us the doors of Swedish homes, warmed our hearts in their cheerful fireside glow, and made us familiar with the lights and shadows of Swedish life. The subject of the story is a woman's life and a woman's fate. The novel is full of rich humor, clever character painting, and felicitous descriptions of town life and country life, and in-door and out-door scenery in Sweden. The translation has been made by Mary Howitt. who seems born to do things remarkably well -write admirable stories of her own, and admirably translate the stories of Miss Bremer. We would advise all of our readers to obtain it and read it. It is published by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia, who will send a bound copy of it to any one, per mail, free of postage, on sending $1.25 in a letter to them."

PUBLIC MEETING .- In pursuance of a call, a large number of the citizens of Jordan township met at Ansonville school house on Saturday the 11th day of Dec. 1858. On motion, Robert Liddle was called to the chair, and W. B. Hegarty chosen Sec'y. The object of the meeting having been briefly stated by the President, which was to take into consideration the propriety of the removal of the county seat from Clearfield to Curwensville, on motion, John Swan, Isaac Haines, H. Swan, R. B. McCully and James Hunter were appointed a committee to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting. The committee, after retiring for a short time, reported the following, which were unanimously adopted :

The Courier and Inquirer says Brooklyn is the third or fourth city in the United States in point of population-it being computed at $220 .-The editors had better give the "mersheen" another turn.

The public expenditures for the current fiscal year are estimated by the Secretary of the Treasury at $73,217,947. John Quincy Adams was ousted from the Presidency because his administration spent $12,000,000 a year.

President's Message had been read in the U. S. Senate, and Mr. Bigler had moved for the printing of 20,000 extra copies, Mr. Hale, of New Hampshire, said that if the President had confined himself to an exposition of the relations of the country, he would not have taken this opportunity to make comments. But the President had abused his constitutional perogative, and gone out of his way to interpolate a history of Kansas not in accordance with the truth of history. He did agree most fervently in the President's gratitude that Providence had interposed at a critical juncture in our affairs. Nay, the teaching of Providence had been brought to the President's own State and town, and like Job, the good man, he feels the stripes yet blesseth the rod. Mr. Hale rejoiced that foreign affairs are so satisfactory, but he had expected the President would have enlightened the country as to the state of our relations with Austria, which required a new minister to be sent so immediately after the Pennsylvania election. Even as the English maiden, Florence Nightingale, who, with the plastic hand of female affection, tended the wounded, here we have the President in a similar character, hovering about the battle-field to pick up the wounded and send them to the Austrian hospital for recovery. Mr. Hale then went into further remarks on the subject of Kansas, the Amistad case, etc., and defended his party from the charge of being agitators.

Ecsolved. That we are in favor of removing the county seat from Clearfield to Curwensville.

Resolved, That Curwensville is a more central place, being on the public thoroughfare leaning from Erie to Tyrone.

Resolved. That as the citizens of Curwensville have pledged themselves to erect the public buildings in case of a removal, (which would be a saving to the taxpayers of Clearfield county of from thirty to forty thousand dollars,) that we will use all honorable means effect a removal of the county seat from Clearfield to Curwensville.

On motion, D. W. Wise, Isaac Haines, H. Swan, John Swan and Peter Bloom were appointed delegates to attend the meeting at Curwensville on Friday the 17th day of Dec. On motion, W. B. Hegarty, Peter Bloom, James Davison and H. F. Shoening were appointed to present petitions for signers. On motion, Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Raftsman's Journal and Clearfield Republican.

On motion, the meeting adjourned. ROBERT LIDDLE, Prest.

W. B. Hegarty, Sec'y.

There is no hope for the Treasury under our present Tariff. Mr. Buchanan tells us in his Message that the $10,000,000 additional which Mr. Cobb is authorized to borrow will soon be required ; and that the income of the next fiscal year, (after June, 1859,) will be but $62,-000,000, while the expenditures will go at least $11,000,000 higher. The public debt will be $65,000,000 on the 1st of July next. To overcome this deficit, it is proposed to limit the franking privilege and raise the postoge on letters to five cents.

RAILBOADS .- The number of miles of railway in the United States exceeds that in the rest of the world altogether by 2550. The number of railways completed in the United States is two hundred and seventy-four ; the number partially completed sixty-three; and the number in course of construction one hundred and seven. The number of miles now in operation is 21.310, which have been completed at a cost of $621,316,103. The number of miles in course of construction is 16.975. The permanent way of the American railways is, however, said to be of a very flimsy character compared with that of England.

