For the "Raftsman's Journal." NEW YEAR.

BY WILLIAM LANGDON. The oak tree waves its naked arms, As boisterous winds go sweeping past; The snow-flakes, as they gently fall, Are drifted by the rushing blast.

The rocks and plains, the hills and dales, Are shrouded with a mantle o'er : The limpid streams and stagnant pools Are all congealed from shore to shore.

Old Time strides on and seasons change, And friends are oft of friends bereft; The year that's gone can't be recalled, And there are but its foot-prints left. Cherry-Tree, Pa., Jan. 1, 1859.

INTERESTING DISCOVERY .- The Rev. Dr. Mc-Cree, in his antiquarian explorations of London, has discovered the Minutes of the Westminster Assembly, in manuscript, extending over the whole period of its sittings. Dr. Lee, Principal of Edinburgh University, believed they had been destroyed by fire. They are now found in the Episcopal Library of Sion College, in the city where Presbytery in its brief, palmy days had its headquarters.

At a Methodist Festival in Warren, Mass., held a few evenings since, the floor gave way, precipitating 200 persons into the store below. A woman rushed to an adjoining store, saying, "I'm scared to death," fainted and soon died. The stove and boiler in use for the festival went down with the people, severely burning some and scalding others. It is thought that some of those who fell will die.

The latest novelty in the way of Convenfions is the convocation of the sporting fraternity, or gamblers, from all parts of the country, at Chicago, for the purpose of establishing uniform rules in games, and the noninterference of professional gamblers in the politics of the country.

Sept23 TA CARD FROM DR. JAMES M. By Inhalation, the vapor and curative properties of medicines are directly addressed to the diseased organs of the integument. I do not advise the use of Medical Inhalation of any kind to the exclusion of general treatment; and although I consider it a useful adjuvant in the proper management of those fearful and often fatal diseases, yet I deem it yery propes. and often fatal diseases, yet I deem it very neces-sary that each patient should have the benefit of both general and local treatment. The success of my treatment in the above diseases and the high character of the Institution over which I have so long had the honor to preside, are too well known to need any eulogy or comment from me. At the solicitation of many private and professional friends, through whose philanthropic aid the above charity has been long and liberally supported and after due consideration. I have concluded to make such arrangements as will bring the benefits of my experience and treatment within the reach of all, and not confine myself, as heretofore, to those only who entered the Infirmary, or who were able to visit me at my office. Hoping therefore that the arrangement will give cutire satisfaction, both to my professional brethren and the public, I would respectfully annuance in conclusion, that I can now be consulted personally or by letter, on all discusses as above, and that the medicines, the same as used in the Institution, prepared to suit each in-dividual case. Trans -My terms of treatment by letter are as follows. vis: $12 per month for each patient, which will include medicine sufficient for one month's use; also, Inhaling Vapor, and an Inhaling Apparatus.
Payment as follows: S6 to be paid to Express Agent on receipt of the box of Medicine, and the balance 86 at the expiration of the month, if the patient be cured or is entirely satisfied with the treatment. Patients, by giving a full history of their case, and their symptoms in full, can be treated as well by letter as by personal examination. Patients availing themselves of Dr. Jarrett's treatment may rely upon immediate and permanent relief, as he seldom has to treat a case over thirty days. Letters for advice promptly answered. For
