THE RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL.

TERMS OF THE JOURNAL.

It was during the second term of General Jackson that he stopped at a public house, while on his way from Nashville to Florence, Alsbama and "thereby hangs a tale." He was the guest of Mr. Samuel Wormley, as fine a the guest of Mr. Samuel Wormley, as fine a specimen of an old Virginian as you will find between the rising and the setting sun. A large company was present, and many were the due to the setting sun. A large due to the setting sun. A large company was present, and many were the due to the setting sun. A large company was present and many were between the rising and the setting sun. A large due to the setting sun. A large company was present, and many were large to the setting sun. A deduction will be made to yearly adver-much or drunk too much; rising from the seat, he said : "General allow me to introduce myself, Michael R. Moore. I married Kate, the daughter of old John Miller; give me your corn-stealer." Well, there was a laugh long and loud, in which the General heartily joined while extending his "corn-stealer."

A gentleman in Washington city was recent-ly referring in presence of Thaddeus Stevens, to the possibility of Mr. Buchanan's turning against the South for the purpose of retrieving his lost fortune in Pennsylvania, and asked Mr. Stevens what he thought would be the result. Mr. Stevens replied that there would be no trouble about that, as the South could reclaim him any time under the Fugitive Stave law ! The inquirer seemed perfectly satisfied.

Lincoln, of Illinois, got off a good one, on the day of the Senatorial election. As soon as the ballot was announced a prominent Republican approached him in the law library, and asked him "how he felt !" "Well," said Abe, "I feel a good deal like the boy did when he stubbed his toe against a root. Grabbing his foot in both hands he exclaimed : "I'm too much of a man to cry, and I'm too d-d badly hurt to laugh !"

"We must be unanimous," observed John Hancock, on the occasion of signing the American Declaration of Independence ; there must be no pulling different ways-we must all hang together." "Yes," added Franklin, "we must all hang together, or most assuredly we shall all hang separately."

The wife of Thomas Redley, of Lockport, New York, put her little child in the woodbox, near the stove, for safe keeping while she went down street ; the stove became too hot and set the wood-box on fire, and before assistance could be rendered the child was burned to death.

Henry Jackson, a shoemaker, and his wife, got beastly intoxicated in New York city, on Wednesday night, and in that condition retir-family articles generally. ed. They were found dead next morning. Drunk together in life, in death not divided.

A Juror in Northampton county, Pa., was recently let off from an absence fine on the plea that he had "been in town all the week, and was hunting for the jury but couldn't find 'em."

There are now employed, in the service of the Executive Department and Bureaus of the Government in Washington, thirteen hundred and twenty persons.

THE "GREAT REPUBLIC" MONTH LY .- To the Public, the Book and Period-ical Trade, and the Press.- We have the honor to announce that we shall issue on or about the 1st of December, 1858, so as to be in season to command the early attention of the public and periodical trade, the first number of a new Illustrated Mag-azine, to be called The Great Republic' Monthly, It is intended to make this magazine superior in every respect to anything ever before issued in this country. The general scope of its character can best be understood by its name. It will be thoraghly national-in no wise sectarian, and wholly mpersonal. It will offer to the writers and think ers of this Union a common field, where they can meet on the highest ground of cotemporary literature. It will aim to gather about it every varie-ty of intellect. The range of articles will be a wide one, covering, smong of articles will be a swide one, covering, smong other grounds, Essays, Sketches, Humerons Tales, Stories, Historical In-cidents, Reviews, Critiques, Biographies, Scientific Articles, Traveis, Table Talk, Dramas, Politics, Poems, Ballads, Starsa, Swith Park, Politics, Poems, Ballads, Stanzas, Sonnets, Music, Correspondence, Gossip, etc., etc. The Magazine will be profusely illustrated in the highest style of wood ingraving. The Literary department will present greater variety, combined with more thorough ex-cellence, it is believed, than ever before offered in the American public in a single periodical. Each number will contain an original piece of music, composed expressly for this work. Of the superior excellence of the Magazine in every respect, and of the certainty of its permanent success, very little more need be said. The Terms and general conditions of the magazine will be as follows: Volumes-There will be two volumes a year, of about 700 royal octavo pages each, commencing in January and July, and ending in June and De-cember, respectively, making six numbers to each volume, and twelve numbers to each year. Subscriptions may commence at any time. Prices-Single copies, 25 cents; 1 copy for one year, sent by mail. $3 00. Clubs-2 copies, 1 year, $5; 3 co-pies, 1 year, $7; 4 copies, 1 year, $9; 5 copies, 1 year, $10. And all additional copies, over five, at the rate of $2 a copy, if sent tothe same club. Clubsmay be formed at different post offices. All subscriptions must be paid in advance. Premium Subscriptions-Entitling each subscriber to the magazine for one year, and to their choice of ei ther of our two great steel engravangs, entitled, "The Last Supper," and "The City of the Great King." Four dollars. The engravings will be sent on rollers by mail, prepaid. TI Agents and Can-vassers can make liberal and satisfactory arrangements upon application stating the territory re-quired. All Postmasters and Clergymon are authorized to receive subscriptions, which they may forward to us, giving name and address of subseriber, deducting 25 per cent for their trouble. The rate of postage will not exceed three cents each number, to be paid in all cases at the office where it is received. All communications, to be entitled to answer, must contain return stamps. Subscribers must, in all cases, write Names, Town, Coun-ty and State in full, as legibly as possible. There is little risk in sending money by mail. Large sums should be remitted by draft, if possible, or registered fetter. OAKSMITH & CO., Publishered fetter.