Tuz AMISTAD CASE .- The President Duts his ples for the purchase of Cuba upon the ground that it is the only way to put an end to the detestable Slave Trade and secure the civilization of Africa; and almost in the same breath recommends the payment of the Amistad claim, which is simply the claim of some African Slave Traders whose slaves were liberated by the U. S. Supreme Court and sent back to Atrica. The motive for this inconsistancy is to be found in the desire to propitiate Spain as the first preliminary towards our purchase of Cuba from her. With the usual plantation and provincial sagacity of the statesmen of the South, the Court of Spain is expected to be mollified by paying this paltry claim of the Amistad, and in consideration thereof surrendering to the Yankee heretics the everfaithful Island of Cuba. If, however, the Slave Trade is so abominable and detestable as Mr. Buchanan says it is, insomuch that we yearly expend hundreds of thousands for its suppression, why should the Slave Traders of the Amistad be paid for being banked in their inworthy enterprise ? Is it usual to pay robbers and thieves for the stolen property taken from them ?- Pittsburgh Daily Gazette.

Three thousand six hundred dollars worth of goods were stolen from a store in New York, on Sunday evening a-week. A hole was made in the wall in the sixth story of the house adjoining. through which the robbers entered.

TFA Bull-Dog attacked General Tom Thumb's ponies lately, as he was riding to the Teutonic Hall, at Liverpool. The ponies ran at great speed, and it was with difficulty that the General was rescued. His valet was knocked down and injured. one of the ponies was seriously wounded, and the carriage broken.

ARIZONA AND ITS DELEGATE .- A new El Dorado has been found in Arizona. Lieut. Mowry, who came passenger in the last overland mail from Fort Yuma, reports that hundreds are flocking to the banks of the Gila, where gold exists in large quantities. A small city has suddenly grown up in one place. Silver is also found in abundance, and the Sonora Mining Company are reported to be smelting 1,000 ounces per week. The present population of Arizona is estimated at 15,000, threefourths of whom are Americans. Nearly 3,000 votes were cast at the recent election for delegate to Congress, most of which were given for Lieut. Sylvester Mowry, U. S. A. As Arizons will probably be organized into a Tertitory this session, Lieut. Mowry will have an opportunity to take his seat in Congress. He is quite a young man, bul has already exhibited qualities, as a soldier and legislator, of the highest order. He graduated with distinction at West Point, and was for two or three years in command at Fort Yuma, on the Colorado. He is now the foremost man in Arizona. The embryo Territory is immensely rich in mineral wealth, and will rapidly fill up and become a State. Mr. Mowry's fortunes will rise with those of the Territory.

GOLD STORIES .- Exciting accounts of newly discovered gold fields, continue to reach us. Concerning Pike's Peak in Kansas, the Kansas Ledger says, "a considerable party has recently returned from the mines, bringing with them abundant evidence of the existence of gold, in large quantities, in the region of Pike's Peak-the actual metal in considerable quantities. They left the mines when it seemed that winter was about to set in, fearing sufforing during the cold weather." The most enchanting story of all, however, is that of the St. Louis Republican concerning Arizona. Of the gold, it is said that 150 men are digging from seven to ten dollars per day to a man. The whole product, for two months, however, is only set down at five thousand dollars. Of the silver it is said that it is "in such abundance that it is at times knocked out of the ground by the feet of the travelers."

An Indian War, as we have noted, promises to be among the settlers' troubles in the neighborhood of Spirit Lake, the scene of a massacre something over a year ago. We have as yet no tidings of actual hostilities, though there are reports of outrages committed by the wandering savages in the neighborhood. Gov. Lowe, of Iowa, has taken the matter in hand, ordering on a force for the relief of the settlers, but with the expectation that the general government will replace them with its own troops. He has written to the Secretary of War, giving him the details of the outrages, invoking his interposition, and asking him to station fifty or simy men at Spirit Lake on Little Sioux river. Gen. Jones has also written to the Secretary of war, urging his immediate attention to the Governor's suggestions, and enclosing letters from the captains of the Dubuque companies, tendering their services, and recommending the accentance of their tender.

In Augusta, Maine, a paper tells a story about a dance between a chap named Snelling. and a Rackensack girl, called Big Sis. They danced 7 hours and 57 minutes, when Big Sis caved, and took a seat in the chimney corner, fanning herself with a bread tray.