HAMMONTON LANDS.-New England Settlement.-Rare Opportunity - To all wanting Farms-in a healthy place, twenty-five miles from Philadelphia, on the Camden and Atlantic Railroad, New Jersey. An old estate has recently been opened for sale, and the first divi-sion of 10,000 acres divided up into farms of 20 a-eres and upwards. The soll is of the best quality for the production of fruits, grains, &c. The price is $15 to $20 per acre, payable in easy quarter yearly instalments, within a term of four years, with interest. The terms are made easy, in order to insure the rapid improvement of the land, by enabling every undustrious man to buy a farm. It is now being extensively improved by good roads, and some of the best citizens from New England and the Middle States are creating large improvements. It is a scene of the greatest improvement ments. It is a scene of the greatest improvement out of Philadelphia. Seventy-five houses have been built in 4 months. Practical farmers and bu-siness mea from the length and breadth of the U-nion are settling there. It is an important busi-ness place, on account of its being in the midst of a great market. Every article raised on this land fundamentary incomplete the set of the finds an immediate sale. The water is excellent, and no such thing as fever is known. The soil is ability or clay loam, with a clay bottom and re-teatries of manures. It is free of stones and easily worked. It abounds largely in the phosphates, and such is its fertility that from the crops produced both upon this land and the area adjoining under cultivation, it will be found not to be ing under cultivation. It will be found not to be excelled anwhere in the production of crops most adapted to its market. The reader may be welt aware that the earliest and the best fruits and veg-etables come from New Jersey, which are annual-ly exported to the amount of millions of dollars. The land, besides being accessible in every way for fertilizers, has an abundant supply of the best quality of muck manure. Lumber and building materials can be had on the spot at a cheap price, from the mills Other the spot at a cheap price, from the mills Other mills are now being opened, and brick yards being started on the ground. A person can put up a frame tenement for present convenience for ono hundred dollars. On account of the extensive emigration, this is the best course to pursue in order to get a place to live in at first. Carpenters and buil-ders are on hand to put up houses on the best terms.

In settling here the emigrant has many advan-tages. He is within a few hours' ride of the great cities in the Middle States and New England ; he is near his old friends and associations; he is in a settled country, where every improvement and comfort of civilization is at hand : he is in a healthy place, and is not subject to the certainty of losing the greater part of his family and his own health by those malignant fevers which make the graves of so many millions of the young and hardy in far off regions away from home and friends. Besides, he has a mild climate and an open winter. There are three trains daily to Philadelphia, and to all those who improve the railroad compa ny gives a free ticket.

The reader will at once be struck with the advantages here presented, and ask himself why the property has not been taken up before. The reaon is, it was never thrown in the market ; and unless these statements were correct no one would be invited to examine the land before purchasing This all are expected to do. They will see the land under cultivation; they will meet persons, no doubt. from their own neighborhood; they will witness the improvements, and can judge of the character of the population. Persons should come prepared to purchase, as many are locating, and locations are not held on refusal.

The Hammonton Farmer, a monthly literary and Agricultural sheet, containing full information of Hammonton, will be sent to each inquirer, and of Hammonton, will be sent to each inquirer, and can be obtained at 25 cents per annum. Title indisputable. Warrantee deeds given, clear of all incumbrance, when purchase money is paid. Roate to the land :-Leave Vine street wharf. Philadelphia. for Hammonton by railroad at 7; A. M. and 5; P. M.; when there inquire for Mr. Lyrnes. Boarding conveniences will be found Betters and applications can be addressed to S B COUGHLIN, 202 South Fifth Street below Walnut, Philadelphia. Maps and information cheerfully. Philadelphia. Maps and information cheerfully furnished. Sept. 8, 1858-3m.
